

The members of the Republican State Central Committee are hereby called to meet at the Commercial Hotel in Lincoln, on Thursday, the 8th day of April, 1880, at 2 o'clock p. m.

F. M. DOHRINGTON is Treasurer of a Street Railway Company in Deadwood.

AND the Democrat (Lincoln) again goes for the State Lunatic Asylum. Business.

LOT. BROWN has gone crazy over 13, 14, 15. At least the Globe says so and the Col. can't tell a lie.

CAPT. PAINE seems to have been sick, by the Journal. Try "Jacob's Oil" Capt., cures everything.

The Democratic County Committee are mostly called. The Republican Committees are yet to hear from.

The Lincoln Democracy are on it. Col. Montgomery and Col. Montgomery's Son, are after Gen. Viquin's scalp—backed by G. L. of Omaha, 'tis said.

CAPTAIN Secretary Alexander is now spoken of as U. S. Marshal; that is to say, if our ornary and cantankerous Senate will not confirm our Saint Balcombe.

THEY do say Bob Ingersoll has left Blaine and come over to Grant at last. says he thinks just as much of Blaine as ever, but believes Grant is the surest to be elected.

IN regard to the B. & M. Railroad crossing fight, A. B. Smith has the original O. & S. W. surveys, and says no part of the line has gone into the river, and the B. & M. title is good.

THE Judge in San Francisco fined Dennis Kearney $1000 and one year in the Penitentiary for disorderly conduct and inciting a riot. When he comes out the Sand Lots won't know him.

THE police in San Francisco arrested Mister Dennis Kearney the other day and he walked off to jail as quiet as a kitten with its claws clipped—never said "boo"—about Gore or anything of the kind.

THANK God, the Democracy are getting a dose of their own medicine. Miller wants to run things, Viquin has come up like a Mushroom in the night and claims precedence; and the Democracy feel in their bones what it is to be cursed with too many smart men at once.

THE readers of the HERALD, who have frequently asked what became of the report of the Commissioners on the Treasurer, etc., will find the conclusion of the settlement and their statement of funds, and all about it, in the last report of the Commissioners' Proceedings in the HERALD.

THE Lincoln Journal at last hits the truth when it says: "Whether the nomination of Gen. Grant is practicable and expedient or not, it is not true that the politicians are for Grant and the people against him. It is nearer the truth to say that the majority of politicians are against the General and the mass of the people for him."

THE Chinese Government is strongly inclined to retaliate for our hostility to their people and exclude all American produce and shipping from Chinese Ports. It would then be in order for armed ships to force an entrance to Chinese harbors and compel them to trade with us while we ignore their right to settle and live here in peace.

THE Lincoln Journal thinks the Democracy have made a mistake in trying to swap Dr. Miller off for an unknown leader; the County returns from Conventions, as they come in, show Miller delegates. Oh dear! well; to use the illustrious G. L.'s own words we are for the "Under dog," if G. L. Miller is on top, we're agin him, if he is under we're for him. Anything to beat Sammy and the bar!

THE editor of Scribner's Monthly Magazine, desirous of stimulating the industry of engraving upon wood, which he thinks offers a much more remunerative field of labor than other branches of art, such as painting upon porcelain, decorating, etc., has offered three prizes of $100, $75, and $50, for the first, second and third best specimens of engraving sent to their office, during the year 1880, by pupils in any art-school, or under any private teacher in the United States.

GOV. NANCE wrote Senator Paddock asking as a personal favor that Mr. Clapp, of Plattsmouth, be appointed mail agent. Mr. Clapp will be remembered as the one who was promised the position of steward at the Nebraska hospital for the insane. We await developments to see what Gov. Nance is going to do to satisfy Drs. Root and Hall. The Governor must not forget that there are two other factions in Cass county that must be provided for before he can get the assistance of that county in the Senatorial race. Send in the names. The boys are getting very anxious for something to turn up—Lincoln Democrat.

