—This (Thursday) evening.
—At the res. of Mrs. J. N. Wise.
—A general invitation extended to all.

—Scott's Electric Hair Brushes at Smith & Black Bros.

—The house occupied by Mr. Leuchter, near J. N. Wise's place, took fire from the chimney last Sunday morning about 9:30, and burned the house entirely down. Nearly everything in the house was saved, and the house being old, there was not much loss. There was no alarm rung, consequently the firemen knew nothing of it.

—A car load of flour just received by J. V. Weckbach, from Minneapolis.

—The I. O. O. F. Encampment masque ball took place at the Hall Tuesday evening, there was a large crowd present, about fifty couple being masqued, there were a few very nice stunts, nearly all were funny and the waltzers created considerable amusement among the crowd. The dance netted the Encampment about $75, being a grand success, both socially and financially.

—Teeth filled, pulled and cleaned in a most skillful manner by Dr. Salsbury. Give him a call.

—We acknowledge the receipt of invitations to the wedding of Miss Lotie Keller, of this city, and Mr. W. R. Thomas, of Omaha, which takes place this afternoon, at 1 o'clock, just too late for us to give a report of it. But we wish them much joy and happiness, and shall have to reserve the details of the ceremony for another week.

—Don't fail to examine the New Key Actors in Masas & Hamlin Organs, wonderful improvement.

JAMES PETTEE, Gen. Agent.

—The moon presented a very peculiar appearance last Tuesday evening, about six o'clock. Rays of light crossed its centre at right angles and extended for some distance in the horizon, where they met two bright spots, at times so bright as to give the colors of the prism, and varying in intensity; a circle of light also connected these lunar spots, the whole presenting a most beautiful appearance.

—The best Sewing Machine—the "WHITE" 43ST POTTER & WEBSTER, Agents for Cass Co. Weeping Water.

—Last Tuesday the teams of James Sage and James Burnett, were pulled against each other, on a bet of fifty dollars. Their wagons were loaded with sand and rock, and seventeen men on top, with all four wheels locked, James Sage's team moved their load off as slow and steady as any one could wish proving the better team of the two.

—Anyone in need of a good set of teeth should call on Dr. Salsbury at once, and he will make you a set that will please you ever after.

—We are sorry the Journal is not "positive" about General Smith's case in the Surveyor General's office, and think it singular it will not support a citizen of this town first, and not copy such things, nor seem inclined to take Van Wyck's and the Omaha Herald's word for it that something is wrong, without waiting for an inquiry. Come "down off the fence," Journal, and speak up like a man, if you have anything to say about the Surveying system.

—Dakota and Kansas flour at White's by the car load, just received. Give us a call before purchasing elsewhere, and we will promise to get up a job to suit, or charge nothing for it.

—Having just received a fine line of paper, such as Bill Heads, Statements (four sizes), Letter Heads, Note Heads, Wedding Goods, Calling and Business Cards, Ball Programmes, and everything else needful in a first-class Job Office, and constantly receiving the latest novelties in type as they are issued, the Herald office is prepared to do as fine work as can be procured anywhere, at Omaha and Lincoln prices. Give us a call before ordering elsewhere, and we will promise to get up a job to suit, or charge nothing for it.

—Critics and Ramsey, attorneys and Notary Public, second door east of Court House, Plattsmouth, Neb. 4610m.

—Ain't you a "fleece" on the "fence" Bro. Sherman, about this small pox, anyway. "Would our neighbor dare to say" what was the matter if his own wife was taken sick, and Dr. Livingston said it was small pox and Dr. Meade, "frustrance" said it wasn't. And then if "Danger" wrote you a letter, Bro. S., are you quite sure you would be positive on the matter. You know you "may want an office one of these days" and then "positive" opinion on small pox would come so handy, and "be of great value" to you.

—For the best staple and fancy groceries in Plattsmouth go to J. V. Weckbach's.

—About two weeks ago Capt. Marshall stepping out of the rear door of the Post office after dark, found too late, that the banister to his little porch there had disappeared, and also found himself on the frozen ground six feet below the stoop. One ankle was hurt considerably and all his corns seemed torn out by the roots. Cap. limped on that leg for some days, and then behold, the other one began to pain worse than the first. Now Cap. is like a horse spavined in both hind legs, he don't know which one to limp on.

—NOTARY PUBLIC—WILL S. WISE.

—An interesting christening ceremony, by Father Lynch, attracted quite a large attendance at the residence of Mr. C. Schlatter, of Louisville Precinct, on Sunday last. The little "sufferer" was the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Lewis, of Eight Mile Grove Precinct, and the grandchild of our Mr. Schuhof, who with Mrs. C. Schlatter acted as sponsors. The little man stood the ordeal as bravely as could be expected, after which the happy event was further solemnized by the partaking of a royal good dinner. The rest of the day and the evening were spent in a manner befitting the occasion.

Personal.
J. V. Glover, P. M. of Louisville, was a passenger on the train West Saturday last.

A. J. Graves of Rock Bluffs called last week to see the Herald, and reports things moving a little in R. B.

G. W. Lacy, Rock Bluffs, has sold his farm there, and will move to Beatrice shortly, where he intends to go into the stock business.

"Wave" Allen, our old "cane" miller, and one of the mostest, worstest smartest greenbacks in this neck o' woods, was in town Saturday.

Mr. Geo. Hansen, one of the solid farmers from Centre Valley, called on Herald Tuesday, and left us a little hard cash on sub. Thanks.

Dr. Hasemeier, Mrs. James Robertson and Miss Manie Cooley, of Louisville, were in town Tuesday, to attend the wedding of Mr. W. B. Shryock.

W. F. Morrison and wife returned from their southern trip last Sunday morning. He reports having a fine time.

Mrs. McKeever came in, on the evening train from Omaha Monday.

Miss Addie McVior, is slowly improving from her late illness.

Miss Oie Barnes, who has been very ill, so much so that she was unable to be at her place in the Surveyor General's office for some time, is back to work again, we understand.

These Livingston and Dan. Wheeler, were down to spend last Sunday with their folks.

—No patent required to catch the rheumatism. A cold and inattention to it, and you have it the rheumatism. We cure ours with St. Jacobs Oil.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

—The Catholics of Louisville and neighboring Precincts have built themselves a handsome little church edifice, which they erected during last summer. It is pleasantly situated at the intersection of the two main wagon roads in the County—the road from Louisville to Weeping Water and the one from Plattsmouth to Greenwood. Although not quite completed, services are held there regularly by Fr. Lynch, of this city, and the attendance is always large. Arrangements are now being made for its final completion this Spring.

The Execution of Guiteau is not more certain than the fact that the best of Furniture can be bought at the New Furniture Store, as low as the lowest.

HARRIS & WIRTH.

—The other day we got a letter addressed "Tip-Top, Editor Herald." Who do you think it was from? Our old friend and citizen, A. W. Prole, in Osceola, Iowa; and he's just been raising "it—all Columby" down there. It seems he had been getting and paying for, special telegrams about the President's shooting, death and all during the trial of the Assassin, which he had distributed to all the citizens free.

On the receipt of the telegram, that Guiteau was declared "Guilty," he at once made arrangements to hang him in effigy in the public square, at Osceola, on the evening of the 27th.

This was the program:

1st.—Assembling of the people in the square. 2d.—Our climate upon the crime, by Hon. R. A. Dague. 3d.—Bringing Guiteau from the jail by the officers and guard. 4th.—Reading the death warrant. 5th.—Execution. 6th.—Remarks by Hon. T. B. Stuart. 7th.—Burning body.

Prole paid for the whole of it, and is doing a rushing trade in "Fancy Groceries" besides.

We guess the boy is succeeding and we are glad to hear of his success.

—Death to rats, mice, roaches and ants; PARSON'S EXTERMINATOR. Best and cheapest household cleanser in a single night. No fear of bad smells. Best and cheapest vermin killer in the world. Sold everywhere.

N. L. Thatcher.

Almost from the first, Mr. Thatcher has been closely identified with the business interests of our city, and the recent intelligence of his death, in Texas, whither he had gone in the vain hope of regaining health, produced a marked sensation among our people. Enterprising, energetic and resourceful, he seldom made a mistake in his business; and, if he did, he redoubled efforts, speedily even more than regained the lost ground.

For some time past, he had been heroically battling with an insidious disease, that had long been seated in his system. Our climate was favorable to him, but he had been so long in the hospital, that he could not refrain from the stirring arena of business life—resolutely refusing to yield, until he was reduced to a mere shadow, his undiminished spirit gave way to a power that was stronger than any human organism.

He was greatly missed in our business life—no one could be more so. There will be a jar in its pulsations, that will be felt for a long time—and a vacant place that no one can at once fill.—Hastings Nebraska.

JANUARY 23, 1882.

DEAR OLD HERALD:—The move to this town is the thing of the past, as we are now located here, and will only move and greet to the many readers of the Herald, asking them to bear us in mind in the real estate and collection lines of business, and call upon, or write to us. We find this a lively town, even at this season, considerable improvement under way, more contemplated. Regular Sunday school, and religious services morning and evening every Lord's day. Considerable R. R. activity, and who knows how much more in the near future. Weather of late much colder, but Tuesday morning—14°—this is coldest yet. Will send some description of town next time. As ever,

E. S. CHILDS.

ONCE MORE!

A GAY OLD WEDDING.

The Latest Edition; Both Forms Locked up at Once.

NOT MUCH BODY TYPE ON ONE SIDE.

But a Good Deal of Solid Matter in the Other. A Printer's Extra.

The marriage of Wm. B. Shryock and Mrs. Celia V. Irwin was celebrated at the residence of the groom's father, in this city on February 1st, 1882, the Rev. Mr. Wilson officiating.

The young people thus initiated in the holy bonds of matrimony, are well known in this city. The groom, in fact, being almost one of the early residents, as the larger part of his life, so far, has been spent in Plattsmouth. Both, we are proud to say, were printers, and both have been employed in the Herald office from time to time, for this reason and our personal liking for the parties, the Herald has looked forward to this event with great interest, and now extends to the newly married pair its most sincere wishes for their future welfare and happiness.

A large company assembled to witness the ceremony, many friends from abroad being present. The Rev. S. P. Wilson united this man and woman in a very appropriate manner, and the good cheer which followed made the occasion one long to be referred to with pleasure by all those who participated in the hospitality of the occasion.

Among the many and beautiful gifts found on the table, the Herald enumerates the following:

Cut glass tea set, dozen glass goblets, dozen glass plates, glass fruit dish—Misses Louisa and Edith Shryock.

Pickle-caster—Mr. and Mrs. James Robertson, of Louisville.

Silver goblets, gold lined—Miss Manie Cooley, of Louisville.

China tea set—Mrs. and Mrs. W. Wright, of Louisville.

China fruit and flower stand—Miss Lizzie Schickel, Mr. and Mrs. W. Maury, and A. W. Wright.

Set of tea spoons—Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Young.

Silver card receiver and stand—Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Smith.

Silver-caster—Dr. J. A. Hasemeier, of Louisville.

Majolica dish, two plates and pitcher—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Newell.

Silver syrup pitcher and dish—Mr. and Mrs. K. Peterson.

Set of spoons, sugar spoon and butter knife—Mrs. and Mrs. R. O'Neill.

Silver-caster—F. Murphy and John Leesley.

China vases—Mrs. M. Cushing.

Majolica pitcher—Miss Cora Snyder.

China fruit and flower stand—Nettie Brantner.

Individual salt cellars, gold lined—Mrs. H. Newell and Mrs. Edith Newell.

Butter knife and pickle fork—Miss Amanda Porter.

Set silver knives and forks—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Patterson.

Pickle-caster—W. Valentine.

Pickle-caster—Miss Althea Sage.

Table cloth—Mrs. Sharp.

Picture, "Choosing a Wedding Gown," in ebony frame—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. MacMurphy.

Bed room set—Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Shryock.

Pair individual salt cellars, gold lined—Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Shwalter.

Silver butter dish—Messrs. Charles J. Pettie, Geo. K. Staats and Frank J. Morgan.

About 7 o'clock in the evening several couples of their young friends accompanied them to their new home on North Sixth street, where they spent the evening very pleasantly, being serenaded twice, once by four or five boys, headed by Clarence Robine and Eddie Johnson, with their harmonica, who entertained those present for a few moments; next by several "old ladies" with their old kettles, etc., and at an early hour the guests left them alone to figure out their salvation for the future.

—Joseph V. Weckbach sells the Golden Belt Flour. Give him a call.

—Quite a dispute, as you may say, has sprung up over the small-pox matter in this town. The City Council met in special session Tuesday evening, and the Mayor raked Bro. Sherman over the coals for an article in the paper signed "Danger" Sherman retaliates and says people and public men are too sensitive to criticism here, wherein he is right.

The Mayor and Council seem to have agreed to the best of their ability and means in trying to prevent the spread of the disease in this town though, and should be sustained by the people and Press. Dr. John Black was added to the Board of Health and the committee on Pest-House, and general safety, was continued.

—Money to loan on easy terms, on improved farms. E. H. WOOLEY, 461f County Clerk's Office.

—John Cutright, of the Journal, is one of the best and lushest locals for a young daily paper we ever knew. The Herald says this and means it.

—Bennett & Lewis have green apples by the bushel.

—E. B. Lewis has his telephone working at one of the places, and is getting all connections made as fast as possible, he starts in with something after every different places.

—Buy the Golden Belt Flour at J. V. Weckbach's.

—Lawyer Brown(e), formerly a Hoosier schoolmaster, is now teaching the young ideas in the Louisville "destricr."

A New Thing.

Frosted Honey Cakes at Bennett & Lewis.

—Straight & Miller will have in a large stock of goods in their line in a few days, look out for it.

Died.
At Plattsmouth, Nebraska, January 30th, 1882, of consumption, Mrs. Mary Malone.

Mrs. Malone has been a resident of this city, and Glenwood, Iowa, for many years. Just one year ago on that day her husband, Mr. Wm. Malone, preceded her to the spirit land, the same disease having taken them both.

She leaves a son and daughter Mr. James Malone of Glenwood and Miss Lizzie Malone, who is teaching in this city.

Mrs. Malone and family had long been members of the Episcopal church where the funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Burgess.

Died.
COLVIN.—At Omaha, Thursday Jan. 26th, of pneumonia, of C. W. Colvin, aged 30 years.

Miss Colvin was also a granddaughter of Mr. Edwin Davis, of this city, and a niece of Mrs. J. C. Cummings, Mrs. A. Drew, Mrs. Z. Kennedy, and Mrs. Sam Richardson. She has been in Plattsmouth for the last month, and treatment for an ovarian tumor, which finally reached such a stage that a resort to the knife was the only remedy. She was accordingly taken to the Medical Hospital at Omaha, and the tumor, weighing over forty pounds, was removed, at first with good prospects of her life being spared, but she finally sank under the operation and passed from this world the day succeeding the operation.

The remains were brought to Plattsmouth for funeral services at 10 a. m. Rev. Wilson preaching the funeral sermon which was full of beauty and consolation for those afflicted.

It is very glad to welcome the death of one so young, just reaching the threshold of womanhood, and with friends around her to make her life most pleasant.
