Hatfield, in an impatient sotto soce. "Why Which is Best. couldn't you have sat still and minded The World is dark and dreary, When we make it so; The World is bright and cheerful, your own business?" When we take it so. Our friends are cold and distant Whene'er we doubt them : Our friends are true and loving Whene'er we trust them. A Woman's Question.

Do you know you have asked for the costllest Ever made by the hand above-A woman's heart and a woman's life, A woman's wonderful love?

Do you know you have asked for this priceles As a child might ask for a toy? Demanding what others have died to win With the reckless dash of a boy. You have written my lesson of duty out,

Man-like you have questioned me-Now stand at the bar of my woman's soul. Until Lshall question thee. You require your mutton shall always be hot, Your socks and your shirts shall be whole:

I require your heart to be true as God's stars, As pure as heaven your soul. You require a cook for your mutton and beef ; I require a far better thing;

A seamstress you're wanting for stockings and young." shirts-I look for a man and a king-A king for a beautiful realm called home,

A man that the maker, God, Shall look upon as he did the first, And say, It is very good. I am fair and young, but the rose will fade From my soft, young cheek one day-

Will you love me then, 'mid the fail ng leaves, As you did 'mid the blooming May? Is your heart an ocean so strong and deep I may launch my all on its tide? A loving woman finds heaven or hell, On the day she is made a bride.

I require all things that are grand and true, All things that a man should be ; If you give this all, I would stake my life

And not to be won that way.
