THE ENEMY OF DISEASE!

THE Foe of PAIN
TO MAN AND BEAST
Is the Grand Old
MUSTANG LINIMENT,

Which has stood the test of forty years. There is no sore it will not heal, no insect it will not cure, no snake or bite, that affects the human body, or the body of a horse or other Domestic Animal, that does not yield to its Magic Touch. A bottle containing one pint or 32 oz. Has often saved the life of a human being and restored to life and usefulness many a valuable Horse.

—Down in Hebron, according to the Sentinel, barley is being sold at 28 cts. per bushel. At this rate barley raisers will make some money this year.

—Baldwin of Inavale harvested a field of barley which Mr. Ayer's is willing to bet will go forty bushels to the acre. Mr. Baldwin's melon patch is already beginning to attract the attention of the small boys of that vicinity.

—Har.
—Musquitos.
—No Grasshoppers.
—Plenty of rain.
—Corn tassel'd out.
—Two runways this week.
—Farmers are all busy harvesting.
—H. S. Kaley is expected in a day or two.
—The Germans of Potsdam have erected a church in that precinct.
—Remember the meeting Saturday evening for the organization of a Haymaker's Club.
—Mr. Cate isn't stiffened by the straight jacket formalism that is too often worn by members of his profession, but enjoys throwing a ball as well as any one.
—Mr. Maxwell called our attention to a young cottonwood that has grown over five feet this season.
—Ed. Kellogg informs us that a minister from abroad will preach next Sabbath. Ed. couldn't remember his name.
—Go and see the new Photograph, Artist at Carl Weller's. He is doing some fine work in that line.
—The new law office of J. R. Wilcox was dedicated to the "gladsome lights of jurisprudence" by a pleasant dance Wednesday night. Everybody a dancer at once, of course. But there was room for those who shook their feet to enjoy themselves.
—I. Corder harvested 110 bushels of wheat from seven acres. The wheat was sown last September. Winter wheat has not been cultivated to any great extent in this county. But this instance will suffice to demonstrate that fall sowing may be attended with success.
—We will have to admit that H. B. Holmes has one of the gayest and most comfortable mail wagons in the State. He has just put on a new top, which makes it agreeable to the traveler these "sun-shiny days."
—Bring in your "big vegetables" to H. S. Kaley, and let him send 'em to the Centennial. Wonder how that big corn will appear to a "down-easter?"
—He Hammel, the genial inn-keeper and postmaster of Emin was in town Monday. He had just returned from a trip into Missouri and Kansas.
—Rev. Maxwell is getting the inside of his house finished. The upper story had not been divided into rooms or plastered. When the plasterers have done their work Mr. Maxwell will have one of the most roomy and commodious dwellings in town.
—Mitchell & Morhart have already by far the most extensive hardware establishment in the valley. But they go on improving and extending all the same. They have purchased the counters and shelving that Berenzen had in his store building, and propose to build an addition twenty feet deep to their store.
—Why will any one spend two or three hundred dollars in going to the Centennial to see a New England kitchen when they can go to the Ly Clede House and get a first class N. E. dinner for less than half the money. Keep your money in the country or better yet, let us keep it for you.
—Mr. Troxell, who had been working Mr. Morris' farm just north of town, was buried last Saturday. He had been ailing for some time with the heart disease, but was apparently convalescing when he suffered a relapse and yielded to the disease.
—Mrs. F. Joyce, over the river, is said to be at the point of death. Dr. Head attributes her sickness to an injury of the spine, and rumor says that this injury is due to the violence of her husband, who threw her out of doors, causing her to fall across the door sill. Foydy, himself, fearing the indignation of his neighbors left the country.
—We had the pleasure of a very pleasant ride up to Bloomington this week and found that town quite lively. Bro. Hill was hard at work on the Guard and is making a success of that enterprising paper. Mr. Eaton, Register of the Land Office made us very much at home in his office for a short time. Messrs Walker, Dörsey and Moulton were busily engaged in a contest suit and had our friend R. Babcock of Juniata, on the witness stand. We saw some of Mr. Walker's blooded hogs. He has some of the finest Berkshire we ever saw.
—On our way home we stopped over night in Riverton, at the Centennial Hotel kept by D. C. Holdridge, who does his best to entertain his guests. The merchants of Riverton say business is quite lively and expect it to be still more so after harvest. The only drawback we noticed was the condition of the roads just west of Riverton. The hills are almost too steep for goats to feed on, and the roads are worked very little. Mr. Gooding is putting up a very nice dwelling house on the west side of the creek.
—Rev. J. N. Webb, Baptist State Missionary will preach at the School House next Sabbath evening.
—Down in Hebron, according to the Sentinel, barley is being sold at 28 cts. per bushel. At this rate barley raisers will make some money this year.
—Baldwin of Inavale harvested a field of barley which Mr. Ayer's is willing to bet will go forty bushels to the acre. Mr. Baldwin's melon patch is already beginning to attract the attention of the small boys of that vicinity.