NOW where does the Democrat learn so many things about Cass county; we can't find out half as much on Lancaster. 'Pears to us we have heard of Drs. Root and Hall—but then what's that to the Governor now. He's not a candidate for the Senate. He has said so a heart of times.

Gen. Grant. The City of Mexico with Gen. Grant and party aboard, sailed from Tampico Saturday, and should have arrived in Galveston Monday. A severe storm in the Gulf alarmed many and raised the report that the General was lost, but the steamer arrived safe and sound on the 23d.

The New Paper. A stylish U. P. freight car jumped the crossing at Omaha last Saturday, and brought us down a new newspaper outfit. "The Platte Valley Democrat," from Columbus, and now of Plattsmouth, Messrs. Wentworth & Crites, proprietors. (Biles repudiates it, we see.) They have a Potter Power Press, and a very good office, we should judge, and are located in the old Herald building.

They have not made their first issue yet; but it's supposed to be a regular simon-pure, old-fashioned, straight-out Democrat. If anybody knows what that is now-a-days, and it's fun to see how tickled the old democrats are over the fact that they are going, or think they are going to have a real newspaper with a good office and a respectable head, whom they believe in earnest, and honest in his convictions. They bristle up and say: "Met our editor, sir? Fine man, real democrat, come and let me introduce you." Or, "Seen our paper yet? Big outfit, just down here in the old Herald office, come and see it."

And then, as they gaze on it, say: "Democratic Press, that, yes, sir! I'll show 'em now, eh?" Well, that's business, boys! Go it while you're young. THE HERALD hopes you have got a good paper, and a good citizen and honest man to edit it. That's all the bad luck we wish you. Whoop her up lively!

THE second issue of the paper comes out this week, all O. K. The New Press works like a charm, and the bolts and nuts and screws are all found, the monkey wrenches have crawled into sight and the usual quiet of a well-ordered Printing Office has succeeded the "don't you forget it" and ——— that wrench of last week.

Now neighbors, friends and readers of the HERALD take hold and help us to increase our list. A few moments from each patron would secure a new subscriber and double our list, and the sooner we get that, the quicker we shall increase size and matter of the paper.

For the purpose of giving those friendly to the paper a chance to do this, we send out to Postmasters and others sample copies of the HERALD this week, which please distribute, and send along your new readers.

From Washington. Col. E. J. Brooks Chief Clerk of the Indian Bureau being investigated on the Indian question, answered as follows: Being asked whether the Poncas consent was given he replied: "Hardly such consent as I myself should wish to be removed under."

Senator Daves—Am I to understand that in your opinion consent of the Poncas was given to their removal. Col. Brooks—I can hardly answer that more definitely. Daves—I think so myself, but I did not know but you might like to put it in some other language.

Witness—No, sir. Question—By what authority of law then were the Poncas taken to the Indian territory? Answer—If any under the general authority residing in the president or government as guardian of the Indians and in view of the fact that their reservation in Dakota had been given to the Sioux, and that congress had made an appropriation for their removal to Indian territory and to no other place.

MAKING IT LIVELY FOR MILL. Senator Hill is living a lively time. Miss Raymond with a babe named Tommy Hill appears alternately at the capitol and at Hill's boarding house. The Senator is practically under the protection of the capitol police while the senator is in session and of the city police during the time he spends at home.

A GROWING SENSATION. WASHINGTON, March 18.—The Christianity divorce case is one of the leading topics to-day of social gossip, occupying as prominent a place as did the noted marriage several years ago. Senator Christianity's announcement that he is coming home to sue for a divorce in person, and at once indicates an energetic condition of his mind, notwithstanding his age and the enervating atmosphere of Peru. He comes charged with allegations against the character of his wife, which she pronounces the outgrowth of the crazy jealousy of an old man with a young wife. The trouble grew out of a report about a suit of money that was to be paid Christianity by Chandler.

A BONUS FOR HIS RETIREMENT. The money was to be paid to Mr. Christianity's son Henry. Henry is Christianity's favorite son who resides in Detroit. It is said that Minister Christianity has made a will in Henry's favor.

