I suffered the most exeruciving pain in my head, was so hourse as to be scare by able to speak, and coughed increasely. I thought I was going into quick consumption, and I simily believe that had these symptoms continued without relief they would have rendered me an easy victim. When in this distressing condition, I commenced the use of Saryone's Rantons, Conserved all the advertised remed is withouthe in it. The first doze of this wonderful mentione grave me the greatest relief. It is hardly possible for one whose head sches, eyes sche, who can scarcely at iculate distingly on account of the choking accommisations in his throat, to realize how much relief to brained from the first application of Saryone's Rantons Cunz. Under Rainfluence, both internal and external, I rapidly recovered, and by an occasional use of the remedy since, have been cuttrely free from Catarrh, for the first time in twelve years.
