The Republican Electors of the State of Nebraska are hereby called to send delegates from the several counties, to meet in State Convention at Lincoln on the 1st day of October, 1878, at 2 o'clock, p. m. for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for the following named offices, viz;

One Judge of the Supreme Court.
One Member of Congress.
One Member of Congress, contigent.
Governor.

Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor,

Freasurer. Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Superintendent of Public Instruction.
Attorney-General.
Land Commissioner.
And to transact such other business as may properly come before the Convention.
The several counties are entitled to representation in the State Convention as follows, based upon the highest vote received, either by Silas Garber for Governor in 1876, or C. A. Holmes for Regent in 1877, (except Seward, whose representation is based upon the vote of George B. Lake for Judge of the Supreme Court for 1877,) giving one delegate to each 150 votes, and one for the fraction of 75 votes, also one delegate at large for each organized county.
