There was a lawsuit in town Tuesday, between D. S. Helvern and M. C. Sherman. You ought to see and try that new brand of cigars at Charles Potter's. Every body and every thing goes in for the narrow gauge system. Several of the young men of Red Cloud having organized themselves into a Musical troupe, exhibited at Riverton the night we were there. J. A. Talley returned from Sutton last Friday where he had been to attend the Masonic school of instruction. J. R. McDonald County Clerk of Franklin Co. stopped in town last Friday night. Mr. Riley from the northeast corner of the county called Monday and gladdened our hearts with a five dollar bid on subscription. We understand Riverton is to have a new paper, this will supply a want long felt by the people of that place. The supplement to the Omaha Bee adorns our sanctum, the Proprietors of that paper are worthy of a great deal of praise for the energy and enterprise they have shown in getting it up. W. N. Richardson started last Friday for Chicago with two loads of cattle and one load of hogs. The citizens of Smith Center intend to give a Dance and Supper to the people of that county tomorrow night. We learn that Mr. Nages of Little Blaine intends soon to rent the LaCade House, and that Mr. Bill will move on to his farm. The good people of Oak Creek are having a glorious harvest after their labors, we learn that about forty souls have been gathered into the fold of God. Prof. J. S. Shaffer of Holland and Madden's Circus will give an entertainment at Masonic Hall, Red Cloud, on Monday evening. Messrs. Bredford and Kearns traveling men from St. Joseph, were in town Monday and Tuesday. There came very near being a runaway in town, Tuesday. Mr. Warren left his team standing on the street without being hitched, when they became frightened, but fortunately were stopped before any damage was done. The best assortment of Harness, Saddles and everything in the harness line is kept at McBride's next door to Sherris Drug Store. Drs. Sherer and Head were employed to amputate a limb, for a man down east of Jewell Center, last week. The man has been suffering from the effects of an injury received some 20 years ago, which has finally resulted in his limb having to be amputated. Carl Weber of this place is now prepared to furnish all with photographs, who may be pleased to call at his rooms one door west of LaCade House. Another lawsuit on Wednesday between Messrs. Bill and Webb. Money lost on both sides, no doubt. We took a trip up to Riverton last Saturday and found that thriving little town as lively as ever. Messrs. Fuller and Wyatt still hold their at their old stand and offer to the public a well selected stock of Dry Goods and Groceries. Mr. McBride the Post Master has his store well filled with everything that the Farmer, Mechanic, and all other classes may have occasion to call for, and sells as low for cash as any other firm in the valley. At the Centennial Hotel we found Mr. and Mrs. Hollidge prepared to put carriages before us that a hungry man could not fail to appreciate. Dr. Razez has a Drug Store well filled with drugs and medicines, we understand that he and Dr. Weston intend to consolidate their business soon. Mr. Henley keeps the Hardware Store and Tin shop at this place, and will always be found ready to attend to his customers. Saturday we had the pleasure of seeing the night with Mr. Bentley's people of Farmers Creek. They have the largest stock farm in the Republican Valley and are setting things lined up in the best of shape. They propose before next fall to have facilities for using the milk from about 75 cows either in butter or cheese making they certainly have the best place so far as fresh cool water from springs is concerned we ever saw, and with their energy and enterprise they will undoubtedly make it a grand success. We made our old friends Mr. and Mrs. Ayres a short visit but unfortunately were unable to stay very long we regretted this as nothing could give us more pleasure.
