Largest Stock of fine candies and Toys ever exhibited in Plattsmouth, at the P. O. News Depot. 3912. The enormous stock of fine wool goods for ladies' wear kept by Wm. Herold is fast going; call. Little Fannie Gibb fell off the 6th Street bridge, near Vice, on Monday and was picked up unconscious. Don't forget to read the extra, where will be found the Temperance Column, local and regular ads. If you want to save money go to the P. O. Get your tallow a button-hole bouquet for the Masonic, and Moore's Greenhouse or at Phil Young's is the place to get it. Natural flowers for Christmas, the Masonic Ball and New Year. Leave orders with Phil Young, or come to the greenhouse. LEW. A. MOORE. The Lincoln Democrat seems to have an informant from this city, and that informant draws pretty largely on his imagination for items. Phil Young can supply all these wishing Toys, Candles, Nuts, etc., for Sunday schools, or private families, Christmas Trees, etc., and save you money. 3914. Hold your orders for Candles, and Christmas Tree trimmings, until you see Phil Young's Stock in that line, largest ever offered in the city at low prices. 3912. Two drunks last week before Judge Vivian; one of them languishes in the cooler for 30 days and $25, and the other one more fortunate, got off for $1 and costs. Bottom Prices for Holidays on Mason & Hamlin Organs, apply to our address. JAMES PETER, Office in O. F. Johnson's Drug Store, Plattsmouth, Neb. 3912. Several complimentary seats have been reserved for the minstrel show to-night, but those engaged for 50c are scarcer than hen's teeth. That comes from not advertising in the HERALD. Grand opportunity to get a FIRST CLASS Organ for the Holidays. Mason & Hamlin excelled by none. 3912. JAMES PETER, State Agent. One theatre-goer in Lincoln bought twelve seats for Janauschek, before breakfast. Like to see him buy 'em here, before or after breakfast, unless he likes the Gallery or top of the stairway. Remember Phil Young makes a specialty of Toys, Juvenile Books, Photo and autograph albums, Dolls, Doll Heads and Bodies, China ware, Violins, Accordions, and Harmonicas, Candles, Nuts and Fruits of all kinds, and will not be undersold. 3812.

Personel. J. W. Jennings adds his name to our fast increasing list for the HERALD and Chicago News. We neglected to mention last week the quite serious illness of Mrs. Love, which necessitated her absence from the school room for some days. We are glad to learn she is somewhat better. Mr. Taylor Ray, who has been farming near South Bend for some years, has gone up to the Niobrara to hunt up a homestead. He stopped at the HERALD long enough to order the same for his father in Mo. Success to you, and watch out for the Red skins. Frank Carruth Will give a grand show To-morrow afternoon and evening at his store of Christmas and Holiday goods. 3912. Smith & Black have received another invoice of the Many Goods consisting of wagons, sleds, etc., also they have some perambulators for "our New Baby." 3912. Charles Cyger is going to follow in the footsteps of his brother Will, judging from appearances. He occupies the same position with Mr. Beech in the cabinet department. Don't forget to go round to Frank Carruth's and see the Grandest Display of Holiday goods ever shown in this city, Friday p. m. and evening. Ducks! Geese!! Turkeys!!! Chickens!!! and in fact anything and everything in the meat line that heart could wish for Christmas "wear" at the old reliable, Anthony G. Hatt's. 3912. People in general must remember that the only place in Plattsmouth where you can get all kinds of books for a Christmas present for both young and old is at Smith & Black's. 3912. January is fast approaching and our old accounts are not being paid up. We have been very lenient but do need money very badly and after January we shall collect by law if possible. Tlanel, the peripatetic, tumbled off the bridge on 6th street and concussed his shoulder. If somebody don't fix that "ere bridge there'll be a compound concussion on general principles soon. The new bakery of J. Bonn & Son is being re-painted and other wise cleaned and fixed up. A vast change is already discernible, and will be a decided improvement to lower Main, when completed. Phil Young received a telegram to back the Hall on the 3rd, for the "Gobblers." Who or what it is no one seems to know. If they are genuine (turkey) gobblers, they are coming just in time for Christmas dinner. We call attention to the Ad of