Mrs. Christianity affirms that she has upon several occasions actually knocked her down, and that upon other interesting occasions Mr. Christianity had varied the occasion by choking, pinching, and slapping her.

Another Puzzle Maniac. Associated Press Dispatch. Erie, Pa., March 23.—A stone-cutting of this city, named Daniel Conroy, has become insane from attempting to solve the fifteen puzzle. After working at it for several successive days and nights, he this morning developed unmistakable evidence of mental derangement. It required four policemen to take him to jail, where he is now confined. He is so violent that he has kept maniacal, but, notwithstanding, has torn off all his clothing and refuses food. On the wall of his cell he has scratched a diagram of the puzzle, to which he devotes his attention in his calmer moments.

Go slow, boys; or the Sheriff will have to take some of you. Montreal Head From. R. L. Moseley, of Montreal, Canada, certified Sept. 27, 1879, that he had suffered terribly from dyspepsia, and was completely cured by taking Warner's Safe Bitters. He says: "My appetite is good, and I now suffer no inconvenience from eating hearty meals." These Bitters are also a specific for all skin diseases. 41t13

OH BENNIE HOW COULD YOU!

Thomas Benjamin Hill.

THE GEORGIA SENATOR'S ALLEGED SON

Special Telegram to the later-Ocean. WASHINGTON, March 21.—The Sunday Capital contains a portrait of Thomas Benjamin Hill, the youngest who has caused the Senator from Georgia so much annoyance, and people have been engaged in pointing out the resemblance, real or fancied, to his alleged father. Senator Hill is certainly having a trying experience. The woman continues to spend her time in places where Hill is accustomed to go, and he has to have a policeman about his house and about his committee room to protect him. The mystery is why he does not carry out his threat and have her arrested for blackmail. She says she is anxious to confront him in court. In an interview published in the Capital to-day, she says: "What has been published has made me so ashamed that I have hardly left my room. I never have gone to the table in the dining room. I am determined now; I am in earnest, and will do something now. I am tired of this treacherous. When I went to the Capitol, two or three policemen came and stood near me. I expect they thought I would do something or other. I can never see the Senator at the Capitol. They watch for me so that he would know I immediately if I went there. I told them I was going to his house Friday afternoon, and the word reached the Senator's house before I did, for when I got there there were two policemen in front of the house. They did not stop me, and I walked up the steps with the baby and rang the bell. A young man came to the door, and when he saw who was there looked so I couldn't go in. The policeman did not do anything. One of them talked to me very kindly, and told me I had better go away. I told him that the Senator did not dare have me arrested."

ED. HERALD:—The sudden change in the weather of late has added many names to our sick list. Scarcely a dwelling in our neighborhood but that some of its inmates are ill. Among those more seriously afflicted are Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Pottenger, Mrs. J. S. Piner, Mrs. G. W. Hamilton, a son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Colbert. Fortunately we have many kind neighbors, who seem never to tire of caring for the sick and encouraging them with kind words.

We hear of quite a number of weddings that have come off, or are about to take place; but as we are not in possession of the facts we refrain from naming the parties.

We are glad to see the pleasant face of our old friend Laz Edgar among us again. We understand that he and wife have come back to Nebraska to stay. We hope they may find it to their interest to locate in our vicinity. Our esteemed friend and neighbor, John Clark, we learn, is soon to leave us for the West. We are sorry to lose John and his estimable lady. We were not so favorably impressed with him on first acquaintance, as he is not one of the gushing kind that overwhelm you with their kindness at first sight; but one of the more substantial kind that wear, and the better you get acquainted the more you like them. The liberal kindness of Mrs. Clark wins for her the deserved praise of every one.

We are sorry to see the columns of the HERALD used by some parties for the purpose of venting their petty spite. If any one has been wronged, or there has been a crime committed, and he, she or anybody else feels particularly called upon to ventilate the matter, let them come out with the facts as they know them, and real names, and not throw out insinuations under the guise of a non de plume. Often a noise in the bush would lead us to think there was a bear there, but on closer examination it would prove to be only (the) wind.

