THE HERALD.

LOCAL NEWS.

Several loads of corn or oats taken here now. 41tf

—H. Bestor, one of Cass County's best farmers called in Saturday, and took a slew of papers for next year.

Corn and oats taken at this office on Subscription at market rates. 41tf

—Geo. Levings' house is nearly completed, and is going to be one of the tastiest little houses in the town.

Bring in your corn or oats to the HERALD office. 41tf.

—A great many received calls in Omaha, this year; and the Globe Democrat, St Louis, printed 8 columns of those who would receive.

—June Black is the Treasurer of the Red Ribbon funds and those who subscribed and want to pay can find him at A. W. White's Store.

—The Ladies of the Red Ribbon Club will meet at the M. E. Church to-day at 2:30 p. m., to organize a Cold Water Army. All the ladies in town invited to be present.

—Judge Sullivan has already located himself in the house he bought of Ex-Judge Newell, and Mr. Newell goes out on his farm, whenever the weather will let him, we suppose.

—The High School Literary Society will meet next Monday evening, as usual in the High School building. Programme same as last published, that meeting having been deferred.

—J. W. Johnson, Esq'r., has been building a good farm house out on his place some six miles from town. Hope "Joe" may live to see his children and grand-children happily settled about the old homestead.

—H. Seibold is again appointed County Deputy for the State Grange and is ready to attend to any business that may be brought before him by his brethren of the Grange. His address is Plattsmouth, Neb.

—Geo. Vallery, who has been firing on the R. R. lately, got his hand mashed severely last Friday evening. It was thought at first he would have to lose his hand, but he is much better now and will get off minus a finger, we guess.

—A Fine Microscope is very useful as well as Interesting for every family. A good one offered in our advertising columns, for a mere trifle. The American Agriculturist referred to there is a very useful and valuable Journal. Read the announcement.

—Chas. H. Ferry, agent for O. W. Gray, Phil., has been through our town as agent for a new and handsome Atlas containing maps of Towns, Counties, and States—These maps are very fine and will be bound in book form for reference and home use.

Plattsmouth Temple of Honor will meet next Saturday evening, at the old hall of Macoy Lodge, at 7:30 sharp, for the purpose of initiating and other work.

—Mr. James Vick, of Rochester N. Y. the great seedsman has commenced the publication of just the finest magazine out. Monthly and only $1.25 pr year. We shall give extended notice next week, and in the meantime any one wishing to subscribe for Vicks Illustrated Monthly Magazine can do so here.

—While urging on the readers of the HERALD the importance of wool growing and dairying for Nebraska in the future, we are reminded that our friend, Sam Thomas, has been running a fair dairy establishment for some time now, and has made it quite successful. He proceeds on the regular creamery plan, deep pans, milks Devon cows and grades and has made 2,000 pounds of butter this year, which found a ready sale.

—As some books have already been offered towards forming a Library it has been suggested that such persons as may have books or magazines that they are willing to donate to a public Library, had better see Mr. Pollock, chairman of Com. on Reading Room, and state what they are willing to do. Suitable furniture, chairs &c., would not be amiss as offerings and we will thus husband our cash for such books and other necessaries as cannot be obtained without the cash.

—The HERALD has a good joke on Bob Maxwell, and on our printers too. You have all heard of the "Intelligent Compositor" who inhabits every Newspaper office.

Well, Bob and our I. C., together, did this.

Maxwell sent us up a legal notice to print which was supposed to set out in the usual style as follows: "Defendant will take notice that plaintiff has commenced suit before A. Carmichael, a justice of the peace in Cass County," &c—when the proof came in it read: "Defendant will take notice that plaintiff has commenced suit before a connubial justice of the peace in Cass County, &c.," on examining Bob's copy it was hard to make out which word, the letters stood for. Considering his recent marriage, we let the boy off, and our I. C. still flourishes.

