IT'S TIME TO GO TO BED.

Tis strange how pa does act sometimes When I have got a beau;
He seems to think it just the time
Authority to show.
He never thinks thuself once young.
But thinks me old instead;
But raps upon the floor and shouts,
"It's time to go to bed."

Now all was ellent when at last His saddened heart to cheer, I raid, "You must not mind papa, He's getting old and queer." He sat as still as any post, And not a word was said; When lo, another rap and shout— "H's time to go to bed."

Said poor George, "May, I now must go, And let folks go to bed; He's knocked upon the floor now twice, He'll knock next on my head." "But you must come again, dear George; Remember pa is old, If he was young like you and I, I'm sure he would not scold."

But poor George never came again,
The knocking seared him out;
And always when I've got a beau
Pa's got to bang and shout.
But I have got another now,
And Johnny is his name; Tis true that Pa still bangs and shouts, But Johnny he is game.

"I think your papa has retired"—
It was no sooner said,
When instantly the rap and shout—
"It's time to go to bed."
I quickly bade dear John good night,
Up to my room did go,
And what happened quite soon after
You very soon shall know. I crept quite silent down the stairs,
While John outside did wait;
I threw my shawl about myself,
And joined him at the gate.
Hours at the gate passed pleasantly
Between dear John and I
I could not now enumerate,
No, not if I should try.

Pa says dear John has common sense In not staying so late, But knows not half the sparking done But knows not half the sparking done
By us down at the gate.
Dear papa no more raps and shouts
For us to go to bed.
There isn't so much sitting up
Since John and I were wed.