Thanks to the HERALD for the article on the "cramping and stuffing" business, indulged in at present by so many newspapers and politicians. We hope the voters of Cass County and the State will profit by such wholesome and manly advice.

Our good opinion of the Inter-Ocean politically, has been changed to sickening disgust by the stuffing policy adopted by that paper. We are free to say that we favor the nomination of James G. Blaine, not that we think him the only man in the United States that is fitted for the position, but one who is eminently qualified and most deserving of it at the hands of the people; one whose services in and out of Congress, during the past few years, have done as much toward fitting him for so high a trust, as if he had been hob-nobbing with kings, queens, emperors and nobles around the entire world.

We have no desire, however, to stuff our choice down any one's throat. Since writing the above we learn that Mr. and Mrs. Colbert have again been afflicted by the death of another boy. This death, coming as it does while the wound in their hearts, caused by the death of Willie, is still bleeding, makes it doubly sad. They can be assured of the heartfelt sympathy of their many friends and neighbors.

ADIRONDACK. Three Groves Home. ED. HERALD:—As I have neglected to write for some time, and not noticing any items from this vicinity, I hastily write a few inking lines for publication, in this week's issue, to inform the readers of the HERALD that this neighborhood is among the living, and enjoying prosperity as usual. I suppose you have got that new printing press, that you have up there at the HERALD office, set up all right by this time, so that it will take in bad grammar, spelling and all, without any trouble whatever, and fix it up all right, and without very much assistance, either, from ye editor.

The beautiful weather we are having at present has a tendency to push farm work rapidly on, which has already commenced. Not much wheat sown as yet, however; the farmers are clearing off their stock fields, and preparing the soil to sow small grain when the ground gets in good order, which won't be very long if the weather continues as it has been for the last three or four days. There will be about the usual amount of wheat sown in this locality as in previous seasons. Some think the winter wheat is mostly killed, and will not be a very good crop.

Stock men are beginning to get the blues, that is, those that have not sold on account of the bottom falling out of the cattle market; notwithstanding, their cattle seem to be doing better this winter than heretofore. Those who sold some time ago, look cheerful and think they hit the nail on the head this time.

On Tuesday night of last week, while coming from church, two of our neighborhood boys, in running their horses, ran over a footman, who happened to be in their way, knocking him down, and coming very near making a first-class accident; but as luck would have it, no serious damage was done. The boys were arrested and taken before Mr. Archer, J. P., of Rock Bluffs, and fined $5 apiece, and costs, for running horses on the public highway.

S. C. Patterson and Leroy Allison have gone to Chicago with fat cattle; they went on Saturday. Mrs. L. H. Young and her brother, J. H. McBroome, went East last week to Fairmont, Illinois, on a visit for a few weeks.

Rev. H. A. Ewell closed a protracted meeting on Sunday night last, at the Rock Creek school house, which he has been holding a week or more. Waverly Allen, from W. W. was down a few days ago; he intends to move to Lincoln, shortly, so he says. Wonder what has become of J. Slinkins?

ELEANOR. Weeping Water Notes. ED. HERALD: Hope my letters do not come too late in the week to inconvenience you, if so, I must endeavor to prepare them earlier.

Business is quite brisk in W. W. for the present, quite building going on. Messrs Chase and Beardsley's Mammoth establishment is nearing completion, they have already received several car loads of furniture and more coming. Their building is large and neatly arranged inside, for the display of their goods.

Mr. C. Thorgeat has been adding largely to his Furniture stock of late, and is doing a lively trade, we may expect keen competition in this line, and as a consequence, shall get good goods now, cheap for cash.

Our Temperance Column.

FOR God, and ———, and Native Land."

The Public Library is now kept in the office of Will S. Wise, and will be open for the loaning and exchange of books every Wednesday and Saturday afternoon, from 1 to 3 o'clock, and on Saturday evenings, from 7 to 9.

The coming man will bravely stand, Without the wine-glass in his hand, A sun-crowed chief of the land; A land-mark, like the lofty pine, Which lifts on high its staves of oak, Whose root no fickle winds can stir; He, like an upright worshipper, Will never stoop to taste of wine.

