LOCAL NEWS

Use "Centennial Rat Exterminator."

—Phil Young has got the handsomest lot of babies we ever saw—of the kind.

—The Sociable at Mrs. Skinners last Thursday Evening, was a very pleasant affair and very well attended.

—Go to Phil Young and ask him for a box of Inkies—all colors—assorted sizes—Christmas is coming.

—We are pleased to see Joe. Lloyd, once more out upon the streets, in a much improved condition.

—Sewing Machines repaired, for a few days, now. I can fix any machine brought to me. F. A. SKINNER.

—Mr. Peter Eveland of Bushbury this county, called on the HERALD last week. Mr Eveland's name and surname sounds very familiar to the Editor of this paper.

—A communication from Lincoln and some local matter must lie over until next week, as we go to Press Wednesday afternoon, in order to let the Printers have a good home Thanksgiving dinner.

—We would like the Editor of the Watchman to show us the authority for using any such word as "heartfeltedly." For a professor in Grammar Mac does use some astonishing words.

J. V. Weckbach says he's healed on salt in quantity, quality and price. Will not be undersold. 27tf

—A report has reached Plattsmouth that Henry McMakin was shot and killed in the Black Hills. We can not vouch for its truth.

—The Annual Festival of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, held in Parmele Hall, Friday Evening, was very well attended, much better than we anticipated, the music was excellent and the enjoyment immense.

Notice.

Any person not receiving their certificate of election promptly will please notify the County Clerk, at once giving their full name and P. O. address. It is impossible to know the address of all the candidates elected.

C. P. MOORE, Co., Clerk.

A ST. LOUIS paper says: "A lawyer by the name of Ghost is practicing in Lincoln, Neb., and an exchange wants to know how he can ever 'spector sucseed. He will doubtless demonstrate his ability at goblin up the fees, and thus reach the ghoul of his ambition.

—Oh Dear! We fear our boasted Italian Skies have left us for aye. There have been more rainy, cloudy, muggy days this fall than we ever saw in Nebraska before. If planting trees and buildings and railroads does all this we'll have to quit setting out any more forests, and voting bonds to Railroads. We can't endure such weather long in our pretty state.

—Mr. Wm. Roden, living near Eight Mile Grove, this county, received a telegram Monday from Corinne, Utah, that a son of his, who has been in that country for the past five years, was shot and killed (no particulars given) and asking what should be done with the body. Word was immediately sent back to send the body on here. Mr. R. is brother-in-law of Mr. Jos. Lloyd.

—We learn with the greatest sorrow that Mr. Toman, of Louisville, has lost the sight of one eye, by one of those unavoidable accidents that happen every now and then. Having already lost a leg, this double deprivation entitles him to the heartiest sympathy of the entire community.

—John Wayman is building, casting, making a new iron front for Guthman's and Masonic Block, this will be a great improvement. Wayman is always up and dressed for business.

—Harlan's lecture, Monday Dec., 3d; —Admission 25 cts; The usual musical entertainment of the Society will be given with the Lecture.

Be Wise and Prudent.

—Remember Hon. Thos. Harlan's lecture on Monday Dec. 3d at the High School building before the Plattsmouth Literary Society. Subject: "Civilization never goes backwards."

Lecture commences at 7:30 P. M. Admission 25 cents.

—Plattsmouth Lodge No. 6, A. F. & A. Masons, will hold their Annual Masonic Festival on DECEMBER 27TH, 1877.

Further particulars will appear in next week's paper. The committee who have the Festival in charge this year, are: J. F. Johnson, J. Pepperberg, J. W. Marshall, S. S. Hinkle, J. N. Black, and Jo n Beveridge, which bespeak that everything will be done to make the entertainment a complete success, as has been the verdict heretofore.

Ducks! Don't They.

Messrs. Jones, Smith, Mathews, Sam Long and E. B. Lewis—returned from a pleasant and successful hunt over in Iowa, last Thursday, and presented the HERALD with three very fine ducks. Since writing the above, we have reason to think there might be a deeper motive in having those ducks here than appears on the surface. We have asked Jones, and Jones says go to Long, Long says go to Lewis and Lewis says the day, "Snyder," knows all about it. Seein' as we got some ducks "mum" 's our game just now.

If Not! Why Not!

Go to the P. O. News Depot and Variety Bazar, for your Tin and China cups and saucers, mugs, vases, dressed dolls, wax and china limb dolls, albums at all prices; Heiel's crying babies, express wagons, sleighs, doll perambulators, toy carts, bird cages, toy furniture, pipes, cigar cases, in fact all kinds of holiday presents, at low down hard-times prices. tf

Here I am.

Fresh and fat, just from the mountains, the largest of my race that has been here since this was a town. My weight is 227 pounds. I can be found at Young's meat market until I am sliced up and sold out, then my head and horns will remain to remind you that I was once a fine black tail deer. SICK ROOM, PLATTSMOUTH, NOV. 27.

