

THE HERALD.

JNO. A. MACMURPHY, - EDITOR.

PLATTSMOUTH, SEPT. 25, 1879.

THIS PAPER MAY BE FOUND ON FILE AT ALL TIMES AT C. M. & P. R. R. TICKET OFFICE, NO. 56 CLARK STREET, CHICAGO, WHERE YOU CAN MAKE YOUR EXAMINATIONS AT LIBERTY TO CALL AND EXAMINE IT.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

County Officers.

For Treasurer,
W.M. NEWELL, of Plattsburgh.

For Clerk,
E. A. KIRKPATRICK, of Elmwood.

For Sheriff,
R. W. HYERS,
of Weeping Water.

For County Judge,
A. J. SULLIVAN,
of Mt. Pleasant.

For District Clerk,
W. L. ELLIS, of South Bend.

For County Superintendent,
E. H. WOOLEY,
of Plattsburgh.

For County Commissioner, 1st dist.,
ISAAC WILES
of Plattsburgh Precinct.

For Coroner,
P. P. GANS,
of Plattsburgh.

For County Surveyor,
GEO. FAIRFIELD,
of Plattsburgh.

ELECTION November 4th.

FREIGHTS have gone up on the B. & M. ten cents a hundred.

THE Platte Valley Independent was very liberal this week, sent us three numbers of the same date.

THE Beatrice Courier is severe on the idea of Capt. Ashby starting a "high moral Newspaper"—Probably it knows Ashby.

THOUGH not a lawyer the HERALD always held that but one Commissioner should be elected under the law, and the Court has so now decided. See Call elsewhere.

THE Rev. Mr. Bushnell, of the Enterprise, left for Indiana Sunday, to officiate at the wedding of an old Plattsburgher, and to take place there soon. Particulars next week.

THE Burlington Hawkeye has found out the reason the Nebraska Democracy say: "We take steps backward." They are facing the North, and are afraid of backing into Komper County, Miss.

THE Commissioners ask for $13,000 bonds. This is to pay outstanding warrants which now bear 10 per cent and the money can be got for 7. All new warrants under the law only bear 7 per cent. int.

THE is a strong fight made against John B. Barnes for Judge in the 4th district. Crawford and Griffey are both democratic candidates, and the North Nebraska Eagle is for anything to beat Barnes.

HARRIS' WEEKLY has a "Republican Elephant" all covered with a map of the United States, except through a hole in Maine his trunk sticks up and through a similar hole in California his tail, done up in a bandage and properly labelled.

THEY have crowded our columns so full of other matter this week we have not room for a detailed notice of the convention, nor have we had time to prepare a personal notice of our candidates. There is time enough, however before election, and until we see what the democrats do, matters will be pretty quiet. Then look out for music.

A CALL for a convention is being circulated to take place at Washington, Oct. 15th, object, the formation of a national association to supply trustworthy information to colored people in the south in regard to the localities where they are most likely to find comfortable homes and profitable employment, and to protect them in their travels from political enemies in the south and from sharpers everywhere.

WE have received a ticket and program of Perky's County Fair to be held at Wahoo Sept. 29, 30 and Oct. 1. The programme states that there will be a battle fought by two military companies of Omaha on the grounds, for which a fort will be erected which will be stormed in genuine battle style. Gov. Nance will review the troops on the grounds. U. S. Senator Paddock will deliver the address. The Omaha base ball club will play the Saunders County nine for the championship of the State. Tight rope walk, excursion from Omaha, big premiums, and last but not least "Briar Dameray" will specify only in Wahoo. Who says they ain't going to have a grand fair? Not we.

CONTRARY to all expectation the Greenbackers, who met in Weeping Water, on Saturday, nominated an entire set of new men, mostly from the western end of the county, giving John Tutt, who has made a most excellent Clerk, the go-by. Under such circumstances the democrats can hardly be expected to endorse, and most people think it gives the Republican ticket a walk-over.

THE HERALD is of a different opinion. The democrats will look over the ground coolly, foment all the discord they can and at last a movement as practicable put up a ticket of unimpeachable men, as far as ability to fill the offices and personal character are concerned, and then give us the best they have in the shop.

The greenbackers seeing they have no chance with new and untried men, will mostly vote the democratic ticket in the end. If this programme is carried out, the republicans do not want to set down, as if victory was assured.

