Severe Rain Storm and flood on the Eastern Coast. NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—The storm along the coast is very severe, inflicting considerable loss to property on land, but the marine disasters reported are few.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Dec. 19.—A heavy rain has prevailed along the Hudson since yesterday. Many places on the track of the Hudson River Road are submerged, and forty feet of the track has been washed away near Highland Station.

RICHMOND, Va., Dec. 10.—A serious flood in the James River is probable. NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—A private cable dispatch states that Henry Wells, of Wells, Fargo & Co's Express, is lying at the point of death in Glasgow.

TRENTON, N. J., Dec. 11.—The Delaware River has not been so high since 1851. Fair Street is flooded and people are moving out of their houses. The factories and mills along the river are submerged. Yardsville bridge is in great danger.

SCHMONT, Pa., Dec. 11.—Travel upon all the railroads entering this city is interrupted. At Portland, Pa., the Delaware has risen nineteen feet, and a portion of the town is inundated. NEBRASKA CITY, Dec. 12.—Peter Carbon, a Swede, was killed in Patrick's plow factory at 4:30 p. m. He was caught in the fly wheel and his brains battered out. He leaves a wife and child.

A York special to the Nebraska Press gives the particulars of the murder of Noah Martin, of that county, while returning home. His skull was smashed in and his body left in his wagon. He had just sold a load of grain, and the murder is supposed to have been for money. No arrests, although there is a strong suspicion as to the guilty party.

KEARNEY JUNCTION, NEB., December 12.—Mrs. Hariston and her three children were murdered in Kearney county, about November 23, by one S. D. Richards. The bodies were found under a raw stack. Mrs. Hariston was murdered by Richards to get possession of a span of mules, some grain and a homestead claim. Her head was smashed with a smoothing iron; also, one child killed by the same instrument. One was taken by the heels and had his brains dashed out against the door. The third child was kicked to death.

Peter Anderson was murdered about the 8th inst., about five miles from where Mrs. Hariston was. He was found in the cellar of his house, under a coal pile. It is thought to be done by the same party. He was pounded on the head with a hammer. He was killed for a little money he had with him at the time.

THE INTER-OCEAN.

Weekly, $1.15; Semi-Weekly, $2.50; Daily, $10.00. THE INTER-OCEAN, as a political journal, stands confessedly at the head of the Republican press of the West, and as a readable and reliable newspaper has a reputation second to none.

While it has never wavered in the support of party principles, has never failed to do its duty in critical times, and has never hesitated to strike hard blows in defense of the Republic, it has never ceased to be a good newspaper, independent of all political parties, and devoted to the best interests of the country.

With the record of seven years' conscientious work and efficient service behind it as a certificate of character, THE INTER-OCEAN enters upon the work of a new year, enters upon the perhaps in its history, and the most momentous in the history of the Republican party. Lines are already forming for the great battle of 1880, and the country has never felt the need of a staunch and able supporter of principle so much as at this juncture.

It has been the good fortune of THE INTER-OCEAN to lead in the formation of public opinion, and to have a tremendous following. It has maintained this position as leader because of its unquestioned loyalty to the fundamental principles of the party, its business in its defending them, and its fairness in its discussing great political questions. As THE INTER-OCEAN has sounded the keynote of the contest in past years, Republicans will look to it as a faithful guide and leader in the coming year.

And they will not be disappointed. The paper will stand, as it always has stood, for the principles of the party, and in the front rank for its principles that have made the country what it is.

The INTER-OCEAN expects to receive from enemies and opponents hard blows, and to return them with interest. From Republicans and friends it expects only such consideration and fairness as any political journal can claim at the hands of those interested in the success of the party and in the triumph of party principles. The issue is simply a question of principle, and the side is the solid South aided by the Democratic party, on the one hand, and the Republican party, on the other. Naturally at such junctures Republicans will turn to a paper able, aggressive, and of unquestioned loyalty. All that we ask is that they judge THE INTER-OCEAN by its own utterances, and not by what Democratic organs and evasive rivals say of it.

