

THE HERALD.

JNO A. MACMURPHY, - EDITOR.

PLATTSMOUTH, JAN. 1, 1880.

Our Club List for 1880.

We herewith present our readers with our club list for 1880.

Table listing subscription rates for various newspapers and magazines, including 'The Herald', 'The Omaha Journal', and 'The Nebraska Farmer'.

1880.

Only twenty years to 1860! What a way off that to look what the editor was a boy.

YANKTON was shaken by an earthquake on the 23th.

The Plattsmouth HERALD is very lively reading these winter days.—Bee.

We've been settin' on an Indian policy a long time. It's about to hatch.

The Nebraska Press Association meets at Lincoln Jan'y 20th. See official notices elsewhere.

The probabilities seem to be that the Utes will murder Hatch and the few men he has with him, before they reach white man's land.

DOC MILLER has gone to New York, followed by "Fels" Patrick.

The latest offer from Magazines we have seen is that the publishers of "The Household," Brattleboro, Vt., will send the Magazine one year free to all newly married couples.

No congress for three weeks and nothing in reach for the democracy to steal.

Let them "eat, drink and be merry" for "to-morrow they die."—Chicago Journal.

A PROMINENT Southern Republican says that with Grant and a Vice-President from the south, they could carry three or three southern states.

The meeting of managers of the State Board of Agriculture meets at Lincoln, Tuesday, Jan. 29th.

THE NEWS, Omaha, has the right idea of the Maine business.

A "JAY" Bird that writes for the Bee, has the following to say of Cass County:

Plattsmouth, county seat of Cass county, has a population approximating 3,000.

News of another terrible bridge disaster comes, this time from England.

Nebraska Press Association. Notice is hereby given that the Nebraska Press Association will hold its annual meeting at Lincoln, Neb., on Tuesday, Jan. 20th, 1880.

Hand Muller.

Hand Muller on a winter's day. Went out upon the ice to play. Herath her Derby gleamed the locks.

Alas for the maiden I alas for the hole! And 'rah for the man with the hickory pole!

In Maine. BANGOR, ME., Dec. 35.—Excitement was caused here to-day by reports of removal of arms and ammunition.

About 5 p. m. two truck teams loaded with arms and ammunition were stopped on Kenduskeag bridge by a crowd.

French then pushed through the throng and said he was a clerk in the adjutant general's office.

As will be seen in our dispatches, in order to complete the outrage of counting out and keeping out thirty-seven Republican members of the legislature.

This man Garcelon, who is so wonderful in strict technicalities and formalities on election returns.

There is a constant effort on the part of the democracy (and fusionists) to justify this action by that of Louisiana.

While we feel very strongly about this outrage, we cannot agree that Garcelon and his men should be taken out and hung.

TRUTHS AND FACTS.

Worthy the Consideration of Western People. Especially Consumers of Tobacco and Cigars.—Also Important Facts concerning the Advancement of Western Labor and Commerce.

FOR 1880. I look back with pleasure upon the year 1869, in which I rolled the first cigar ever made in Cass county for the trade.

It is probably well known that the greater number of cigar manufacturers of late years have been made in so-called tenement houses.

Now it would be well to stop here and avoid picturing out more plainly the evil done by the supporters of these tenement dealers in the suburbs.

Our Temperance Column. THE STORY OF A LADY OF JONES COUNTY, IOWA.

The story of a lady of Jones County, Iowa well illustrates that it is not impossible to remedy by law some part of a wife's loss through her husband's intemperance.
