

THE HERALD. EXTRA.

PLATTSMOUTH, FEB. 16, 1882.

AN AUSPICIOUS OPENING OF THE RED LION.

The Reception of O. M. An- stead a Great Success.

The new and beautiful store room of Mr. O. M. Anstead, in the Drew block on Main street, was thrown open to public inspection at 6:30 o'clock Friday evening, and attracted a great throng of visitors throughout the evening. The room was brilliantly illuminated and set off the tasteful arrangement of good upon their shelves and counters to the best advantage. Early in the evening a crowd of people began to assemble in the establishment and busied themselves looking through the display, inquiring prices, until within a short time the room was literally crowded with visitors, who, one and all, expressed delight and satisfaction at the array of goods presented to view. The fact was demonstrated that Mr. Anstead understands the business of arranging his stock of goods in such order as to make the most pleasing effect, and evidently knows equally well what classes of goods to buy to suit the public taste. Those who visited the store—and there were probably five hundred—were nearly all ladies in well-to-do circumstances, and elaborate toilets. It was a most auspicious beginning for the new firm and will without doubt be the opening of a successful business career in the city.—Journal.

—Sam. Mathews is helping Thompson with his architectural plans, tracing, &c.

—As a matter of news we just want to say that J. C. Morrissey has a pair of mules that are about as good at catching rats as an ordinary cat.

—The tramp now has a nice time, warm enough to roost in a box car, and he can secure a meal by pilfering from a car repairer's dinner bucket, with no fear of detection.

—The old Raegorsheck building has moved on to the corner of Sixth and Vine Streets, and will be fixed up by Charley Holmes, who bought it of the Raegorsheck Bros., and will be for rent.

—If you want to see something nobby in the line of buggy painting you should see the buggy painted by Mr. Murphy in Schnellbacher's shop last week, it was too utterly utter.

—Boyd's Opera House, Omaha, was filled to overflowing to see C.H. Smith's Double Uncle Tom's Cabin Troupe, and a sign was put up on ticket box, "standing room only."

INFORMATION.

It is quite often asked why goods bought at the "Red Lion" are from 5 to 10c per yard less than other houses ask for the same goods. The large amount of goods sold by us enables us to sell them cheap, and we prefer to have our store crowded with customers at a small advance on goods than a high-priced empty store. Come, Everybody!
