

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

Supreme Judge, ALEX. C. CARNESE, of Lancaster. Member of Congress (Long Term), E. K. VALENTINE, of Columbia, Co. Member of Congress (Short Term and Coal.), THOS. J. MAJOBS, of Lancaster. Governor, AUBINUS SANCHE, of Polk. Lieutenant-Governor, E. C. CARNESE, of Seward. Secretary of State, S. M. BARTLETT, of Thayer. Auditor, F. W. LIEBKE, of York. Treasurer, G. M. BARTLETT, of Lancaster. Superintendent, A. R. THOMPSON, of Lancaster. Attorney General, C. J. DILLWORTH, of Dawson. Land Commissioner, F. M. DAVIS, of Clay.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

For State Senator, ORLANDO TEFTE. For Representatives, R. B. WINDHAM, JNO. F. POLK, BRAD STONE. For County Commissioners—Ed. D. SAMUEL RICHARDSON. For District Attorney—Ed. J. C. WARREN, of Otoe County.

WHERE is our opponent now for votes? REPUBLICANS, remember the Mass Meeting on Saturday at Eight Mile Grove.

But for factions opposition on the floor of the Convention, Cass county might have had a candidate for a State office to-day.

The State Wool Grower's Association met at Lincoln during the State Fair and decided to hold a grand sheep shearing at Kearney, in the spring at such particular time and with such regulations as the President, Hon. Moses Stocking, may hereafter direct. Success to the sheep-shears.

At the Democratic Convention at Worcester, Mass., Ben Butler's men entered the hall and took possession by force. The anti-Butler democrats retired and will assemble at Faneuil hall, the coming week from whence they think Old Ben cannot drive them. The mob rule of Butler's gang is going to react and hurt his cause. It looks now as if conservative Republicans and Democrats will unite to put down Kearney-ism and Butler-ism.

MASS MEETING.

At Eight Mile Grove, on Saturday, Oct. 12th, at 2 o'clock, p. m. The Republicans of Cass County are requested to assemble in mass meeting at Eight Mile Grove, on Saturday, Oct. 12th, 1878, for the purpose of opening and inaugurating the campaign in this county. It is desirable that every true Republican turn out to help us to victory. Jno. A. MacMurphy, Ch'k Gen'l. Com.

The Democratic Convention at Lincoln was a curious affair. A synopsis of the proceedings appears elsewhere. The facts are the younger element of the party just deliberately and with malice aforethought sat down on all old chaps and say they mean to keep them on the ground. The soft money wing won the day entirely, though we do not believe they on one cent about the money question in reality and as soon as they can eliminate those they oppose from power in the party, the party as a party will return to its dogmas on finance.

VICTORY!

Mr. MacMurphy, the candidate from Cass did not get the nomination, but was third on the list when during the stampede for Alexander the delegation from Cass asked him to withdraw. The result shows now that had he held on one more ballot he could have been nominated. A number of personal friends would have voted for Mr. MacMurphy on the third ballot, and he had already enough to have prevented a nomination on that ballot had he not withdrawn rather against his better judgment. Of the light made on him from Cass county when on the floor of the House, we shall speak hereafter.

DELETED.

Of course we are late this week. The publication of the tax list turned out much larger than we or the Treasurer expected, and although we have three extra hands and have crowded everything, it will still be Saturday before the paper goes to press. Any extended notice of the convention, all comments on its course, the platform, notice of home politics, candidates, all personal and local notices, correspondence, etc., must be excluded until next week. We did let the news when our election was postponed until November we would have some chance in the far for notice of affairs, and publishing of tax list before the campaign opened, but the Legislature also changed the time of land sales together again. This year all in two week's time. Next week we shall discuss the platform and convention proceedings more fully.

THE STATE CONVENTION.

Exciting Sessions Tuesday and Wednesday—Many Double Headers—The Fall Ticket Nominated—Glorious Work.

The Republican State Convention met in the Opera House, Lincoln, on Tuesday to nominate a full state ticket. There were about three hundred delegates in town and many visitors, and the hours preceding the opening of the convention were occupied by the crowds at the Commercial House in discussing the merits of prospective candidates and the peculiar features of the situation. All agreed however in one respect, namely, that the convention would consume considerable time in finishing its work.

THE CONVENTION opened shortly after 3 o'clock, when J. W. Dawes, Chairman of the State Central Committee, called the meeting to order. Judge M. L. Hayward, of Otoe county, was unanimously elected temporary chairman, C. F. Goodman, of Douglas, temporary secretary, and Geo. Brooks, of Knox county, assistant secretary.

The committee on credentials was appointed as follows: First District—A. H. Babcock, of Pawnee county. Second—J. H. Stull, of Nemaha. Third—C. L. Laughlin, of Burt. Fourth—C. L. Lewis, of Seward. Fifth—J. H. McCall, of Dawson. Sixth—J. B. Barnes, of Dixon.

