THE ALDINE for Januay, 1875, is duly at hand, and certainly entitled ao the credit of being the very best number yet issued of that beautiful publication. In both pictures and literary matter, this month, there is an infinite variety and corresponding excellence. Pictorially, the leading attractions are "A Daughter of Cleopatra." after Vernet Lecompt, by John S. Davis-an ad mirable work of art, and supplying one of the highest types of the duskier Oriental beauty; three magnificent views of the mountains of the Delaware Water gap, "illustrating that pieturestque region to fine advantage; an atractive full-page, also by Davis, "Fishermans Luck;" "Love's Offices" by Siegert, and "The Appointment," by Otto Erdmann, two admirable companion pictures, telling their stories with life and vigor; a very striking "Silver Full-Moonlight," weirdly attractive; a fine view of the new "Western Union Telegraph Building" New York; and an elaborately executed portrait of Miss Margaretta B. Moore, the popular elecutionist. Such an array of pictorial charm is not often given in one number, even by The Aldine. The literary contents embrace the following raer collection: An instructive and very enjoyable paper on "Christmas in London," by Henry Morford; one of the most charmingly mischievous short stories of the period by another of the new names which The Aldine is introducing to the public-evidently a Norsewoman Einna Stjierne Jarlsen (we should like to have sombody pronounce that! an excessively amusing sketch of "Student Life Abroad," by Fenno Douglas: a valuable peep at the growth of "The Mistletoe;" continuation of the popular serial, "Lost Lillian Braey; " a most touching story of primitive New England life, in "One Little Puritan," by Annette L. Noble; a plesant translation, in the "Birthplace of Mozart's Zauperflote, " by Miss E -A Livery man from Hastings lost C. Gildemeister, incisive articles on a horse here last Saturday night. It Literature, Music, the Drama, etc. In adition, there are no less than fou poems of merits. "A New Year's Wish, "by Mrs. Margaret J. Preston "Abreast with the Storm," by John Vance Cheney; and " Songs of the Months, " by Alice M Guernsey. -Mr. Beal had the misfortune to This makes, we repeat, an issue of loose one of his borses last Saturday, equal excellence and variety, rare even for The Aldine, and evidences the fact that under the new editorial management while nothing is to be lost in high artistic reputaton, the literary merit of the publication is to be kept quite abreast with it. The Aldine Company has determined to establish an Art Union similar to the well-known Art Union in England and distributes its works of art, both sculpture and paintings, which are constantly collecting, among its subscribers. Art premiums, valued at $2,500 will be distributed among its subscrib-

ADDRESS,

THE SUN. DAILY AND WEEKLY FOR 1875,

The approach of the Presidental election ives unusual importance to the events and evelopments of 1875. We shall endeavor to lescribe them fully, faithfully and fear easily THE WEEKLY SUN has new attained THE WEEKLY SUN has new attained a circulation of over seventy thousand copies. Its readers are found in every State and Territory, and its quality is well known to the public. We shallenot only endeavor to keep it fully up to the old standard, but to improve and add to its variety and power.

THE WEEKLY SUN will continue to be a thorough newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed, when unimportand, at full length when of moment, and always, we trust, treated in a clear, interesting and instructive manner.

It is our aim to make the WEEKLY SUN the best family newspaper in the world. It will be full of entertaining and appropriate reading of every sort, but will print nothing to offend the most scrupulous and delicate taste. It will always contain the most interesting stories and roumaness of the day, carefully selected and legibly printed.

The Agricultural Department is a prominent feature in the WEEKLY SUN, and its articles will always be found fresh and useful to the farmer.

The number of men independent in politics is increasing, and the WEEKLY SUN is their paper especially. It belongs to no party, and obeys no dictation, contending for principle, and for the election of the best men. It exposes the corruption that discrete of knawes, and seeks no favors from their supporters.

The numbers of every kind and the fash-

The markets of every kind and the fish The markets of every kind and the fashions are regularly reported in its columns.

The price of the WEEKLY SUN is one dollar a year for a sheet of circht pages, and fifty-six columns. As this bar-ly bears the expenses of paper and printing we are not able to make any discount or allow any premium to friends who may make special efforts to extend its circulation. Under the new law, which requires payment in advance, one dollar a year, with twenty cents the cost of propaid pestney added, is the tate of subscription. It is not necessary to get up a club in orper to have the WEEKLY SUN at this rate. Anyone who sends one dollar and twenty cents will get the paper, postpaid, for a year.
