Great Advantages to Buyers IN 1877. Ten Years Credit at 6 per cent Interest.

He Never Told a Lie. I saw him standing in the crowd. A comely youth and fair; There was a brightness in his eye.

REAL TRAGEDIES OF THE STAGE. It is a singular fact that actors are more subject to apoplexy than people of other professions.

After Labor. The swift not always was the race, Nor doth the victory fall To strength alone and oftentimes To feeble ones and small.

Phunnygrams. Autumn is the season of the year when country boys walk about under the apple trees looking for that ball they had lost.

The immortal Raphael painted his own face, and many no doubt, an excellent likeness. Many a lady paints her own face, and makes no likeness at all.

The MURDER OF EWING. Brief mention has been made in these papers of a Mrs. Ewing who murdered her husband.

THE CHOLERA OF '49. There was a terrible scare among the players in the spring of '49. The cholera was raging, and no less than seven actors congregated in Cleveland, Ohio.

A DEATH FROM "STAGE FRIGHT." I never knew of but one death caused by "stage fright." During my father's management in Cincinnati, a stage-struck youth teased him terribly to give him an opening.

A TOUCHING APPEAL. Mrs. Ewing appears to have repented. The letter is addressed to Mr. Sol Smith, and is dated New Orleans, May 25, 1845.