Mr. T. R. Staneiforth, Proprietor of a new meat market. Mr. S. aims to prepare himself to supply the wants of the community with anything in his line. Give him a trial. The "O-Be-Joyful" dance was not very well attended on Thursday evening, and those who did attend almost wished they had stayed at home, as the Hall was colder than four barns. It is to be hoped that the new Janitor will attend to business and "bar the doors." A change in the time table of the B. & M. went into effect last Sunday, by which the morning freight leaves here at 7:10, a. m., thirty minutes earlier than heretofore, and the evening freight from Omaha leaves there at 6:30 p. m., and arrives here at 8:15, a half an hour later than previously. There is a store in Chicago called the "C" Store, because the man's name that keeps it is named "Ces." They keep an infinite variety and quantity of goods of all kinds and descriptions and a Nebraska man who went there thought it was the Sea Store, because they had everything to sell from above the earth, under the earth and on the earth. Mr. F. J. Holmes an enterprising young farmer, located south of Elmwood, called on us and ordered the HERALD. Mr. Holmes is working late fine stock quite extensively, among which are the Canada, Poland China Hogs. He has just purchased from Mr. Patten the fine Essex Hog, from Vandoren's Stock, "the original Importer" of the Essex breed. Only five days more in which to take advantage of our Christmas Present offer. HERALD CHRISTMAS PRESENT OFFER. Five days more and the time to take advantage of our Christmas present offer will be up. Hurry in your subscriptions, for we are exceedingly anxious to give every one of our subscribers a Christmas present. The lecture delivered by Mrs. Nindel last Thursday evening in the Presbyterian church on the subject of "Japan," and its missionary work, was not largely attended owing to the bad weather and other causes but was much enjoyed by the audience present. Mrs. Nindel devotes the proceeds of these lectures to the purchase of extra grounds for the children's school in Japan, which is under the charge of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of this country. The Reading Room. According to previous announcement, a meeting was held at the Presbyterian church, Tuesday afternoon, which was attended by a goodly number of ladies to devise ways and means for re-opening the reading room. The great difficulty seems to be to obtain a suitable room. A number of projects were talked up, and committees appointed to make further arrangements, and report at a second meeting to be held Saturday afternoon, at the Presbyterian church, at 2 p. m. All who are interested in this subject are earnestly invited to be present, and aid by their presence and counsel this important subject.

Disolution. Notice is hereby given that the co-partnership heretofore existing between the undersigned is this day dissolved by mutual consent. GREENWOOD, Dec. 16, 1879. A. BEESON, J. W. STEWART. 3913. The Tragic Queen. Almost within our own time, there have been four Siddons, Rachael, Ristori, Janauschek. Ristori has gone to rest in her sunny Italian home—Siddons and Rachael are resting in the home that is beyond this world. Janauschek remains alone in her glory, incomparable and unapproachable. Through the grandeur of her acting, there shines constantly the light of genuine womanliness. In no character does she show this more than in Lady Macbeth. Her imperiousness at one moment, and the subtlety of her persuasiveness at another, are beyond description. Those who have heard her before will be sure to hear her again.—Burlington Hawkeye. MY DEAR CHILDREN: Once more I greet you with the "Merriest Christmas" and "grossest New Year." Don't fail to see what fine present I have for you in store at PHIL YOUNG'S HEADQUARTERS for my Christmas presents. Now, my dear children, you must remember that I am getting old and feeble, so that I cannot visit you all as in my younger days, so I would beg you to lighten my burdens, by going to J. P. YOUNG, at the P. O. NEWS DEPOT, and select such goods as you want me to bring for your presents, ask Phil to label them plainly, or write me a letter in care of PHIL YOUNG—and my word for it, you shall have everything you ask for. But be sure and don't forget the place, and by being good children you shall be rewarded accordingly. I am as ever, yours, affectionately, 3812. SANTA CLAUS. Rev. Wm. H. Chapman, Pastor of M. E.