At Large—Sam Chapman, of Platts-mouth. Mr. Hascall made a statement in regard to the double-header from Douglas County, and asked that the committee explain why the contestants are from Douglas County. The chairman stated that the committee had been directed to leave the whole matter to the Convention.

During the evening session a number of contests and several Counties were settled by the Convention, and the organization of the body was made permanent. In the contest of the Douglas County factions Mr. Connell and Mr. Thurston carried on the argument and the result was that after a bitter debate the Thurston delegation was admitted, receiving 119 votes, while the Lake wing had but 109 of the 279 votes cast. The Frank county fight followed, and finally the Valentine voters were admitted. The Gosper county feud was settled by the delegation themselves, and after an exciting wrangle the Hays delegation were admitted at 3 o'clock in the morning as the real representatives of Madison county.

BALLOTING.

The following ballots were taken on Wednesday night: First informal for Congressman: Cronse, 110; Valentine, 95; Blanchard, 43; McBride, 31; Mason, 23; Gwyer, 1. Four formal ballots were taken and the final one stood thus: Valentine, 181; Cronse, 91; Blanchard, 29.

In Wednesday evening's meeting a ballot for congressman was the subject resulted as follows: Majors, 255; O'Haves, 35; Major's nomination was made unanimous, and he was then nominated by acclamation for contingent. The informal ballot for Governor resulted: Nance, 81; Dawes, 67; Daily, 63; Chase, 34; Abbott, 24; Holmes, 16; Croxton, 13. The third formal ballot resulted in the nomination of Mr. Nance as follows: Nance, 163; Dawes, 87; Daily, 41; Chase, 7; Holmes, 3.

On motion of Judge Post the rules were suspended and E. C. Carnese was nominated for Lieutenant Governor by acclamation.

SECRETARY OF STATE. Samuel L. Cannon put in nomination Jno. A. MacMurphy, of Cass; A. D. Slocum, Dr. Sadler of Adams; C. Walker, J. F. Zediker of Franklin; W. B. Parrish, D. B. Slaughter of Lancaster; J. W. Davidson, Bruno Tzschuck of Sarpy; A. S. Weaver, S. J. Alexander of Thayer; G. C. Reed, T. Harlan of Harlan. Some one whose name could not be ascertained nominated D. H. Wheeler of Cass.

A formal ballot was taken at once resulting as follows: FIRST BALLOT. J. A. MacMurphy, 29; S. Sadler, 43; J. F. Zediker, 27; B. D. Slaughter, 77; Bruno Tzschuck, 15; S. J. Alexander, 50; T. Harlan, 21; D. H. Wheeler, 18; Liebke, 8; Blank, 1. Whole vote cast, 297.

SECOND BALLOT. J. A. MacMurphy, 39; S. Sadler, 31; J. F. Zediker, 17; B. D. Slaughter, 105; Bruno Tzschuck, 15; S. J. Alexander, 81; T. Harlan, 20; Thomas Harlan, 1. Votes cast, 307.

Seeing that a combination was being formed to elect S. J. Alexander, the next ballot was held with Zediker then withdrew in favor of Alexander, followed by Tzschuck and Sadler. D. H. Wheeler's name was also withdrawn. MacMurphy then withdrew his name, leaving the contest between Alexander and Slaughter.

The third ballot was D. B. Slaughter, 123; S. J. Alexander, 184. Alexander's nomination was then made unanimous. Tzschuck being out of the way for Secretary, Liebke, the only German candidate in the field, had a fair show for Auditor and was nominated on the third ballot by a vote of 185. It was nearly morning on Thursday. The balloting on Treasurer was close, resulting in the nomination of Mr. Bartlett, of Lancaster, the present deputy. Prof. Thompson, present incumbent, was nominated for Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Gen. Dillworth was nominated for Attorney General.

F. M. Davis was nominated for Lieutenant Governor by acclamation, there being no other candidates. The convention adjourned for breakfast. After that the committee on Platform reported, and a Central Committee was appointed. A disgraceful debate occurred on the adoption of a resolution regarding bridge tolls at Omaha, and the convention was still wrangling when we left Thursday noon.

It is impossible to publish the platform this week. It is a sound money platform and on it we will write the battle. W. W. The Judicial District Convention met at Nebraska city on the 23d, and John C. Watson was nominated by acclamation. Mr. Watson is a young Attorney of Otoe, who has won his way by energy, industry and ability to a high position at the bar, and will no doubt make an excellent District Attorney if elected.

