Forbes, Friday. Keenan & Grace. Read Ad. elsewhere. Remember the Masonic Festival the 29th. Grain! Grain! wanted at Fred Gorder's. 'Elmwood Points' came too late for this week. See Keenan & Grace's Ad.—Holiday goods. Saturday and Friday, Forbes folks are around. One hundred seats for Janauschek sold already. Did you read "Santa Claus" letter in another column. Call on Mrs. Capt. Marshall and get the new Organ Toler. See Julius Pepperberg's new Ad.—all about his "Present" &c. Don't fail to take a look at the New Organs at Mr. O. F. Johnson's. Don't fail to read the letter written by "Santa Claus" in another column. The Masonic Invitations for the 27th are being printed at the HERALD office. Phobes Phuanu Phokis phool away an evening or two here, this week. Santa Claus says in his letter that his headquarters are at the P.O. News Depot. Bill Eikenberry says he has 9,000 bushels of corn husked and ain't near done yet. Holiday Goods all over and every where; go and see, everybody, for holiday things. S. C. Moore is feeding forty-five head of steers and they are as fine as you make 'em. Everyone indebted to Smith & Black are requested to settle by the first of January. Everybody rush late Smith & Black's and get your choice of Books before it is too late. Remember that Fred Gorder is paying the best price for Grain that the market will allow. Ed. Bignell, of Lincoln, called Tuesday. He informs us that his mother's wrist is doing nicely. If you want to save money go to the P. O. News Depot, for your Toys, and Holiday goods, candies, etc. Frank Guthman and Weckbach have the most curious looking powders, just buy a box and see what you'll get. We shall try and get the paper out on Wednesday before Christmas—Bring your Ads in Tuesday. Remember. There will be a social in Good Templar's Hall this evening. All are invited to come and have a first-class time. Alex Schlegel has tuned expression. He can't quite fill Grandpa Schlegel's place, but then he rattles round right lively. Dr. Schildknecht seems to have the largest country practice of any Doctor we know. He goes constantly, good roads or bad. Yesterday the thaw froze up, and before the freeze thawed out, we may expect a pretty sharp spell of weather. Our wood-pile is low too. Just see our market reports, hogs, 34.15; Wheat, 95 cents; Corn, 25 cts.; Oats, 27 cts.; Butter, 25 cts.; Eggs, 25 cts.; and other things in proportion. A little daughter of Jas. Leuchtweis fell from the High School steps sometime since and died from the effects of the fall last Sunday morning. Phil Young can supply all these wishing Toys, Candies, Nuts, &c., for Sunday schools, or private families, Christmas Trees, &c., and save you money. There is some fellow keeps sending samples of face powder up to this office. Our Devil says when he gets the ink off so it will show, he'll use some. Hold your orders for Candies, and Christmas Tree trimmings, until you see Phil Young's Stock in that line, largest ever offered in the city at low prices. Robert M. Elvin of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, will preach on Sunday next, Dec. 14th, at the courthouse, 11 o'clock a. m. and 7. p. m. All are invited. Joseph Connor is buying grain as usual at five or six different points on the road. Joe puts in a bid for Oats now and then, too; and in fact keeps the market lively here. The officers of a single "veteran Club" in Ill., sent four hundred subscribers to the Later Ocean for the year. That's the way to support a good Republican Newspaper. The Lincoln Journal thinks the Grange suits have cost the tax-payers as much or more than all saving ever made by the purchase of goods direct. We judge that is the case here. On the border of a Dallas Times, Texas, sent us a friend, we find written Dennison, in eight years has had 28 men killed and 13 suicides. Was ever a man hung, by law, in Texas? From Black Hills papers we see that Schunss & Gramberg have laid in an immense new stock of goods. Mr. Gossage, the editor there, thinks it is the largest yet brought to Rapid City and their trade is correspondingly large.

