ED. HERALD: -- We wish to ask a little space in your paper this week, a new departure, which took place and soreness and strengthen the voice. near Cedar Creek this week.

It was one of those which Shakespeare describes as leading to fortune. The place was the residence of Mr. C. Schluntz. The occasion was a wedding. The time was Sunday, Dec. 7th nounce to the citizens of The hour was 1 P. M. The parties PLATTSMOUTH & CASS COUNTY, locality, for catalogues and terms, adwere Mr. Solomen Dewey, of the firm that he has now on exhibition at his dress, of Schluntz & Dewey of Cedar Creek, store, a large stock of Holiday goods, and Miss Appa M. Schluntz The Jadge was Mr. Sullivan of Plattsmouth. The Jewelry, and a splendid selection The guests were the relatives and near neighbors.

Gathered around the fireside was the company, when the bridal party appeared before the altar. The bride dressed in gros grain silk, color ashes of roses, a wreath of orange flewers adorned her head. She wore gloves of white kid.

The Judge was dignified and conof which all partook, with a feeling and Workstands, Picture and Story that it were good to be there, and with Books, &c., &c. a hearty good will for the fair couple whose bark has just been launched on vors, I would respectfully solicit a conthe treacherous stream of time.

After dinner the company passed my motto is: the few remaining hours in social "QUICK SALES AND SMALL PROFITS;"

Among the presents was a large show goods. Respectfully, costly Photo Album and solid silver ten set. LEX.
