TO THE FARMERS

Mr. Wells, P. M. at Wells, P. O.

Appreciation seems to indicate that has been elected President

We are pleased to make the announcement

The Messrs. of Red Cloud and vicinity will give a Grand Masonic Festival and Banquet on Christmas evening

December 25th. Program next week

Notice the advertisement of the Red

Cloud Reporter in another column

The boys are making bonanzas. They are preparing to put up a good supply of this winter.

Mr. Gillham, the Superintendent has removed his office, and now holds forth at Mr. Wilcox's office. We regret this notice because the query where Gilliam has become prominent

J. Q. Potter authorizes us to state that there will be a meeting at the school house next Saturday evening for the purpose of organizing a singing school. All who are favorably inclined are invited to be present.

Mr. Gilroy has been unfortunate this fall. He has had a good deal of sickness, and we understand had an operation of some kind, but he is now getting on his feet again. He has our best wishes.

The Kansas Times want the good people up there to establish a connection with the Red Cloud. They are quite anxious to do so.

T. T. Webb the enterprising proprietor of the Red Cloud and Hastings stage line, has assumed the ownership of the route, and will carry passengers at the usual rates.

We understand that there was a complete change of management at J. W. Tuller's office. As there was no means in circulation, we do not know whether they were or not.

Mr. Phillips, the prominent man of the south side of the river, gave us a call Monday. He proposes to devote his attention exclusively to the culture of tomatoes next year.

LOOT.

About two weeks ago, I for coffee between Red Cloud and Elm Creek.

The coffee will be liberally rewarded by leaving the same at this office or at J. W. Tuller's office.

CALL FOR YOUR PREMIUMS.

I am ready to fill all premiums awarded at the Webster County Fair for 1876. All claims not presented by the first of January, 77, will be considered red-wooded to the Society.

M. B. M. NUTT, Treas.

Red the Crime and patronize the found advertisement, we will guarantee that you can do better trading with them than you can with any other.

The boys propose to have a grand tournament about Christmas time. They will have a "go in" and the side that gets the best will bear the expense of a dinner. The hunt will last a week.

This week we have a good deal to say to our subscribers about the necessity of strengthening up their accounts with this office. We will say no more on this subject until the first week in January.

WE WERE absent at the time the official vote of the county had ought to have been published, and since then our time has been so taken up with other matters that it has been neglected. We may publish it next week.

TAKE NOTICE.

That after the first of January 1877, we intend to run this establishment on a strictly cash basis. And at that time all who have not paid up, or notified us of their intention to do so, their papers will be stopped and the amount

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

Splendid weather this week.