—A Good Templar's Lodge was organized in this city last evening, with 76 ladies and gentlemen initiated, and there are about as many more names as applicants for future initiation. As we are just ready for press, we can't give list of officers &c, at this time.

MACDONAGH having exhausted the Grammar falls back on the Dictionary unabridged, for words to get at Mr. Finch with.

—The Ladies at the Red Ribbon Hall New Years' day, gave refreshments to 455 gentlemen and 362 ladies 817 in all and in the evening the Hall was so crowded that serious fears were entertained for the safety of the floors. It was a very happy way to spend New Years and no doubt saved many a lad from the periodical head-ache of next day after a holiday.

Mr. Lewellyn Moore, has been making extensive additions to his Greenhouse, nearly doubling its capacity, and also adding a work shop so that everything may be kept neat and clean about the green house rooms. He tells us he is working up quite a trade in "cut flowers" in Omaha and elsewhere. We are pleased to hear of these good tidings, for Mr. Moore deserves great praise for the perseverance and energy he has displayed in this line of business.

—Bob Wilburn's folks came near having a serious catastrophe at their house last week. By some means nux vomica (a preparation containing styrchnine) had been left standing on the table in one of the rooms and a little toddler, just able to crawl up on a chair, did so and from thence to the table when he took a sip from the nux bottle and in a few moments was in spasms. Dr. Schildknecht was sent for and hurried out there just in time to save the child. The Doctor stayed all night with him however, and it was a very close shave.

A Temple of Honor was formed here last week with 60 members. Among those who joined were D. H. Wheeler, Sam M. Chapman, Alex Schlegel, S. S Hinkle, William H Baker, Edward Kennedy, W S Blackburn, M B Cutler, James Morrison, J M Woodson, J P Young, Edward F Rees, Dr G H Black, Geo E Dovey, Robert Donnelly, P Hicks, Geo W Kinsey, P P Gass, William Stone, William S Wise, Issac Wiles, Jas A Connor, J J Weaver, E. W Black, L Davis, W F Morrison, H C Chubbuck, Thos Mitchell. E D Stone, Chas E Duke, John S Duke, Thos Pollock, E B Lewis, C Mahony, W L Wells

The following Templars were elected and installed as officers of Plattsmouth Temple of Honor, No. 15.

Daniel H Wheeler, Worthy Chief Templar; Wm Agnew, Worthy Vice Templar; George E Dorsey, Worthy Recorder; Wm H Baker, Worthy Assistant Recorder; J A Conner, Worthy Financial Recorder; Thos Pollock, Worthy Treasurer; E D Stone, Worthy Usher; J E Morrison, Worthy Assistant Usher; E W Black, Guardian; L Davis, Sentinel.

After the organization speeches were made by Chapman, Wheeler and others and the new edifice of honor seems fair to rise to great proportions here.

QUITE a number of persons have offered to bring us corn or oats when we did not need them, now we will take some glad'y on Subscription. 41tf

—It is not known to every one that Mr. John Shannon is the agent here for the SHENANDOAH NURSERIES, Iowa; but he is, and has been receiving all the time some choice and rare shrubbery, trees, &c. If any one wants to see just what these Nurseries are and what they can do, let them call on John Shannon, and go over to his lot and see what preparations he is making for the Spring trade. John is very enthusiastic on trees, shrubs, plants; and it will do you good to get him talking on them.

While the HERALD most sincerely hopes the new order of things in regard to Temperance (real temperance) may continue and be permanent, and that the reading room and Library may prove a success, and a lasting institution to the credit of the town and the improvement of the morals and manners of the rising generation, we cannot forbear this just criticism to our for the time excessively enthusiastic friends in the cause of moral and mental reform.

