WE have already called the attention of our readers to the State Fair. which is to be held at Omaha the coming fall. We know that Webster county is capable of producing something that would do us honor on that occasion. There is no better place in the State for the growth of grain or vegetables than the Republican Valley. Now we ask that the farmers make an effort to raise something for exhibition on that occasion. A little extra pains with something, a few potatoes, a small piece of corn, wheat or other small grain, or garden vegetables, will produce something that will do more to advertise the country than anything else you can do, to say nothing about the increased value of your own products.