Personal. S. Miner called Saturday. Dr. Ranev, the hog cholera man is round yet, and doing a big business. Henry Ahl, of Louisville, called last week. Pleased to make his acquaintance. Dan Johnson came down from Blair this week to see the boys, and get some peaches. Mr. Ralph Meeker and Miss Josephine Meeker passed through Omaha, on Saturday. Major Stevenson, of Omaha, was in town Sunday and Monday, the guest of Mr. Chas. Dawson. Fred Hayes, Yard Master at the B. & M., went east to Detroit Monday, to attend the marriage of his sister. W. F. Bennett is home from the Black Hills, and we are sorry to learn, is sick, at his brother's, the captain's. Mike Carey and Dan McLaugh came to town during court week, for the first time in two years. So they said. Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Smith, and Miss Mamie of Omaha, have been down visiting the HERALD folks this week. Mr. Smith represents the firm of Benson, Wagner & Hensley, Union Stock yards, Chicago, and is looking after fat cattle somewhat. "Darling, I am growing old, silver threads among the gold"— "Sing the wife—but Jack replied, "Turn your switch the other side." James Kaser, a lad of fourteen years who has been living with Mrs. Hicks accidentally shot himself with a small revolver he was cleaning. The wound is not dangerous; Dr. Schildknecht was sent for. Mrs. Bignell an elderly lady, mother of Ed. and Geo. Bignell, slipped on our infernal sidewalk Sunday, coming from Church and sustained a compound fracture of the wrist which will disable her for some weeks. Grand opportunity to get a FIRST CLASS Organ for the Holidays. Mason & Hamlin excelled by none. 3612 JAMES PETTEE, State Agent. Dick Reese keeps the best chewing tobacco, of any one-horse-blacksmith we ever saw. He says he didn't holler though last week. It was Mike. One of the mules stepped on Mike's carns and it 'most killed him. The Clark & Plummer warehouse is to be filled with grain, and Fred Gorder is the man that is going to do it. When one goes out another comes in. Billy Darral left us for pastures new and "Fred" steps in to fill his place. We want some wood "by Gosh" right off, too. Some of you fellows that have been going to bring us wood all summer had better be about it now, or there'll be a rampus. We ain't going to have our hair pulled by the women any more because you're too lazy to haul that wood. Bottom Prices for Holidays on Mason & Hamlin Organs, apply to our address. JAMES PETTEE, Office in O. F. Johnson's Drug Store, Plattsmouth, Neb. The New York Times tells a lovely yarn about Pinarere at Lynn, Mass. Some one varnished the seats in a new Opera house so the audience all stuck fast, the men ripped loose and went home by the alley. The women—well they didn't hardly ever swear; but only because they couldn't do the subject justice. We are just having a regular boom on our Christmas Presents, to our subscribers. Applicants for the News and the Cook Book are crowding in every day, and bringing the cash for the HERALD a year in advance. Only two weeks more to pay up for the HERALD a year in advance and get a Christmas Present besides. See notice at head of first column on editorial page. A young man working at the Meisinger's met with a severe accident last week, in a somewhat unusual way. He was sitting reading, and on moving from his chair, a pistol in his pocket struck the chair and went off, the bullet penetrating the fleshy part of his leg and lodging there, causing a severe wound. Another party taught by bitter experience that firearms are dangerous things to carry. MacDonogh breaks out in poetry on Geo. L. Miller, "in regards" to his passing poet old Durant in New York lately. This is the first "verse." G. L. M. ON THOS. C. DURANT. 12 years gone by, when he was king Of railroads in the west, I fawned upon him like a dog—I worshipped him with zeal; But haughtily I pass him by On Broadway's thoroughfare, As I would any many tramp; He's poor and bent with care. Hear the King. I will be in Cass County about the last of January, or first of February, 1880, to sell trees, &c., and will replace all stock that did not grow last year at half price. I want to do all I can to satisfy my old customers, and prove the value of our nurseries. Don't fail to remember the date and have your orders ready. Wm. King, 3813 Agt. Shenandoah Nurseries. Mica McMakin. H. C. McMakin, one of our old residents returned from the Black Hills Saturday, and visited the HERALD office Monday, when he showed us some very fine specimens from his new Mica mine. They certainly compare very favorably with eastern Mica, and we believe Henry and his partner have secured a fortune as good Mica is a scarce and valuable article of merchandise.

SANTA CLAUS. Little Boys and Girls Everywhere. SNOW CASTLE, IRELAND. DEC. 1st, 1879. MY DEAR CHILDREN: Once more I greet you with the "Merriest Christmas" and "gladdest New Year." Don't fail to see what fine presents I have for you in store at PHIL YOUNG'S HEADQUARTERS for my Christmas presents. Now, my dear children, you must remember that I am getting old and feeble, so that I cannot visit you all as in my younger days, so I would beg you to lighten my burdens, by going to J. P. Mr. Young at great pains has secured this wonderful actress for this place, and we ought to give her a full house. This is what the best judges say of her. The play will probably be "Mary Stuart." The First 1. Rachel's—the Present Janauschek—"It's her Weekly. A TRIBUTE TO JANAUSSCHKEK. "Is your dear, ladies and gentlemen of New Orleans, by on offering the houses to show your appreciation of this woman. Do you profess to respect her as a womanhood? Do you profess to honor her yet? Both combining in Janauschek—a woman who has reached the highest point of her art, and more sustained, and a woman's use career is blameless both in respect to her personal character, and the engaging plays she has ever produced, and her genius made a woman as great as her name which is world wide—whose name will remain a perpetual monument to the glory of the stage.—New Orleans, N. RICE ROW. * One Experience from Many. In this frame of mind I got a bottle of Hop Bitters and used them unknown to my family.