DEAR HERALD: After serving as Co. Assessor for two years, for Plattsmouth City precinct, I so freely expressed myself as opposed to the third term, that I had no thought that my name would again be used in connection with that office but to my great surprise, on the morning after the late election, (not having received the least intimation that my name had been placed upon the ticket,) I was informed by my Physician that I had been elected assessor; not having the opportunity to decline the nomination, I shall not now after the flattering majority given me, resign the office. It was said by one "I ask no favors and shrink from no responsibility," and I can adopt the latter sentiment. I feel like asking the favor, the co operation, and the assistance of all in the work, believing that much time and expense may be saved thereby especially may this be done if each one would make in advance a schedule of household personal property, thereby saving much time of the assessor. As I shall endeavor to discharge the duties of the office according to law and the best of my ability. I trust that it may be done to the satisfaction of the great majority of my fellow citizens. Truly,

T. W. SHRYOCK,
Assessor Elect.

Our Tin-tin-nab-u-la-tions.

Mr. and Mrs. MacMurphy of the HERALD, had a Tin wedding at their house Monday evening, Nov. 26, and two more surprised people you never saw. Wishing to make some note of the flight of time, on the 10th Anniversary of their wedded life, and having no toddlers to space off the years as they roll, it struck them that it would be a good way to get a few of their neighbors and friends together and make merry on tin, not dreaming of the beautiful things those same kind neighbors and friends would lay up in store for them. On the day mentioned the early express began to bring things in from Chicago and abroad. The afternoon mail brought a remembrance from Lincoln and a telegram from Massachusetts told them they were not forgotten even in old and far away New England.

As the evening grew older, hosts of home friends dropped in and soon the tables and chairs were covered with valuable, curious, and beautiful presents; a very handsome spoon holder, far removed from tin except in color, an epergne ornamented with most beautiful flowers, a bed room set, an exquisite pickle dish. Among the curious were, some pressed sea moss, an elegant specimen, framed in tin; picture of Mr. and Mrs. MacMurphy in street costume, framed elaborately in tin; A tin neck-tie (was that a hint, Cap?) and tin studs, with masonic emblems thereon; A tin watch chain and locket; Some tin brackets and a card receiver.

Among the funny, were tin whistles till you couldn't rest! a huge, rusty old coffee boiler, done up in an acre of paper and tied with rope; an elaborate bundle with forty wrappings and many HERALDS interspersed with stick s of candy around it contained at last a small tin-whistle; several rattles, a complete set of dishes, tiny and dainty; a—if we began to try to enumerate them all, the HERALD would have to publish an extra suffice to say the evening was a very happy one and will be remembered at the HERALD home as one of the bright marks in their journey through life.

Personal.

Eugene Mayfield, Typographical engineer of the Louisville Chronicle was in town over Sunday.

Robert Wellburn, called on the HERALD Monday and cordially invited us out to Oysters and such, at his house. We're coming Robert, never refuse that, if we can help it.

Wm. Short fixed our pump nicely last week. We guess William is a valvy kind of fellow whose suction is always right and no lost motion about him.

MARRIED.

HAMAN—WILEY—By the Rev. A. B. Chase, of Weeping Water, at the residence of the bride's father, Dr. W. W. Wiley, near Three Groves, Thursday, Nov. 22d, 1877, JOHN S. HAMAN to LOUISE A. WILEY, both of Cass County, Neb.

The bride, Miss Wiley, is the daughter of one of the oldest settlers in the County, both Dr. and Mrs. Wiley are known far and wide for their hospitality. The groom, Mr. Eaman, is also one of the old settlers in Cass, he himself living now, though on Wood River, where he has a cattle farm. The wedding took place at 11 a. m., Thursday last, at the old farm house. Mr. and Mrs. Drake, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Wiley Mr. and Mrs. Eaman, relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Buck, Mr. and Mrs. DaBois, Mrs. Kiepser, and other friends of the family not personally known to the HERALD were present. A bounteous repast followed the ceremony, and the happy couple departed for Plattsmouth where they took the rail for Chicago, and further east in Illinois and Indiana. This is about the best wedding we can have down to Doc's, and the HERALD made the most of the opportunity, in stowing away more good things than usual. From the kiss we stole of the bride to the last mouthful of turkey, we enjoyed every bit of it, and only hope the next wedding down there will come around while we are above ground yet.

Mrs. Wiley did not forget the printers, neither Mr. Eaman, as a huge cake and lots of cigars at the office can testify. Verbum sap.

Nothing short of unmistakable benefits conferred upon tens of thousands of sufferers could originate and maintain the reputation which AYER'S SARSAPARILLA enjoys. It is a compound of the best vegetable alteratives, with the iodides of Potassium and Iron, and is the most effectual of all remedies for scrofulous, mercurial, or blood disorders. Uniformly successful and certain in its remedial effects, it produces rapid and complete cures of Scrofula, Sores, Boils, Humors, Pimples, Eruptions, Skin Diseases and all disorders arising from impurity of blood. By its invigorating effects it always relieves and often cures Liver Complaints, Female Weaknesses and Irregularities, and is a potent renewer of vitality. For purifying the blood it has no equal; it tones up the system, restores and preserves the health, and imparts vigor and energy. For forty years it has been in extensive use, and is to-day the most available medicine for the suffering sick, everywhere.
