"Reporter" and "Adirondack" old standbys, come to hand again, and give us news from the county. Much obliged.

Much fault is found that the premiums for the County Fair are not paid. Gentlemen officers, what causes the delay?

Coffee Sociable at I. O. G. T. Hall, to-morrow evening; all are cordially invited to be present.

Masquerade Sociable at the house of Mrs. D. H. Wheeler on Thursday, Dec. 15, by the Ladies of St. Luke's Church.

A large stock of Organs for the holidays, just received by James Pettee, State Agent for Mason and Hamlin Organs.

Miss Mary French, at one time visiting here, was married in Georgetown, Colo., Nov. 10th, 1881, to Dr. Jno L. Hodgeman.

Isn't the Weeping Water Recorder a little "unregal" occasionally? We seem to miss it from among our exchanges, once in a while.

Mince Meat by the pound at Bennett & Lewis'. 281f

E. B. Lewis says the telephone men will be here next week to put up wires, &c. They are now at Fremont and are coming here next.

Mr. Jno. Howard has disposed of his interest in the Plattsmouth Daily Journal, and returned to Des Moines his former place of residence.

The latest designs in Box Paper are to be found at Smith & Black Bros., purchased direct from Boston, and nothing like them in town. 371z

Mr. Eikenberry has left the poor house and will hereafter reside in town Mr. Jno. Sharp, of South Bend takes charge of the poor farm and inmates.

Crites and Ramsey, attorneys and Notary Public, second door east of Court House, Plattsmouth, Neb. 56m

Governor St. John, of Kansas, will lecture here on the 15th, on Temperance matters. The Governor is a representative man on that subject, and will no doubt draw a crowded house.

Dr. Salisbury still holds forth over Smith, Black & Co's. store, where he does the best of work in the dental line. Give him a call. 351f

Mr. Theo. Williams has been canvassing for Wolfe's Business Directory and State Gazetteer, a very useful work which Mr. Wolfe has been publishing annually now for some years.

Smith & Black Bros. Holiday Goods are rolling in, and in a few days they will be able to display the largest and best stock of goods in town. 371z

The Cass County Bank has changed hands, partially. Messrs. Touzalin and Yates have sold out their interest to J. M. Patterson, C. H. Parnelle, and others in our town. The bank is wholly owned in Plattsmouth, now.

The reading of the firm name of Smith Black & Co., has been changed and after this date will be Smith & Black Bros., no change in the parties interested.

The M. E. Church is about taking out the partitions to the class rooms, on each side of the entrance, and seating the same, that the church may have more seating capacity. Bro. Wilson must draw good congregations, we judge.

Fire meeting next Tuesday evening. It is hoped all the members, both Honorary and Active will be present, as there is business of importance to be attended to. Remember the night.

A young man out west ran for office to get rid of marrying a girl. He had no hopes of getting a divorce, but hoped the papers would blast his character so that the gal would never marry him.

WAKEFIELD. In this city, December 1st, W. of Illinoisville, W. Wakefield, aged 32 years, 2 months and 20 days. His occupation was that of engineer and was employed by the B. & M. R. R., at the time of his death. He leaves a wife and two children.

FITZMAN. At the residence of Hon. Sam. M. Chapman, in Plattsmouth, Nebraska, Tuesday, December 28th, 1881, at 4 o'clock, died Mrs. HARRIET FITZMAN, aged 74 years, 1 month and 24 days.

The funeral services were held at the residence at 11 A. M., Thursday, December 29th, at the Cemetery here.

Death seems to follow the family of Mr. Chapman's relatives in Saunders County dead, his beloved wife and children, and now that wife's mother.

Mr. Putnam was a native of Vermont, and came to Nebraska in 1852, since which time he has been a member of Mr. Chapman's family, and together with Mrs. Rockwood had the care of his family since his lamented wife's death. He was a sincere and devoted Christian and left a large circle of the most devoted friends to mourn her demise.

An inviolable motto goes with which there is no leave taking, and where all is bliss. There the strikers will once more form a portion of the great family of the reunited in the hereafter to be separated more. Such is the Christian's hope and belief.

The funeral services to-day will be conducted by the Rev. Mr. Hoid of the Presbyterian Church and the Rev. Mr. Wilson of the M. E. Church.

JENNINGS. At Plattsmouth, Neb., Saturday, Dec. 30, 1881, at 6 o'clock P. M., Miss Lizzie H. Jennings, wife of J. W. Jennings, aged 42 years, 3 months and 27 days.

The deceased was the wife of our County Clerk, and a lady of more than ordinary intellectual acquirements. Her maiden name was Haddock, and she was a direct descendant of the Hallacks of Revolutionary days and a relative of Gen. Fitzgibbon Hallack of later years.

For many years she had been a great sufferer, and her demise, while removing from companionship in this world a dear friend to those who knew her well, must have been to herself a relief from pain and care.

Her death at this time, however, was very sudden, and the bereavement to her husband and friends correspondingly mournful.

She was born at Chagrin Falls in New York State and married Mr. Jennings and came to Nebraska in 1874. The funeral services were largely attended and most appropriately conducted by the Rev. Mr. Wilson, of the M. E. Church. The attendance at the grave was very large considering the disagreeable nature of the day, and we laid our friend away, trusting that in the great future we may meet her free from the infirmities of this life and in the immortality granted to the saints of which she must be one if patient endurance of suffering here entitles her to the reward in the hereafter.

Plattsmouth Lodge, K. of H., took the following action Tuesday evening, on the death of Mrs. J. W. Jennings:

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Grand Dictator of the Universe to remove from our midst, the wife and bosom companion of our brother Knight, J. W. Jennings, and

WHEREAS, We, as Brother Knights, are desirous of testifying our respect for the deceased, and expressing our earnest and affectionate sympathy for our brother; therefore be it

Resolved, That we sincerely condole with the husband of the deceased, on the dispensation with which it has pleased Divine Providence to afflict him; commend our Brother Jennings, for consolation, to Him, who orders all things for the best, and whose chastisements are meant in mercy.

Resolved, That this heartfelt testimonial of our sympathy and sorrow be spread upon the records of our Lodge, and that a copy of the same be furnished our worthy Brother Knight, and that a copy be furnished the press of the city for publication.

H. M. BRUSHNELL, Com. D. H. WHEELER, Sec. J. P. YOUNG, J. E. MORRISON, W. N. McLENNAN, Dictator.

Another Bad Accident. We are obliged to chronicle another accident at the shops, which resulted most seriously to Messrs. S. T. Corbett and Frank Bila.

Last Tuesday morning, a couple of flat cars loaded with bridge timber, which had been jammed together in coupling, were being slowly moved down to the machine shops for repairs, when one of the cars suddenly gave way and precipitated the heavy lumber upon Corbett and Bila who were beside the car. Corbett was thrown with his left groin upon a rock, and a piece of lumber striking him in the groin; his right thigh was also badly mashed and his left shoulder dislocated.

Bila was caught by the neck between two timbers and barely escaped a broken neck.

Corbett was taken to the Pacific House by order of Dr. Livingston, his home being below the bridge.

Dr. Livingston states that his internal injuries are serious, and may result fatally. Bila's injuries are not of so serious a nature and he is doing well. Corbett has a wife and three children, Bila a wife and one child.

Mrs. Luke Wiles, of Mills County, Iowa, mother of Mr. Thos. Wiles of this county, died Nov. 23d, at a week or two after the death of her husband, mention of which we made recently. Mr. Wiles' death was quite sudden, hernia being the immediate cause, brought on, probably, by grief for her husband.

By order of the Council the saloons of Geo. Edgerton and Thieroff & Grace were closed on Monday last. Complaint was made, we understand by the three saloon men that having said the double license, that they were unjustly treated and the Mayor and Council, properly we think ordered the others closed.

Mr. H. T. Courtwright, of Jewell City, Kansas, brother of Mr. M. L. Courtwright, deceased, came to attend his brothers funeral and take the remains to Glandonville, Ill. whither he was accompanied by Mr. Messersmith. Another brother also came but arrived too late to attend the funeral.

We are informed by Mr. Drummond that the drama "Better Than Gold" will be given at Fitzgibbon Hall by the pupils of the High School on Friday 16th, inst.

The object of the entertainment is to raise funds to pay for the new chemical apparatus just added to the collection, and some of our best local talent will assist in the performance.

—Look out for A. G. Hatt's Christmas Beef. He will show it next week; the fattest cow ever seen on the streets of Plattsmouth.

—P. B. Murphy has a patent time keeper in his hall that is a pretty thing. The dial instead of being marked with minutes is marked with cents and those using the tables par for the time they play instead of for the games.

—Smith & Black Bros. are headquarters for Holiday Goods, "and don't you forget it."

—THE HERALD this week is one of mourning almost, in spite of the many evidences of growth and prosperity of weekly record; and of good wishes for our banquet.

—The death of several old residents, and prominent citizens throws a spirit of sadness over all our festivities.

—NOTARY PUBLIC—WILL S. WISE. 381f

—The great newspaper men of Plattsmouth seem to be having a hard time. The Journal man seems to think the council set down on his Hall scheme, and the Board of Trade squelched Bushnell's grandiloquent report of his Missouri River Convention at the Tuesday night meeting.

—Will Shroyck, Tax Collector, will be in South Bend, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Dec. 12, 13, and 14, 1881, for the purpose of collecting delinquent taxes. Parties living in Elmwood, South Bend, Greenwood, Friday and Saturday, Dec. 15, 16 and 17, 1881, for the purpose of collecting delinquent taxes. Parties living in Elmwood, South Bend, Greenwood, Friday and Saturday, Dec. 15, 16 and 17, 1881, for the purpose of collecting delinquent taxes.

—NOTARY PUBLIC—WILL S. WISE. 381f

—The board of Trade met Tuesday evening, to perfect measures to make the banquet at the Perkins House to-night a success. A very large attendance from abroad is expected, and the occasion will be one of great interest to Plattsmouth, in its bearings on the future business interests of the place, if the plans of the various committees be carried to a successful issue.

—From the Danvers (Mass.) Mirror: Mr. Geo. H. Day, of this town was cured of rheumatism by St. Jacobs Oil.

—Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Thomas gave a little party at their residence, four miles and a half west of Plattsmouth last Friday evening. Several couple were invited out from town and the young folks around there were all present. The evening was spent very pleasantly and about 1 o'clock the party broke up, all present hoping Mr. and Mrs. Thomas would "do so" again in the near future.

The Wilmington (Del.) News says: J. E. Shaw, Esq., proprietor Grand Union Hotel, New York, indorses St. Jacobs Oil for rheumatism and neuralgia.

—A. B. Smith showed us the other day the likeness of "Peter A. Sarpy, Sr." taken from a negative owned by C. W. Phillips, at Nebraska City, the Daguerreotype from which this was originally taken was a picture of Mr. Sarpy many years ago, and the features are so readily recognizable to those who knew him later, but the wonderful black eyes are there, and the mouth. The sight of the picture brought up many recollections, some pleasant, others painful. Copies can be had of Mr. Phillips.

I. O. G. T. Coffee Sociable to-morrow night. Go and have a good time.
