

THE HERALD.

J. A. MACMURPHY, Editor. PLATTSMOUTH, JAN. 11, 1877.

OUR CLUB LIST FOR 1877. We present our readers this week with a club list of papers which can be taken with the Herald.

Table listing subscription rates for various papers and magazines, including The Herald, Chicago Tribune, and others.

In Sidney, Neb., they have fine sleighing, it would seem by the Telegraph.

The Kearny Press refutes Prof. Aughey's theories about grasshoppers—so it says; nobody else can tell though.

The Neb. City Press has a lengthy but exhaustive exhibit of the wealth and resources of Otoe County. It is very flattering.

We are afraid "Hohen Zollern," and maybe "Big Feet on the Sands" may have to wait until next week, but they will be just as good then.

And about now the newspapers are all full of gubernatorial messages, good, bad and indifferent. Our Governor's is excellent, but too long to publish this week.

An exchange thinks the Senate did wisely in not turning the electoral vote business over to the Supreme Court to count, as they would have pigeon-holed or docketed the whole thing until all the present candidates were dead.

Guy Brown has a bill on hand to provide for Township organizations in counties desiring it. Let's hear something about this from our people next week. It is so long since the Herald went to "Town-meeting" that we have forgotten how it works.

Frank Leslie's Budget of Fun makes a good point. It has three face-cards with legs, labeled "Louisiana, Florida, and South Carolina"—and one labeled "Oregon." It calls it "how one can beat three of a kind at Political poker."

One tried, that's true, but the game is never out till it's played out, you know. We have received a number of letters for the Letter Box, most of which must appear next week.

Mr. Abbott, lately proprietor of the Saunders House, gave the Masonic fraternity a very handsome supper on St. John's night. We believe everyone was satisfied, and moreover, we are all satisfied that Mr. Abbott has made one of the best landlords the House has had lately.

Mr. Bennett of the N. Y. Herald is in trouble, as will be seen by our dispatches, he seems to have agreed to marry a young lady, Miss May, and then backed out, one report says because he fired of her, and choose to be come dissipated as an excuse to break the match off.

ABOUT COMMISSIONERS. Last week ended the term of Mr. E. G. Dovey as County Commissioner, and at this sitting of the Board Mr. Henry Wolfe takes his place.

Some fault has been found with the organization of committees in the Senate. We think it right and just to give all parties a fair proportion of these committees. Legislators are elected to legislate for the whole people and not for a party.

Gov. Garber's Message is too long to publish in full, it is a sensible practical document, and the legislature will do well to heed most of the suggestions made there. In regard to a Reform School, he says: There is sufficient room in the west wing of the building, (State Prison) for a Reform School, which could be conducted by the same officers and put in operation at small expense.

This would separate younger criminals from the hardened, and provide a place for honest and vagrant youth, already increasing on our hands, without consorting them with those steeped in crime and lawlessness.

THE LITTLE BIRDS.

Two bills have already been introduced to protect insectivorous and game birds, or in the nature of an amendment to the present game laws.

Our people go by jumps, some years ago, they didn't want any game laws, then very strict ones, and now they ask that no birds be killed at all for three years, at least we understand that is the provision of one of the bills.

At present writing Hitchcock is by far the strongest man, and his friends feel very confident of success. His force is united, organized and on the war-path. The Republican opposition is divided as yet, and not organized thoroughly.

There has been a great deal of unnecessary abuse heaped on the candidates on both sides. It does not make or lose a vote, and only shows bad temper. Mr. Hitchcock has had rather more than his share.

Mr. Brown, secretary of Immigration matters, sends us his report for the year. We cannot at present publish in full. There are many good suggestions in Mr. Brown's report.

The bill for abolishing county school superintendents will undoubtedly be offered, and in the present condition of the Legislature, if we are any judge, passed promptly.

Mr. Corbin, the Oregon confessor of reform, seems in a bad fix. He now acknowledges that he was approached by "Patrick of Omaha" (who is he?) and asked to take a bond in making a vote for Tilden in Oregon. He refused, but afterward became amenable to reason, and offered, if his expenses were paid, to go on to Washington and try to hold the bloody radicals level.

Mr. Corbin, from South Carolina, is a New England man, who has been District Attorney of South Carolina since the war, and up to the recent election was very popular with the Democrats as account of his fair dealing, was Chamberlain also. Sitting Bull Butler, the leader of the Hamburg massacre, is to be Corbin's contestant.

OF THE ELECTIONS YET TO BE HELD. Those in Massachusetts, Illinois, Michigan and Nebraska attract the most interest here. There is a universal desire among Republicans to have Boutwell, Logan, Ferry and Hitchcock re-elected. All four are very useful members, and in the present emergency will be of infinitely more service to their party and their country than any new men that can be chosen.

FROM THE CAPITAL.

Matters move rather slowly in some ways and rapidly enough in others. There have been over 40 bills introduced in the House already, and 33 or 40 in the Senate.

On Tuesday next we commence to ballot for a United States Senator. I say we, that means all of us, for while we've don't exactly vote, they've can't play the game entirely alone.

REPORT OF MUSICAL ASSOCIATION OF WEEPING WATER.

Officers of Association: E. Woods, President; W. H. Ashman, Sec. and Treas. After concert was over concert was asked to remain and transact a little business.

Physicians recommend, and Farmers declare that no such remedies have ever before been in use, and are cheap, but it is a pity that these articles will present a trial bottle to medical men, and will guarantee more satisfactory results than have ever before been obtained.

NEBRASKA FARMER.

We received last week the first number of The Nebraska Farmer, published at Lincoln, and edited by McBride & Clarkson. It is a monthly of 28 pages gotten up in very fine style, and containing a large amount of useful reading matter.

At present writing Hitchcock is by far the strongest man, and his friends feel very confident of success. His force is united, organized and on the war-path. The Republican opposition is divided as yet, and not organized thoroughly.
