UNCERTAINTY STILL

The doubtful states are doubtful s ad. I ouisiana is becoming more e r tain all the time. South Carolina is certain as far at the Board of Canvassers is concerned. Florida is so close as to make victors either way a matter of less than 20 votes.

cinet, where four witnesses had been to elect their man. shot because of their politics, Eliza Pinkston told of her husband killed before her eyes, her babe's throat cut in her arms, her own body ourraged by two white democrats. When she had fini hed, Gen. Palmer sprang from his chair and said that the wretches ought to be hang, that he would spe d $10,000 to bring them to justice, that Sheridan ought to come back and ho d with an iron grip a people who could tolerate such infamy. Louisiana democrats are badly demoralized.

In Ferrala, the total majorities appearing from the face of the returns are, Rep. 7,460, Dem. 7,418; net democratic judge in the State. It is Republican majority, 42; Dade county is yet to be heard from. It is supposed that this county will not give a ma jority of 20 either way.

In South Carolina the Canvassing board as state I last week have issued certificates to the Hayes electors, and its merabers have been committed to jail by the Supreme Court. There are two organized legislatures in that State. One consisting of 59 republi cans, 54 of whom are colored, the other consists of 64 democrats. United States troops are in Columbia acting for the preservation of order under the direction of Gov. Chamberlain.

THE democratic grand sachems who went to Louisiana to witness the canvass of the vote in that State have is sued an address stating that the Tilden electors received about 6,000 majority over the Hayes electors.

EUROPE is peaceful yet. Russia, however has been getting her ships out of the way, as it is supposed. The Russian navy is too weak to fight. So the Czar will be obliged to remove it 49 a place of safety in case of war.

Bull dozing seems not to be confined to the democrats. The home of Wade Hampton the democratic candidate for robbery of the Treasurer's safe in that Governor of South Carolina was burned by incendiaries a few days ago. The Home Missionary field ought to be changed to that State.

An ingenious method of controlling the ballots of negroes was practiced in Florida. The employers gave the negroes marked tickets and informed them if those tickets were not discovered in the box they would be discharged from their employment.

In the midst of the voluminous telegrams about Louisiana, S. Carolina, and Flori la, there is one short tele gram that glitters like a gem among rubbish. It is authentically reported that Col. MacKenzie captured a village of the Cheyenne Indians near the Big Horn Mountains. The village consisted of 173 lodges. 500 ponies were taken. The bodies of twentyfive warriors were discovered. If this election matter were over, we might have the pleasure of inditing the obitpary of this whole tribe. We are not blood-thirsty, but we hate Indians. We have charity but not for the devil. If Hayes and Wheeler are not elected, our next choice is this same Mac-Kenzie.

> HURRAH for Nebraska. Things are not so unanimous here after all We are not so thoroughly Republican as to be left out of the fight. True we vote that way, and vote pretty unanimously. But we have some democrats in this State. What they lack in numbers, they make up in shrewdness, in strategy, in boldness. Gen. Cobb, Gen. Strickland, and Gen. Connor, the presidential electors have been enjoined by Judge Savage, from meeting in Lincoln or elsewhere, and casting N braska's vote for Hayes and Wheeler. Judge Savage is the only diction he has over the matter. The grounds of the injunction, we believe is that the votes for electors were cauvassed by the State Board of Canvassers, instead of the legislature. Gov. Garber to satisfy the Democrats called a special session of the legislature to meet Tuesday and canvass the votes

We have had considerable excite- home. to the settlement. Mr. Smith or biz. Thorne, as he was known to us, left for a visit to Lincoln last Tuesday truly, On his way back he stopped in Hastings, where the deputy sheriff and his posse were waiting to arrest him. It seems that Smith was formerly a resi dent of Marion county, Iowa. While there he engaged with another in the county, which was the occasion of his removal to this country. Suspicion had never looked upon him as implicated in the affair, and he felt comparatively sesure. But his accomplice was arrested in St. Louis and divulged the whole affair. The election failed to raise much of an excitement, for a majority felt confident that the right would prevail. Our farmers are very busy now husking corn. We hear some complaint that the corn is much bet-
