Beekman, as pastor of the Christian Church of that village. For some time past the reverend gentleman's habits have been such as to cause great grief to his friends and bring reproach upon the Church. At the close of the sermou which was preached by a neighboring pastor, Elder Beekman made the following address, which we give as a warning to all men, both youngand old, to avoid the sin and shame which have come upon this mas: "As a man I have the highest concep- tion as to what the life and character of a minister of the gospel should be. I know that be should lead a consistent and an upright life, that can be looked to by the community as an example of purity and righteousness. It is exe- cuted in this wise: The dancer, dressed in a corage and very short skirt, carries a willow wheel of moderate diameter fastened horizontally upon the top of her head. Around this wheel threads are fastened, equally distant from each other, and at the end of each of these threads is a slip noose, which is kept open by a glass head. Thus equipped, the young girl comes toward the spec- tators with a basket full of eggs, which she passes around for inspection to prove that they are real, and not imitations. The music strikes up a jerky, monoto- nous strain, and the dancer begins to whirl around with great rapidity. Then, seizing an egg, she puts it in one of the	A fool's bolt is soon shot{Shaks- peare.
