To fasten labels to tin cans, put a teaspoonful of brown sugar into a quart of paste, and it will fasten labels as securely to the tin cans as to wood.

Many cases of overdose of medicine from administering it in "tea-spoonful" doses have occurred.

A discussion is in progress in the medical journals respecting indigestible medicines. The assertion is made that doses are given often without regard to whether the patient's stomach is in condition to digest them; and, if undigested, they not only fail as remedies, but may do positive harm.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE NEBRASKA WOOL-GROWERS' AND SHEEP-RAISERS' ASSOCIATION.

An adjourned meeting of this association convened at the Commercial Hotel in Lincoln, at 2 o'clock January 16th, 1878.

Resolved, That we, the wool-growers of Nebraska, are opposed to any material alteration of the tariff laws on wool and woolen goods at present in force, believing that they afford a just and necessary protection to the home producer.

Resolved, That we take this opportunity of expressing our sympathy with the depressed and suffering industries of our land, and pledge them our earnest co-operation and support in resisting any attempt to deprive them of the cheap labor and capital of other lands.

Resolved, That the necessities of the case demand, that while we sustain the tariff laws, we should encourage the introduction of new and more diversified industries, to the end that American labor and its products may find a market at home, and not be compelled to enter into a humiliating competition in other markets already suffering from production in excess of their means of consumption.

On motion, a committee of three was appointed to correspond with manufacturers, and urge the construction of woolen mills, carding mills, etc., in Nebraska, tendering the aid of the association to whomsoever might undertake the construction of such manufacturing establishment; also to correspond with the owners of woolen mills within convenient reach and see at what rate the wool grown by the members of the association can be contracted for the year 1878.

The following is the committee: Moses Stocking, J. H. Culver, and T. H. Leavitt. The following is the Constitution and By-Laws adopted.

SECTION 1. It shall be the duty of the President to preside at all meetings of the association, to direct the secretary when and where to call the annual or any special meeting which may be ordered.

SECTION 2. The Secretary shall keep a complete record of the association in a book provided for that purpose; he shall draw all warrants for moneys to be expended upon the Treasurer, and shall present the same to the President for his signature.

SECTION 3. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to receive and account for all moneys belonging to the association, to pay out the same upon the warrant of the Secretary, countersigned by the President, and to make out and present an annual statement of his receipts and expenditures to the Board of Directors.

SECTION 4. The Board of Directors shall constitute an executive committee to superintend all affairs of the association; to fix the times and places for holding public shearings and fairs, classify and arrange premiums, appoint committees of examination and award, examine and audit claims, and to generally transact any business pertaining to the executive office.
