—If you want to sell your barley for Brewery purposes, be careful to have no grains cut by the threshing machine. Every grain must be as nearly perfect as you would desire it for choice seed grain; for good Barley we can always afford to pay a higher price.

—Look at Chas. R. Jones new ad. in another column. He has one of the largest stock of goods along the B. & M. R. R., and defies competition in price and quality.

—We understand that Jacob K. Adams, of Hastings, has bought out Geo. Zeiss, and rented Chas. Potter's building in which he intends to put a billiard table.

—We received a pleasant call from Mr. Smith of Bellville, Republic Co., Kan., also Mr. Cox of Jewell City, Jewell county, Kansas.

—Prof. Weightman, of Tecumseh, called Tuesday. He is Co. Supt. of Johnson county.

—We attended the social party given by the ladies of the Sewing Circle, at the residence of Rev. Maxwell on Wednesday evening. Everything passed off pleasantly, and every one present seemed to enjoy themselves. The ladies have commenced their work of charity and benevolence in the right direction, and we wish them success in their new undertaking.

—We have just read a Centennial Song, by W. N. Hale, of Smith Co., Kansas, which has the true ring in it, and should be in the home of every American citizen. We heartily endorse it and recommend it to our readers, and would feign give it an insertion were it not copyrighted. Copies in a neat form can be obtained at this office at ten cents each.

—There will be a dance at George Zeiss' on the evening of the 29th, all are invited to attend. Music by S. C. Watson's band.

—The Red Cloud Mills are now running day and night. New wheat is coming in very green. Farmers be careful to have your wheat dry before bringing it to the mill.

n49 3t POTTER & FRISBIE.

—At last we have it! We prophesied that it would be here before many months had passed away. At the commencement of this discussion the CHIEF was assured that there would be no circus in Red Cloud this year, and the spelling school fever was not destined to afford permanent enjoyment and entertainment. The CHIEF has therefore been constantly in favor of something in the nature of a "Sewing Circle.

It would be useless to expatiate upon the delights and amusements which spring from a Sewing Circle. A gathering of ladies full of that charity towards all, and malice towards none, for the purpose of making garments for the destitute. Young men and bachelors will now be generally over-hauled. Our faults will be exposed to the light of day. Twenty pairs of keen eyes will scrutinize our daily conduct; twenty ripe mouths will be discussing our views. The most insignificant of us will feel that he is no longer unnoticed; The most bashful will be trotted out to public gaze, and the most virtuous will discover his viciousness, and then those rosy lips will curve with the sweetest smile and whisper the most honeyed welcomes as we are ushered into their presence, after the destitute have been provided for. Then wont it be glorious?

—Ed. Parks showed us the best specimen of wheat we have seen this year.

—Barrel, our tonsorial artist can give you as nice a shave as you can get anywhere in the State.

—Some one last summer borrowed a post auger of Barney Swift, in this place. Will that person please return the same to this Office.

—Every thing cheap at the Milliner Shop.

—On Sam Garbers farm near Guide Rock, five acres of ground produced 250 bus. of barley. 50 bushels per acre is not a bad yield.

Uncle Sam has some of the best cigars in town, we know this because we have 'sampled 'em.'

—Untrimmed hats at the Milliner Shop for cost.

—One year ago to-day the grasshoppers lit in our midst, devoured our crops and laid waste our land. How different it is to day.

—Mr. L. F. Mansell brought us in the first roasting ears of the season. Many thanks.

—Master Charles Sterner presented us with some nice cherries.

—Rev. N. C. Robinson State Agent of the Presbyterian Mission will preach at the School House on Sunday July 25th at 11 o'clock A. M.