GEN. GRANT HOME.
Never Such a Welcome Given a Man Before.

The Silent Man can Keep Still No Longer, and Says "How Are You?" San Francisco Alive With People From All Over California.

To Greet the Returned Hero.

The United States Not Behind Europe in Welcoming the Greatest Warrior and Perhaps Statesman of the Age.

Gen. Grant, wife, and suite, arrived at San Francisco, Cal., in the steamer Tekio, on Sunday morning last. An immense concourse of people welcomed him. The soldiers turned out, the newspaper reporters from all over the United States were there, and the levee and streets were crowded to see the wonderful man who for so long has occupied such a prominent place in the minds and hearts of all true American citizens; and who in all probability will be once more president of the United States. Gen. Grant left Philadelphia May 17th, 1877, and has been gone over two years. He received in Europe such an ovation as has not fallen to the lot of any man of our times before. He returns and the people of the Northern United States rise to welcome him as one man. One incident alone shows his true democracy. Gen. McDowell, commander of the Pacific Coast forces, went on board the Tokio to pay his respects of course. The reporters expected cumbersome official speeches of welcome. Gen. Grant held out his two hands and said, "How are you Mac?" and McDowell answered, squeezing his hands with delight, "How are you, old boy?" Even the sandlot crowds cheered Gen. Grant, and his return will be welcomed by millions of loyal citizens of this great country.

Cass County Republican Convention.

The Republican Convention for this County met at Weeping Water Saturday the 20th, and was called to order by the chairman. Dr. M. M. Butler of Weeping Water was elected temporary chairman, and H. M. Bushnell temporary secretary. After the committee on credentials reported the temporary organization was made permanent. A motion to appoint a committee of five (afterward increased to one from each precinct) to select delegates to the State and Judicial conventions, was tabled and the convention proceeded to ballot for eight delegates to the State Convention. Said ballots resulted in the following named gentlemen being selected for that office:

DELEGATES.

Geo. S. Smith, A. W. McLaughlin, H. D. Root, Cyrus Alton, J. F. Polk, Sam'l Richardson and Orlando Teft (from precincts). By committee the following delegates were selected to the Judicial Convention, which meets at Nel City the 8th of October, to nominate district judge:

M. B. Murphy, J. W. Johnson, Jno. Murfin, Geo. Swift, M. D. Polk, J. B. Thornton, T. N. Bobbitt, J. N. Woodford, S. M. Beardens.

The county ticket as it appears at the head of our columns was then nominated. Sheriff Hyers, Judge Sullivan and Wm. L. Wells being nominated by acclamation, there being no other contestants.

A central committee for ensuing year was then appointed as follows:

Plattsburgh, First Ward, H. M. Bushnell.

Second Ward, Geo. S. Smith.

Third Ward, M. B. Murphy.

Fourth Ward, J. W. Stiles.

Fifth Ward, J. B. Thornton.

Sixth Ward, G. W. Hilton.

Tipton, A. A. Laverty.

Greenwood, Isaac Talan.

Salt Creek, E. J. Mathias.

Geo. S. Smith was designated as chairman and the convention ad-

Blooded Hogs.

But a few years ago and Mr. Upton, Mr. Wolfe, Mr. Wm. B. Porter and a few others in the eastern end of the County showed all the fine swine he had. Lately Mr. Timothy Clark, of Weeping Water, has developed into a very extensive breeder of Poland China hogs. He has a very fine herd at the head of which stands "Prince Royal," the finest boar in the State, at least so say the Committee at the State Fair Grounds, for he took the first premium there. Mr. Clark took two first premiums at the State Fair and two second premiums, and when we consider the showing there we know he must have had excellent pigs. At our County fair Mr. Clark took five first premiums and one second, also sweepstakes in general hero.

Murder in Sarpy County.

James Daily was shot and killed near Bellevue last Friday night by his fellow travellers John Ward and Jas. Winter. The assassins were after $80 which Mr. Daily had in his pocket, and the horses he drove. They are supposed to have crossed the river and escaped this fair.

Prairie Fire.

September 21st.

ED. HERALD:—On last Saturday as Mr. Sam Capin was moving grass on the farm of S. Cole, having need of a fire to warm his machine oil, he struck one up in a bunch of hay. When he did it did not stop at burning that, but ran and spread like wild fire, burning considerable grass that was to be mowed as well as 45 or 50 tens of hay that was stacked in the vicinity, also a wagon belonging to Mr. Capin. Mr. Thos. Sullivan is the principal loser. This incident is suggestive of the great precaution every one should take in using fire in these dry times.

A SOJOURNER.

Our Temperance Column.
EDITED BY THE WOMAN'S CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE UNION.

"For God, and home, and Native Land."

PLATTSMOUTH LODGE No. 2, I. O. G. G.

REGULAR MEETING every Wednesday evening in Hall of Fitzgerald's block.

J. F. JOHNSON, Secy.

To Greet the Returned Hero.

The United States Not Behind Europe in Welcoming the Greatest Warrior and Perhaps Statesman of the Age.

Gen. Grant, wife, and suite, arrived at San Francisco, Cal., in the steamer Tekio, on Sunday morning last. An immense concourse of people welcomed him. The soldiers turned out, the newspaper reporters from all over the United States were there, and the levee and streets were crowded to see the wonderful man who for so long has occupied such a prominent place in the minds and hearts of all true American citizens; and who in all probability will be once more president of the United States. Gen. Grant left Philadelphia May 17th, 1877, and has been gone over two years. He received in Europe such an ovation as has not fallen to the lot of any man of our times before. He returns and the people of the Northern United States rise to welcome him as one man. One incident alone shows his true democracy. Gen. McDowell, commander of the Pacific Coast forces, went on board the Tokio to pay his respects of course. The reporters expected cumbersome official speeches of welcome. Gen. Grant held out his two hands and said, "How are you Mac?" and McDowell answered, squeezing his hands with delight, "How are you, old boy?" Even the sandlot crowds cheered Gen. Grant, and his return will be welcomed by millions of loyal citizens of this great country.

Gen. Grant Home.

Never Such a Welcome Given a Man Before.

The Silent Man can Keep Still No Longer, and Says "How Are You?" San Francisco Alive With People From All Over California.

To Greet the Returned Hero.

The United States Not Behind Europe in Welcoming the Greatest Warrior and Perhaps Statesman of the Age.

Gen. Grant, wife, and suite, arrived at San Francisco, Cal., in the steamer Tekio, on Sunday morning last. An immense concourse of people welcomed him. The soldiers turned out, the newspaper reporters from all over the United States were there, and the levee and streets were crowded to see the wonderful man who for so long has occupied such a prominent place in the minds and hearts of all true American citizens; and who in all probability will be once more president of the United States. Gen. Grant left Philadelphia May 17th, 1877, and has been gone over two years. He received in Europe such an ovation as has not fallen to the lot of any man of our times before. He returns and the people of the Northern United States rise to welcome him as one man. One incident alone shows his true democracy. Gen. McDowell, commander of the Pacific Coast forces, went on board the Tokio to pay his respects of course. The reporters expected cumbersome official speeches of welcome. Gen. Grant held out his two hands and said, "How are you Mac?" and McDowell answered, squeezing his hands with delight, "How are you, old boy?" Even the sandlot crowds cheered Gen. Grant, and his return will be welcomed by millions of loyal citizens of this great country.

Gen. Grant Home.

Never Such a Welcome Given a Man Before.

The Silent Man can Keep Still No Longer, and Says "How Are You?" San Francisco Alive With People From All Over California.

To Greet the Returned Hero.

The United States Not Behind Europe in Welcoming the Greatest Warrior and Perhaps Statesman of the Age.

Gen. Grant, wife, and suite, arrived at San Francisco, Cal., in the steamer Tekio, on Sunday morning last. An immense concourse of people welcomed him. The soldiers turned out, the newspaper reporters from all over the United States were there, and the levee and streets were crowded to see the wonderful man who for so long has occupied such a prominent place in the minds and hearts of all true American citizens; and who in all probability will be once more president of the United States. Gen. Grant left Philadelphia May 17th, 1877, and has been gone over two years. He received in Europe such an ovation as has not fallen to the lot of any man of our times before. He returns and the people of the Northern United States rise to welcome him as one man. One incident alone shows his true democracy. Gen. McDowell, commander of the Pacific Coast forces, went on board the Tokio to pay his respects of course. The reporters expected cumbersome official speeches of welcome. Gen. Grant held out his two hands and said, "How are you Mac?" and McDowell answered, squeezing his hands with delight, "How are you, old boy?" Even the sandlot crowds cheered Gen. Grant, and his return will be welcomed by millions of loyal citizens of this great country.

Gen. Grant Home.

Never Such a Welcome Given a Man Before.

The Silent Man can Keep Still No Longer, and Says "How Are You?" San Francisco Alive With People From All Over California.

To Greet the Returned Hero.

The United States Not Behind Europe in Welcoming the Greatest Warrior and Perhaps Statesman of the Age.

Gen. Grant, wife, and suite, arrived at San Francisco, Cal., in the steamer Tekio, on Sunday morning last. An immense concourse of people welcomed him. The soldiers turned out, the newspaper reporters from all over the United States were there, and the levee and streets were crowded to see the wonderful man who for so long has occupied such a prominent place in the minds and hearts of all true American citizens; and who in all probability will be once more president of the United States. Gen. Grant left Philadelphia May 17th, 1877, and has been gone over two years. He received in Europe such an ovation as has not fallen to the lot of any man of our times before. He returns and the people of the Northern United States rise to welcome him as one man. One incident alone shows his true democracy. Gen. McDowell, commander of the Pacific Coast forces, went on board the Tokio to pay his respects of course. The reporters expected cumbersome official speeches of welcome. Gen. Grant held out his two hands and said, "How are you Mac?" and McDowell answered, squeezing his hands with delight, "How are you, old boy?" Even the sandlot crowds cheered Gen. Grant, and his return will be welcomed by millions of loyal citizens of this great country.

Gen. Grant Home.

Never Such a Welcome Given a Man Before.

The Silent Man can Keep Still No Longer, and Says "How Are You?" San Francisco Alive With People From All Over California.

To Greet the Returned Hero.

The United States Not Behind Europe in Welcoming the Greatest Warrior and Perhaps Statesman of the Age.

Gen. Grant, wife, and suite, arrived at San Francisco, Cal., in the steamer Tekio, on Sunday morning last. An immense concourse of people welcomed him. The soldiers turned out, the newspaper reporters from all over the United States were there, and the levee and streets were crowded to see the wonderful man who for so long has occupied such a prominent place in the minds and hearts of all true American citizens; and who in all probability will be once more president of the United States. Gen. Grant left Philadelphia May 17th, 1877, and has been gone over two years. He received in Europe such an ovation as has not fallen to the lot of any man of our times before. He returns and the people of the Northern United States rise to welcome him as one man. One incident alone shows his true democracy. Gen. McDowell, commander of the Pacific Coast forces, went on board the Tokio to pay his respects of course. The reporters expected cumbersome official speeches of welcome. Gen. Grant held out his two hands and said, "How are you Mac?" and McDowell answered, squeezing his hands with delight, "How are you, old boy?" Even the sandlot crowds cheered Gen. Grant, and his return will be welcomed by millions of loyal citizens of this great country.

Gen. Grant Home.

Never Such a Welcome Given a Man Before.

The Silent Man can Keep Still No Longer, and Says "How Are You?" San Francisco Alive With People From All Over California.

To Greet the Returned Hero.

The United States Not Behind Europe in Welcoming the Greatest Warrior and Perhaps Statesman of the Age.

Gen. Grant, wife, and suite, arrived at San Francisco, Cal., in the steamer Tekio, on Sunday morning last. An immense concourse of people welcomed him. The soldiers turned out, the newspaper reporters from all over the United States were there, and the levee and streets were crowded to see the wonderful man who for so long has occupied such a prominent place in the minds and hearts of all true American citizens; and who in all probability will be once more president of the United States. Gen. Grant left Philadelphia May 17th, 1877, and has been gone over two years. He received in Europe such an ovation as has not fallen to the lot of any man of our times before. He returns and the people of the Northern United States rise to welcome him as one man. One incident alone shows his true democracy. Gen. McDowell, commander of the Pacific Coast forces, went on board the Tokio to pay his respects of course. The reporters expected cumbersome official speeches of welcome. Gen. Grant held out his two hands and