Outside of party considerations, the publishers will choose the best newspaper. And in this particular THE INTER-OCEAN has no superiors. It is in every sense of the word a national newspaper, presenting home and foreign news in attractive shape, and accompanying it with intelligent commentary. It will be as enterprising as any of its contemporaries, more accurate and more discriminating. For two years its cable dispatches have been fuller and of a higher character than those of any other Western journal; its Washington and foreign correspondence more readable, covering more topics of general interest, and its editorial correspondence more varied and more complete. All these departments will be continued, with such improvements as experience may suggest, and increased facilities for collecting news allow.

Independent of politics and newsmen, it has a symmetrical, interesting and wholesome journal for the family and the home. They will find such a paper in THE INTER-OCEAN, which devotes more attention than any other practical newspaper to departments prepared and conducted with the wants of home and family in view. This applies to Agricultural, Domestic, Educational, Scientific and Social matters. THE CURIOUS SHOP, covering answers to all sorts of political, scientific, and general questions, will receive more attention than in past years, and will be a complete encyclopedia of information not accessible outside of the great reference libraries of large cities. In this department THE INTER-OCEAN has been without a rival, and, realizing the importance of the department, the publishers have made arrangements not only to maintain its high character, but to make it answer more completely the demands of subscribers.

THE HOME DEPARTMENT has within the past year assumed a new character and a new importance. It is the outgrowth of THE INTER-OCEAN's policy of fostering home interests, and while it is unique in its treatment, it is not unequalled in its interest and in the amount of suggestive and practical information on home topics. THE AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT will be in charge of one of the most experienced agricultural editors of the West, and will give each week timely hints, suggestions, and discussions of practical interest.

THE VETERINARY DEPARTMENT has become a standard authority among horsemen, and is republished from week to week in many of the Farm and Stock Journals of the country. All questions of subscribers as to diseases and treatment of stock are answered without charge. The Veterinarian is an experienced specialist. This department will be maintained at its present high standard.

THE WOMEN'S COLUMN, devoted to woman's interests and work, will be continued in the generous and conservative spirit that has made it so popular. A reputation for reliability and completeness all its own. It will remain in charge of the same editor, and will be made up with the wants of the readers in view.

IN THE INTER-OCEAN will present a serial by a popular western author, covering ground in the West not touched upon hitherto by the fiction, and real life incidents and adventures. In short stories, sketches, and general literary miscellany THE INTER-OCEAN will endeavor to do no less, but give the best that can be had.

In these times of depression and scarcity of money, people will turn to the paper that is the cheapest. To meet this demand, the price of THE INTER-OCEAN has been reduced to $1.15 for the Weekly, $2.50 for the Semi-Weekly, and $10 for the Daily. In short, THE INTER-OCEAN will be furnished for less money.

Sample copies sent free. All communications should be addressed to THE INTER-OCEAN, Chicago, Ill.

We wish to call the attention of our readers to the Prospectus of the National Live-Stock Journal, which appears in this issue of the newspaper. While it has never wavered in the support of party principles, has never failed to do its duty in critical times, and has never hesitated to strike hard blows in defense of the Republic, it has never ceased to be a good newspaper, independent of all political parties, and devoted to the best interests of the country.

A new live stock and business paper will make its appearance in a few days, in Chicago, under the name of THE NATIONAL LIVE-STOCK JOURNAL, which appears in this issue of the newspaper. While it has never wavered in the support of party principles, has never failed to do its duty in critical times, and has never hesitated to strike hard blows in defense of the Republic, it has never ceased to be a good newspaper, independent of all political parties, and devoted to the best interests of the country.

Chambers' Cyclopaedia of English Literature. Brief biographies of all noted British or American authors, from earliest times to the present, with specimens from their writing, making a work not only thoroughly entertaining and useful to all intelligent readers, but necessary to the people of culture. The newly revised and beautiful edition contains over 8,000 pages, and the entire work, in eight heavy volumes, is furnished, free of express or mail charges, for $2.00 in half morocco. The publishers sell only to subscribers direct, instead of giving discounts and agents the usual 50 per cent. discount to sell for them, which accounts for the remarkably low price. Special inducements are offered to the sending party orders. Specimens sent with full particulars, sent on request by postal card by the publishers, the American Book Exchange, 55 Beekman Street, New York.

An interesting gentleman, of almost three years, said during a pause in the conversation: "Mrs. Jones, let your eth down again."
