—Cobb paid for eggs delivered at the Valley House. —The County Commissioners having declared the office of Co. Supt. vacant, and appointed me to fill the vacancy, I would give notice to all who wish to be examined between now and the first Monday in January, that they will find me at my office, one door south of the Court House. J. S. GILHAM, Supt. —A shooting match came off a little south of town one day last week. Uncle Jack came out ahead. —Ladies you just ought to see those pretty patterns at Uncle Sam's. They beat anything in town. —Mr. McDonald, County Clerk of Franklin county, and G. W. Sheppard, recently in the U. S. Land Office at Bloomington, were in town last week. "Mac" is a frank, genial gentleman of the highest class. The citizens of Franklin county appreciate a good officer when they have one, and elected Mac for another term. Mr. Sheppard has left the land office and hung out his shingle in Bloomington as a real estate agent. His long experience in the government land office at Lowell and Bloomington, render him eminently fitted for the business, and will undoubtedly secure him the confidence of the people, and the greater part of the contest trials which will come before the office at Bloomington. —Go to the Millinery Shop and look at those fine hats which Miss Munsell sells so cheap. —W. E. Hatch of Riverton, and Wm. Jones of Walnut Creek, called last Saturday. —The Amateur Minstrel's of this place, that welcomed to two years ago, are preparing to entertain the public at no distant day with another of their interesting exhibitions. They have added several interesting characters to their troupe, so that all who desire to have a good hearty laugh will do well to attend their entertainment. —J. C. Warner returned Tuesday afternoon from a nine days trip through southwest Nebraska and northwestern Kansas. —Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday were quite lively days in town, there were more teams in town than we have seen in any three days in some time. —We can hardly appreciate this lovely weather of late more than the accounts of the fearful snow storms and cold weather in the East. —The Ladies and Gentlemen are improving this beautiful weather by playing croquet. —Cap Ross was made happy by the appearance of a ten pound boy at his house one day last week. —We received from the publishers of the Cincinnati Weekly Times an Illustrated Hand Book, which is given free to every subscriber. The book is full of valuable matter, and is fully worth the price of the paper per year. —A number of the leading citizens of Hastings who heard the rehearsals of Fred White Lutz last week, have expressed a wish in writing that he would come again soon. This speaks well for the enterprise as it richly deserves. —New Honey Loast Seed, choice quality, gathered in the fall of 1875; for sale by B. McCormick, Brownville, Neb. 17-3a —Our readers will please notice the advertisement of the Kansas Farmer and Agriculturalist, published at Topeka, Kansas. The Farmer is an old-established and prosperous journal. It is one of our ablest and best Western Agricultural papers. B. H. THE HOLIDAYS.—The holiday season is now rapidly approaching, and we extend our kind wishes to one and all of our readers. This season as many go by will be one to be long remembered as a year of prosperity and plenty. This, in connection with the event which Christmas commemorates makes us feel kindly toward all. Let us so live that the world will be better for our having lived in it, and when another year rolls around, although we may be numbered with the dead, our memories will be cherished by those we have left behind. —N. R. Peninger county Clerk of Merick Co. was in town one day last week. —A. G. Owen of Guide Rock called yesterday. He informed us that he had recently opened a hotel in that place. Mr. Owen is well known in that vicinity as a thorough gentleman and a man well qualified for the business. —A. Garber and Asher Deal of Guide Rock called Wednesday and paid two years subscription on the Chief, these are the kind of friends we like to see come around. RAILROAD MEETING!! There will be a meeting held at the Court House in Red Cloud on Wednesday 29th for the purpose of electing delegates to attend the Railroad Convention held at Lincoln on the 6th of January 1876. Turn out everybody and attend this meeting. We understand that the people of Hastings are using all their influence with the people of our county to keep them from voting bonds. Our people can see by this who will be benefited and who will not. This of course is for their interest, for as long as we have to take our produce the market it is a good thing for them, but death to us. So let us look to our interests and vote to them.