If each and every one of these ardent workers, had done their whole duty in the years gone by, if the men had put their hands down in their pockets long ago and the women had gathered together and worked and insisted on some place other than the Saloon being provided for our youth and grown men, it could and would have been done 'ere this and no need of Mr Finch's desperate appeals. If each and every man of good moral habits and right thought had boldly and bravely performed his whole duty as a citizen, and marched up to the polls year after year and voted in the interest of growth and prosperity to the town and the people, and not only voted, but stayed there and worked, and given the power of his influence to the surroundings of the polls there would be no need of a stampede now, to inaugurate a reform. The Masonic Lodge inculcates temperance in every obligation, lecture and precept. The whole body of Christians talk it, and the preachers preach it and have preached it, lo! these many years; it is a sad commentary on the proneness of mankind to neglect their ordinary every day duties until some great accident, some startling wonder wakes them up to their long neglected duty. The HERALD has many times and oft, asked you to form Library and Improvement associations, your ministers have no doubt exhorted you weekly to temperance and all good works, we have both helped you in good days and in bad days, stayed with you in health and in sickness in short borne all the burdens of life with you for years and it is small encouragement to us, to feel that in one short week, for an entire stranger, a traveling Lecturer, here to day and off to-morrow you will raise money, join hands, and work as you never worked before, for the love the good of or the advice of old friends.

MARRIED.

SHOEMAKER—CARSTEN—At the residence of A. N. Sullivan, on the 20th of Dec., 1877, MR. HENRY SHOEMAKER to MISS MINNIE CARSTEN, all of Cass County, A. N. Sullivan officiating.

Personal.

Harry Bartle's fun loving face appears on our streets.

Mrs. O'Grady is spending a portion of the holidays in Plattsmouth.

Mr. Martindale, our New County Superintendent, called to see us yesterday.

E. A. Kirkpatrick and family, spent New Years in Plattsmouth, with their relatives and friends.

Mrs. Elbert Duke came down from Omaha for a short visit, and to help receive New Year's calls.

Mrs. French makes flying trips to Plattsmouth, but does not fly over the road from the Barracks to Omaha.

Mr. J. Q. Goss and wife of Bellevue, spent New Years day in Plattsmouth, the guests of Rev. and Mrs. Burgess.

Miss Laura Morse spent a few days with friends in Plattsmouth, and was warmly greeted by a number of her old pupils.

Cap't Paine and wife were down to see us on St. Johns day, and attended the Masonic Ball. They both look splendid and seem very happy in their new Lincoln home.

J. W. Barnes Esq'r a staunch friend of the HERALD, we believe, called to see us the day after New Years—and well, as John wears a red ribbon you may all rest assured we spent none of the money for beer.

Mr. A. O. Ashley, who will be our next Deputy Sheriff, is now living among us and the HERALD had the pleasure of an introduction to him the other day. Besides this Mr. A. is a good carriage Painter and probably will open a shop here.

"Gad", The Champion traveling man of the Journal was in town New Years. He went down to the Lady's Red Ribbon rooms for dinner, and there was such a Slaughter there immediately, that a wagon had to be sent out for more provisions to last the day through.

Frank Stader, of Lincoln, now, is down to see us during the Holidays. "Professor," they call him in Lincoln, and we must say the professor looks well kept, and in good heart. He has a fine room in the University building, twelve students and all the portrait work he can do.

Various causes—advancing years care, sickness, disappointment, an hereditary disposition—all operate to turn the hair, and either of them inclines it to shed permanently. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR will restore faded or grey, light and red hair to a rich or deep black as may be desired. It softens and cleanses the scalp, giving it a healthy action, and removes and cures dandruff and humors. By its use falling hair is checked, and a new growth will be produced in all cases where the follicles are not destroyed or glands decayed. Its effects are beautifully shown on brashy, weak, or sickly hair to which a few applications will produce the gloss and freshness of youth. Harmless and sure in its operation, it is incomparable as a dressing, and is especially valued for the soft luster and richness of tone it imparts. It contains neither oil nor die, and will not soil or color white cambric; yet it lasts long on the hair and keeps it fresh and vigorous. For sale by all dealers.
