

—Pinaf. —Immense! —The K. K. Kendall. —Without doubt the best. —Four more entertainments. —Matinee, Saturday, p. m.; 15 and 25c admission. —Special rates given to school children, en masse. —Read the two communications on first page. —Go to Solomon & Nathan's for Holiday Goods. —F. Carruth's new house is finished and ready for rent. —Everything in the Baker's line to be found at Ions & Son's. —No "Wallace Sisters" performance, the Kendall Combination. —Fresh bread at the New Bakery, J. Ions & Son, proprietors. —Gloves and Mitts, a fine line kept at 3712 H. SHERWOOD'S. —Don't fail to see Kendall to-night, to-morrow night and Saturday night. —Go to the "Blue Stocking" Sociable at M. Pollock's Tuesday evening. —Co. Tuxbury, formerly of Neb. City, takes the Metropolitan Hotel at Lincoln. —Mr. Marshall at the P. O. and ask to see the New Organ Instructor. —Don't fail to call at the new Bakery for good fresh bread and confectionaries. —Somewhat "J. Shinkins" letter got laid aside and was not seen in time for this week. —The next private dance of the "Olive-Joyful Club" will be held one week from to-night. —Henry Beck has another bran new sign. It ain't quite so "german-y" as the old one was. —The hunters are going and coming every day. A party went over to Wabensy Tuesday. —The Methodist church is getting a new coat of paint, and present indications look like a new steeple. —Don't fail to read our Christmas present offer to all who pay up past dues and for the year in advance. —The most complete stock of Hosiery to be found in the city at SOLOMON & NATHAN'S. —Our Premium—The CHICAGO WEEKLY NEWS one year free for one year's subscription to the HERALD. —H. Hesser started last week for Key, Ind. his old home, on business connected with his father's estate. —Brother Windham is putting up a new house too. He don't mean that any of the boys shall get ahead of him, you see. —The Saunders House is getting its name inscribed on the front. In many colors and a new coat of paint on the east side. —Something handsome in Silk and Beaded Fringes, Silk Feather Headings, Galloon Trimmings at Solomon & Nathan's. —GROOM—"Shall I skin you a pertater, honey?" BIRN: No, thank you, deary. I have one already skinned.—Denver News. —Messrs. E. G. Dovy & Son are as usual, we see, prepared to buy hogs, all the hogs Cass County can raise, at best cash prices. —The Sentinel rather pokes fun at the dead horse business of the Enterprise and calls it Blacksmith work. Any printer (?) will understand that. —The Episcopal church has two new and handsome chandeliers, the donation of Messrs. A. W. White and Geo. Dovy, also a handsome chancel lamp. —Henry Beck has some neat Note and Letter Heads, which aid to advertise his splendid stock of furniture, &c. They were just printed at the HERALD office. —That barber down the Street, Boone, has been painting his pole again. Well! better paint the pole than his nose, but then John couldn't paint his nose, very well. —The City Hotel, kept now by Fred Jeon, is getting to be one of the best stopping places in town. Fred has hosts of German friends and they all stop at the "City." —Mr. Hollschub has been filling up the various low places around crosswalks, with brick-bats. They answer that purpose well, and will be handy in case a row occurs. —The Plattsmouth Enterprise says that "it, like the Chicago Times, issued a daily on Thanksgiving," and that's the only point of resemblance between the two.—Lincoln Globe. —The Methodist Sociable was held at the residence of Mr. W. Barnes last Tuesday evening and was largely attended and enjoyed by all. Mr. and Mrs. Barnes entertaining all most hospitably. —Rev. A. J. Swartz and wife came down to Plattsmouth on Saturday last, and spend the week here. Mr. Swartz is State Agent for the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine Co., and will make Omaha his future headquarters, so say the Omaha papers. —When the band of the Pinafore Company first promenade through town they passed by the HERALD office led by an express wagon and followed by a baby carriage. We never saw so much style as that before, no never; well, hardly ever, except this time and the next one.