The ends of the Greenbackers who are fat money men, who believe that the government can stamp leather, wood, stone or paper, and call it money, could only be attained through revolution. It is impossible, under the present constitution, for the government to make (not coin) money. With the mere demagogue who only hunts an office, and who only cares to create a disturbance and dissatisfaction with the party in power it is useless to argue. He neither knows nor cares anything about the true principles of finance, nor the facts in the case.

To the honest Greenbacker who is deluded with this notion of irredeemable paper money and oceans of it, we say examine the facts and see when and how you can get what you think you want—suppose your theory is correct, suppose for the mere argument that your fat money was the money we want and need, how will you get it through the green-back party? The Congress that meets this winter is not a greenback congress, in your sense of the term. The congressmen you elect this fall do not take their seats until a year hence, and then the first practical thing they could do, (provided it was then a fat money congress) would be to submit an amendment of the constitution to the people. This must be ratified by two-thirds of the states, which would consume another year almost—and does any one of sense suppose two-thirds of the states would ratify any such amendment? This is the only way under the foras of law that such change could be made, and the only other way, as we have said, is by revolution, anarchy and confusion.

Long before this could be accomplished the money question of this country will have settled itself, and the conservative forces of either old party will have placed a sound, redeemable uniform currency before the people. There will be no finance question before the people in '80—no greenback question. It will be whether Samny Tilden or some other democrat shall be president provided the old Republican party is not strong enough to elect. That will be the issue.

The State Fair. Our space is so limited this week owing to insertion of the delinquent tax list that we have room for only a few notes of the State Fair, of which we should have been glad to give a much fuller account. The weather for the first day or two was rather unfavorable, being somewhat cold and windy, but it did not deter people from coming and the last two days being pleasant the crowd numbered from 5,000 to 6,000, and many were obliged to be content with the most insufficient accommodations or even none at all in the way of lodging.

The display of farm and orchard products was a sufficient advertisement of Nebraska to satisfy the most incredulous and to further advertise our resources, the U. P. is having samples of the finest specimens of fruits and vegetables packed by Mr. J. T. Allen and sent to the St. Louis fair and from thence to the Chicago Exposition. The statistics in regard to tree planting in '77 and '78 would almost surpass belief were they not vouched for. For '77 the number of trees planted was more than thirty and one quarter million, for '78 eighty-eight millions. There were 64 acres of fruit trees in '77 and 4000 acres in '78 exclusive of fruitless prairies in Nebraska which would be a thing of the past soon.

G. W. E. Dorsey's horse Saturn was awarded the sweepstakes prize over thirty competitors. Nemaha took the premium for the best fruit display. To show that the state north of the Platte is rapidly catching up with the south Platte in fruit culture Hiram Craig of Washington Co., took premiums for best collections of autumn apples and second best of winter apples, and Burt Co., Agricultural Society for the best collection of pears; H. Craig for grapes. Chas. Meyer of Cass county, nomination on brooms; L. A. Moore, Platts-mouth, best basket cut flowers, flower wreath, round bouquet, and best collection Begonias; W. J. Hesser, Platts-mouth, best collection of greenhouse plants, foliage plants, cacti, ferns and palms.

Races at the Co. Fair. On Saturday, in the foot race, Bud Smith got first money and Geo. Foster (colored) 2d. In the afternoon race Jas. Woodard wins first and Foster again wins second. HONOR RACES. Friday—Kearney's horse Jno. Gant, won first money against Straight's bronco Jim; owing to the track being so wet Straight's horse could not make time. Saturday—There were a number of running races, mostly won by Rickerbaugh, an Iowa professional, and one trot between Jones' Black Bess and Pettit's stallion; Jones won. No time on any of the races.

Democratic Convention.

The Democratic Convention assembled at Lincoln the 25th, and after a hot fight and a desperate one, resulted in discomfiture to the Old Bourbon hard money element, and triumph to the fiat-faction. Henry C. Lett, of Nemaha was elected permanent chairman.—Hon. J. Sterling Morton being called upon to make a speech, was unmercifully choked off by the opposition.—The platform committee made a majority and minority report on the money question, the majority favoring specie resumption and currency convertible into coin, the minority, repeal of the resumption act, and more greenbacks. Greenbacks carried by a majority of thirteen. The nominations were: Supreme Judge, Jno. D. Howe; Congress, long term, Alex. C. Davis; Congress, short term, Maj. J. W. Bear; for Governor, Gen. W. H. Webster; for Auditor, E. H. Benton; for Supt. Pub. Instruction, S. L. Carhart; for Attorney General, S. H. Calhoun; for Supt. Pub. Lands and Buildings, Jas. McCready; for Treasurer, S. H. Cummings.

The Greenback candidates endorsed by the Convention, were Howe, Supreme Judge; Davis, Congressman; Cummings, Treasurer; Calhoun, Attorney General.
