—Our old driver El went over with the mail on Monday, and consequently the mail arrived from the R. R. on Tuesday at 4 o'clock P. M.
—C. Potter is putting up a stock of lumber into his yard opposite the Post Office.
—The Ministers of this place went to Riverton last Monday night and gave one of their entertainments to the general satisfaction of all.
—Last Sabbath evening we listened with a great deal of interest and pleasure to a discourse from Prof. Williams delivered at the school house in this place. It was truly a mental feast, and at no time have we listened to a sounder or better delivered discourse than this.
—Ed. Chief—Allow me through your paper, to question the P. M. at Hastings about that financial statement of his in the last Journal, in which he says he has paid $2 money orders, at the enormous expense of $18000. Bro. P. M., how is it that orders are so costly up there. Postmasters generally would only be allowed to pay $100. at the most, for that number of orders. If scarcity of the article has anything to do with it, orders must be very scarce in your vicinity.
—Nelson Phelps, Justice of the Peace of Walnut Creek Precinct, called yesterday.
—Marriages we learn are quite numerous in these parts, but we can't find out who, and when it happened! Are you ashamed to tell, or is it because you didn't have any cake? Some body, we learn, is going to do likewise one of these days, and we hope they'll remember us next time.
Wagoner
vs Stanson
Replevin.
This case came off on Tuesday before Judge Tulley, and originated in the defendants impounding the plaintiffs stock. It was supposed by many that this would bring in question the amendment to the herd law but defendant plea set up the breaking of a lawful fence by plaintiffs stock. Judgment for plaintiff $10, damage and costs.
—While in Riverton the other day we stopped at the Centennial Hotel kept by D. C. Hodbridge. This house is large and commodious and travellers will be well taken care of.
—Our M-rebans both Garber and Baum are erecting more corn cribs. This looks like business.
—Last Sunday we had a little snow but Monday it cleared off and the weather is as warm and delightful as ever.
—A week ago last Monday, together with other delegates from this county, we attended the railroad meeting at Lincoln. The weather was delightful and our ride to the railroad was one of pleasure. We paid our friend, Bro. Babcock of the Adams Co. Gazette, a very pleasant visit Monday night, and left him next morning with many kind wishes on his part for our success in the enterprise, which we were going to aid, if possible to a voice. Stepping aboard the car then bound for the Capitol. Our appetites reminded us that we were in a condition to appreciate a good square meal, and as a natural consequence we stopped at the Metropolitan where our wants were amply supplied with all that heart could wish. While strolling about the streets in the afternoon we observed the new Opera House which is in the process of construction, the brick work of which has since been completed and the work inside is being rapidly pushed forward. A great many other things of interest was to be seen which we have not time or space to mention. There is only one other thing we wish to speak of and that is the hospitality extended to us by our friend, Mr. J. D. Lattridge, Land Commissioner of the M. P. R. R. lands. Mr. Lattridge and wife are as pleasant people as we ever had the pleasure of meeting, and their home is a perfect little paradise, surrounded as they are by their three interesting children, happiness reigns supreme. We never enjoyed a visit with friends more than we did on this occasion.