Acadole of Farragut. My father was sent down to New Orleans with the little navy we had then, to look after the treason of Burr. I accompanied him as cabin boy. I had some qualities that I thought made a man of me. I could swear like an old dog, could drink a stiff glass of gin, as if I had doubled Cape Horn, and could smoke like a locomotive; I was great at cards, and fond of gambling in every shape. At the close of dinner one day, my father turned everybody out of the cabin, locked the door, and said to me: "David, what do you mean to be?" "I mean to follow the sea," said I. "Follow the sea, be a poor, miserable drunken sailor before the mast, kicked and cuffed about the world, and die in some fever hospital in a foreign clime." "No," said I, "I'll tread the quarter-deck and command, as you do." "No, David, no boy ever trod the quarter-deck with such principles as you have, and such habits as you exhibit. You will have to change your whole course of life if you ever become a man." My father left me and went on deck. "A poor, miserable, drunken sailor before the mast, kicked and cuffed about the world, and die in some fever hospital!" That's my fate, is it? I will change my life, and change it at once. I will never utter another oath; I will never drink another drop of intoxicating liquors; I will never gamble. And as God is my witness I have kept these three vows to this hour. Shortly after I became a Christian. That act settled my temporal, as it settled my eternal destiny.

General Grant and Wine-Drinking. A correspondent of the Chicago Inter-Ocean, who journeyed with General Grant from San Francisco to Galena, writes: The fact of General Grant's total abstinence from wine or other intoxicating liquors is one which has attracted wide attention and comment. The manager of the Central Pacific, understanding the general's wishes, furnished his car with no liquor of any kind. On the Union Pacific we found the car stocked with all kinds, but General Grant always turned his glass back upward. It is a subject upon which any one would hesitate to question General Grant, but it is the conviction of all his friends, who have often heard his strong expressions upon kindred moral questions, that in the same unhesitating way in which he has given aid to other good causes he is offering to the cause of temperance the assistance of his example.

Total Abstinence in Washington. Rev. Lyman Abbott, Mrs. Hayes is the White House has never offered wine. Washington follows her lead, and I doubt whether any State Capitol, not excluding the Capital of Maine, is a more thorough temperance city than Washington to-day. The exclusion of wines and liquors from the capitol dates from the days of Senator Wilson, but I judge that public sentiment has grown stronger, and that the exclusion is more complete now than ever before.

As you go to Capitol Hill along Pennsylvania avenue, you come to a liquor shop with a sign extending out over the sidewalk. On it are the words: "The last chance." On the reverse side, seen as you come back from the capitol, are the words: "The first chance." Possibly a man who understands the appropriate signals can find a chance for a drink at the House or Senate restaurant; but nothing stronger than lager is drank publicly.

Within the last year Queen Victoria has given $25,000 to the temperance cause. Four members of the royal household are total abstainers.

It was a cause of honest pride to the late Vice-President Wilson that he could say, as he did once at Baltimore: "I come from a race of men who drank, and I believe that drunkenness is in a great measure hereditary. Yet I would as soon put a cup of poison before my family, or before my fellow-men as a cup of wine. Whatever my faults I thank God that no man in my country staggered to a drunkard's grave saying, 'Henry Wilson gave me my first drink.'"

Notice to Teachers. Examination of persons wishing to teach in Cass county, will be at the following times and places: At Plattsmouth, 1st Friday and Saturday in January, February, May, August, October and November. At Weeping Water, 1st Friday and Saturday in March, June and September. At Louisville 1st Friday and Saturday in April, July and December. Notice of other examinations will be given.

A Good Housewife. The good housewife, when she is giving her house its spring renovating, should bear in mind that the dear inmates of her house are more precious than many houses, and that their systems need cleansing by purifying the blood, regulating the stomach and bowels to prevent and cure the diseases arising from spring malaria and miasma, and she should know that there is nothing that will do so perfectly and surely as Hop Bitters, the purest and best of medicines. See other column.
