PLATTSMOUTH, JULY 5, 1877.

DR. CHILD'S history of Cass county now ready for delivery.—Bee.

A COUNTY seat removal petition was presented to the Commissioners of Plattsmouth July 3, 1877.

Mr. D. MORROW writes to us from Pawnee, W. T. which he describes as a "flourishing little town."

FRIEND Michael of the Fremont Tribune is enchanted with a new kind of logic he has discovered through the water of the Bee.

It was Richard Grant White who usually remarked that "he who can write what is worth the reading may make his own grammar."

MASON DILTZ, a hard case near Malvern, Iowa, attempted to obtain possession of a hog which a neighbor had shut up for trespass.

THE article on Beet Sugar on another page of this paper is worthy of the attention of our thinking farmers.

In the issue of July 8th, 1877, there appeared in the HERALD a statement from the County Commissioners in regard to bridge and road funds, etc.

It was either a mistake in the copy or of the printer and there is not now nor has there been since that time any land road fund at interest.

A SORTIE was made from Kass on Sunday morning, the Turks attempting to surprise the Russians and storm the hill on which the guns are placed.

ME. JOSEPH CONOR was the happy and successful bidder for One million pounds of Corn for government storage at Omaha the other day at good prices.

THE President has addressed the following circular letter to all the prominent Federal officers throughout the country:

EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, June 23.

My attention is called to the following facts—that on the 29th day of June, 1877, five or more sturdy farmers of Cass County, Nebraska, ourselves included, called at the Saunders House, Plattsmouth, Nebraska, for our dinner.
