One gets a great deal of credit by paying a very small debt.

Out of 1,015 convicts in the Texas Penitentiary, 915 cannot read or write. It is evident that the earth is feminine, from the persistence with which she refuses to tell her age.

The height of the passion for music: To await the last judgment with the utmost impatience, in order to hear some angelic trumpet playing. The Yakuts of Siberia have enormous appetites; and Captain Cochrane states that he has repeatedly seen one person devour forty pounds of meat a day, and that three of those gluttons consume a reindeer at one meal. The Rev. Mr. - was once called upon to marry a man to his fourth wife. As he approached the couple he said: "Please to rise." The man wiggled about in his chair a moment and finally spoke: "We've usually sot!" "Ma," said a little girl, "do men want to get married as much as women do?" "Pshaw! what are you talking about?" "Why, n., the ladies who come here are always talking about getting mar-ried; the men don't." Mutual instruction. Dramatis per-song, a small boy of five verrs and a small girl of six. The latter questions her companion: "What is your mouth for?" "To eat with!" "And your eyes?" "To see with!" "And your mose?" "To put your fingers in!"

A well-known local preacher in a suburban town, while instructing a class of urchins in the catechism, told them that God could do everything, whereupon one of them asked: "Can God make a rock so big that he can't lift it?" The boy's question remains unanswered.

"You made a fool of me," said an irritated man to his wife, "and that's the way you got me to marry you." "My love," sweetly responded the wife, "you do yourself an injustice. Call yourself a fool if you please, but remember that you are in all respects a self-made man."

Common resin prevents the forma-tion of acetic acid in fermented liquids without disturbing the process of al-coholic fermentation, and it is thought that the peculiar effect of the hop is due rather to its resinous matter than to its oils. The Greeks add resin to their sweet wines.

"Tell me," he said to the doctor, "tell me frankly, is there any hope?"
"Yes, sir, a great deal. The statistics show that one out of every hundred effected with your disease recovers," "Well?" "You are the hundredth I have treated for the malady, and I have not cured one of them."

A nostrum named "malco" much vaunted in some parts of Europe as a prophylactic against the plague and all infection, diseases, consists of a little carbonate .L' ammonium, scented with oil of roses, and carbolic acid. It is put up in a small leathern case, and is worn suspended from the neck.

The average of mortgages upon the farming lands of France is about 5 per cent. In England it is 58. The Unit-ed States have but 3,000,000 proprietary agficulturists. France with a vastly smaller area, has 6,000,000; 5,000,000 of whom are small farmers. England has but 250,000 landholders, and 12 per cent only of the people till the soil; the rest are engaged in manufacturing and other pursuits. One million are

THE SUN FOR 1880

The Sun will deal with the events of the year 1880 in its own fashion, now pretty well under-stood by everybody. From January I until December 3t it will be conducted as a newspa-per, written in the English language, and printed for the people.

As a newspaper, The San believes in getting all the news of the world promptly, and presenting it in the most intelligible shape—the shape that will enable its readers to keep well abreas that will enable its readers to keep well abreast of the age with the least unproductive expenditure of time. The greatest interest to the greatest number—that—is the law controlling its daily make-up. It now has a circulation very much larger than that of any other American newspaper, and enjoys an income which it is at all times prepared to spend liberally for the benefit of its readers. People of all conditions of life and all ways of thinking buy and read The Sun; and they all derive satisfaction of some sort from its columns, for they keep on buying and reading it.

umns, for they keep on buying and reading it.

In its comments on men and affairs, The Sun believes that the only guide of policy should be common sense, inspired by genuine American principles and backed by honesty of purpose. For this reason it is, and will centinue to be, absolutely independent of party, class, clique, organization or interst. It is for all, but of none. It will continue to praise what is good and reprobate what is evil, taking care that its language is to the point and plain, beyond the possibility of being misunderstood. It is uninfluenced by motives that do not appear on the surface: it has no opinions to sell, save those which may be had by any purchaser with two cents. It hates injustice and rascality even more than it hates unnecessary words. It abhors frauds, pities fools, and deplores nincompops of every species. It will continue throughout the year 1880 to chastise the first class, instruct the second, and discountenance the third. All honest men, with honest convictions whether sound or mistaken, are its friends and whenever occasion arises for plain speaking.

These are the princoples upon which The Sun will be conducted during the year to come.

The year 1880 will be one in which no patriotic American can afford to close his eyes to public affairs. It is impossible to exaggerate the importance of the political events which it has in store, or the necessity of resolute vigilance on the part of every citizen who desires public affairs. It is impossible to exaggerate the importance of the political events which it has in store, or the necessity of resolute vigilance on the part of every citizen who desires to preserve the Government that the founders gave us. The debates and acts of Congress, the utterances of the press, the exciting contests of the Republican and Democratic parties, now nearly equal in strength throughout the country, the varying drift of public sentiment, will all bear directly and effectively upon the twenty-fourth Presidential election to be held in November. Four years ago next November the will of the nation, as expressed at the polls, was thwarted by an abomulable conspiracy, the promoters and beneficiaries, of which still hold the offices they stole. Will the crime of 1878 be repeated in 1869? The past decade of years opened with a corrupt, extravagant, and insolent Administration intrenched at Washington. The Sun did something toward dislodging the gang and breaking its power. The same men are now intriguing to restore their leader and themselves to places from which they were driven by the indignation of the people. Will they succeed? The coming year will bring the answers to these momentous questions. The Sun will be on hand to chronicle the facts as they are developed, and to exhibit them clearly and fearlessly in their relations to expediency and right.

Thus, with a habit of philosophical good hupper in looking at the minor affairs of life, and

and right.

Thus, with a habit of philosophical good hurror in looking at the minor affairs of life, and in great things a steadfast purpose to maintain the rights of the people and the principles of the Constitution against all aggressers. The Sun is prepared to write a truthful, instructive, and at the same time entertaining history of
