Hon. Schuyler Colfax, the author of the Rebecca Degree in Oddfellowship, and for thirty years a Prominent and Honored member of the fraternity, has kindly consented to address all Odd Fellows, their wives and daughters, upon the subject and principles of Oddfellowship, in their Hall, at 3:30 o'clock of June 13th, 1881. All Odd Fellows are invited to be present.

The reputation of Schuyler Colfax, both as a statesman and orator, was sufficient to induce an unusually large attendance at the First church. The peroration of the lecture was most eloquent and rendered in a masterly manner. After Mr. Colfax had concluded his remarks an enthusiastic crowd of students and others compelled him to hold an impromptu reception, at which the usual amount of hand-shaking and introductions took place.—[Oberlin (O.) News.

The Court House was occupied by a large and intelligent audience who assembled to hear Mr. Colfax's lecture on "Abraham Lincoln." Every one was pleased with it. The court room was handsomely decorated with flags and banners, while the Odd Fellows had a "welcome" to one who had been a prominent and honored member of that noble and wide-spread order for over thirty years.—[Cheppewa Falls (Wis.)