Personal. Rev. John Gallagher called Tuesday. Miss Sallie DeLaney is in town, the guest of Miss Emma Herold. Dr. Smith of Nebraska City came up to spend Thanksgiving with relatives here. Miss Carrie Bennett came down from Omaha the day before Thanksgiving. Capt. R. O. Phillips, Sec'y of the South Platte Land Co., was in town Tuesday. The Rev. Mr. Gee, of Lincoln was here on Thanksgiving and preached in the Baptist Church. Cadets Wheeler, and Livingston spent Thanksgiving at home and attended the O Be Joyful ball. Miss Cushman and Miss Hale of Omaha, the former a sister of Mrs. Love, took Thanksgiving dinner with their friends here. Otto Mutz and his brother Austin called last week. Otto is teaching at Mt. Pleasant we understand and has a very successful school. Oh Be Joyful! Milo Fellows, a resident of Plattsmouth 21 years ago, and one of the earliest freighters from here to Denver is in town visiting his children for a day or two. Ex-Gov. R. W. Furnas of Brownville called at the HERALD headquarters yesterday afternoon. He is spending a day or two in town, the guest of Maj. and Mrs. D. H. Wheeler. All Things Useful. Is far more useful than he was at "fast." They serve him up for Spanish fly. And draw a blister on you! —Boone the barber with his man shave and hair cut all they can. Lots of people go there just for fun To see how slick and "ice and neat it does." —J. Ions & Son have bought out Oswald Guthman's Bakery and Confectionary and will in future keep on hand a choice lot of that line of goods, and will soon put in a large stock of groceries. —We call attention to the notice in another column, the addresses to be given by Mesdames Ninde and Prescott, who are connected with the Woman's Missionary Association. Mrs. Ninde is said to be a fine speaker and all should hear her. —The Ladies of the Presbyterian Church will give a "Blue Stocking" Sociable at the residence of Thos. Pollock, Tuesday evening, Dec. 9th. A pleasant programme has been arranged, and a general invitation is extended. —MRS. J. N. WISS, Secy. —We have received a piece of new music, entitled "Scintless Roses," the marked price of which is 36 cts.; but for the purpose of introducing it, the publishers offer to send a sample copy for ten cents. Address, N. Y. Music Publ. Co., 439 Fourth Ave., New York. —The Kendall troupe played the "French Spy" to a fair house last evening. The fencing was splendid and we have quite an affection for that fellow that plays the "fiddle" and is near-sighted with his ear. To-night the best comedy of the lot, "Engaged." If you want to feel satisfied go and engage your places. Christmas Presents. Fancy slippers at Sherwood's cheap. 3712. Matinee. Be sure and come out to the matinee, Saturday afternoon, where you may have the privilege of witnessing the world renowned "H. M. S. Pinafore." Go and take the little ones. Dovy's Ad. Highest cash price paid for live hogs by E. G. Dovy & Son. 3709. Crossing Here Always. As many have supposed the crossing here was interrupted by the breaking out of the temporary bridge, we desire to state that the transfer boat was making regular crossings the next day but one, has been ever since, and the bridge will be replaced just as soon as the boat cannot run and the river freezes for good. Everything is at hand and a few hours comparatively will throw the bridge over again. Sherwood. Keeps the Nicest assortment of Ladies Shoes in the City. 3712. Collection. LAST CALL—Notice is hereby given by the undersigned that all accounts due them not settled by the first of January, 1880, will be placed in the hands of a collector with instructions to collect at any cost. Please Remember. 3714 STREIGHT & MILLER. Notices. All persons knowing themselves indebted to the undersigned will please call immediately and settle, as all accounts standing out the first of January will be placed in the hands of a collector. 3713 J. G. CHAMBERS. Sherwood's. Boot and Shoe Factory still carries the Lead. 3712. Woman's Work for Woman. Mrs. Mary C. Ninde of Vienna, Wis., and Mrs. Lucy E. Prescott of St. Louis, Mo., Secretaries of the Western Branch of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. Church will be in Plattsmouth Dec. 10th and 11th, to present the needs of the work which they represent. Wednesday evening Mrs. Ninde will lecture on "Japan," Thursday p. m. Missionary Tea meeting at Mrs. Spurlock's. Ladies of the several Missionary societies in the city are invited to be present. Thursday evening, Union Missionary Mass meeting, conducted by Mesdames Ninde and Prescott.

Plattsmouth Has Seen Pinafore. At last Plattsmouth has fulfilled what seems to be the destiny of every city in the Union. She stands among the band of sisters and cousins and aunts, who have seen Pinafore, and now may she draw a long breath and press forward to new fields of conquest. We were agreeably surprised at the rendering of this operetta by the Kendall troupe, which we had supposed confined exclusively to drama, but find possessed of a versatility of talent, unsuspected. The lack of a large chorus was hardly felt, and the various parts were carried out with spirit and vigor. Dick Deadeye was very three cornered, Sir Joseph Porter, K. C. B., was very much the ruler of the king's navee, Little Buttercup was very charming, and Josephine was very much in love with Ralph Rackstraw. Everybody went to see the fun and now "I am little Buttercup," and "so do his sisters, and his cousins and his aunts" resounds from every side, and Plattsmouth has passed safely through another epidemic. Call and see them. 3613. —Elegant Styles MASON & HAMLIN Organs on hand and coming. 3612 JAMES PETER, Gen'l Agt. Farm for Sale!
