The Western Rural.

THE WESTERN RURAL, of Chicago, is rapidly growing in popularity and influence, for the enterprising and aggressive spirt it manifests. Its several departments are full of interest and admirably adapted to all the interests of the Farm and the Fireside. It advocates equal rights to all classes, and strongly opposes the encroachments of capital and the grinding monopolies which tend to get a foothold in our land. The summary of general news and market reports is excellent. In fact The Westken Rural has assumed the vantage ground as being the foremost of its kind in this country. We are not surprised that its circulation and influence are rapidly extending.
