H. S. KALEY, Co. Superintendent.

The Southern Edition. Is very fully and impartially presented in the October number of The Republic, published at Washington, D. C.

In the same issue there is a chronological list of the recent murders and outages in Alabama, Arkansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Tennessee and Texas.

It contains also an account of eighteen political State Conventions-Democratic, Republican and Independent-held in September, with a synopsis of the platform resolutions of each.

The contents of the October number on the Kansas case about twenty articles on the leading political topics of the day, together with an array of statistics of the "Union Army of the Great Rebellion," showing the totals of the army by States and Territories, and also the number of "killed," "wounded," and "missing in battle" from each State. Terms: $2 a year, or 41 per volume of six months. Back numbers and bound volumes supplied.

Follow Citizens-Listen! Thinking the citizens of Red Cloud and vicinity, for their patronage, we now offer the balance of our stock of Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes, etc. at Clear. Asking those who owe us to call and settle their accounts, as we need stamps very much indeed, in view of the erection of the Red Cloud Brewery. We intend to make said establishment a success-or bust, but founded on an enterprise in the brewery line in Germany and California, we feel confident that our product will eventually become a household necessity of the Grangers, and contribute in some way to make Red Cloud famous. Yours Truly, JOHN BREZENEN & Co.

Read and Profit. For the next thirty days I will give bargains in dry goods, ready-made clothing, boots and shoes that will be surprising to you. I propose to sell more things at nearly cost. This is no bait, as you will find by calling on me for prices. J. Q. PORTER.

ESTIMATED. Taken up three red steers, and one white bull, supposed to be 3 months old, the same can be found at the farm of C. A. LEASE, one mile and a half East of Guide Rock.

Teachers Institute. The State Superintendent will hold a Teachers Institute at Riverton, for the benefit of both Franklin and Webster counties, commencing on Tuesday Oct. 27, at 10 a. m., and continuing during the entire week. It is sincerely hoped that the teachers of the counties, and as many of the school officers as possible can be present, and that those engaged in teaching will be cheerfully granted a vacation to attend the Institute.

H. S. KALEY, Co. Supt. Pub. Inst.

The Nebraska Farmer advertises that it wants reports of marriages and deaths from all parts of the State.

Laurel & Two-day George Hummel "braved" a storm here, with stone and brick, and two stories above ground. There was a big rain, out of front, and such a storm, as a general jolly time was had.

This we believe, the first frame barn in the county, built on the regular and famous site. J. B. Moore is the architect.

The tower work on the school house in Dist. No. 9 is finished, and a fine job it is. The house is 24 3/4, the front of white line, stone, sashed by Vincent Lullay, and the whole well taken care of by Weldon & Ludlow.

The house will be finished as per contract by Nov. 25th, and a big stone will be given as the reward. The school house will be the best in Webster County.

The pictures to the number of a Thousand, more or less, have been passing through this country for a week or past. They state that they are going to Texas to join the Confederate. Sanfay's night one of them had sent, of the over and was buried with the usual funeral pomp. An old bird squaw in a very weak condition, was left in the brush, alone with a mule from George Hummel, and was found alone on Monday, by Mr. Maxwell on Monday. The next evening a party returned and removed her to where the truck was camped.

We have received a list of returning letters from High L. Wilson, who was in this office, for two or three months during the past summer, and at present holding out at Brown, Colorado.

G. W. Hill, Esq. of Webster County, presiding judge of the Court, has resigned his position, and in connection with the State Aid Society. Mr. Hill takes this step in order to promote harmony in the work, which is so necessary to the interests of our people, and for that reason alone, and this notice is given that his position may not be misunderstood by his friends.

George Hummel says that some body is stealing wood from his timber, and that the same had better be stopped.

John Barber quarrelled the stone for the school house in District No. 9, and it is still to be the best job of quarrying ever done in the county. John knows just how to handle rock.
