Looking out of our sanctum on Monday morning we discovered water coming out of the end on a hose, some 35 to 46 feet from the top of the on a bose, some 38 to 36 feet from the top of the Saunders House. Upon going over to investigate the mystery we found the other end of the hose attached to the pump spout that is used for the Hotel kitchen, and only one man working the lever. Mr. Gregory is offering these pumps in the market at very low prices. This pump is acknowledged to be the best force pump is the world. It is strong and durable, no stone jurs and leather valves to get out of order, and pumps so easy that a child can work it. One will be put up to a public well on Mala street zoon. Parties wishing pumps for deep or shallow wells should examine this one before purchasing elsewhere.
