TOWN AND COUNTRY

Subscribers who do not receive their papers regularly, will confer a favor by notifying us of the fact at once.

Subscribers who find a red cross in their paper, will confer a favor by returning it to the office.

Following and they are requested to receive at once. Those who find a line across their papers will know that they are in arrears, and a little money would be acceptable to us.

Fine weather yesterday.

Two kinds of entertainment last Monday night.

Joe Carr called yesterday and gave us a fine "Legal Tender," Yours, etc.

The "Boss" and H. S. Kaley went to Riverton yesterday.

They had a good time at the spelling school last Monday night.

Quite a number of Riverton folks were in town last Saturday.

Joe Warner shot twelve Jack Rabbits the other day.

Try Chas. Potter's Japan Tea. $1 per pound.

Rafus is sick, with a "gin bike" on his neck.

Don't forget to bring us some onions on subscription.

Mr. Bunnell of Stillwater, gave us a call yesterday.

A communication from Farmers Creek crowded out this week.

Cigars, Tobacco and School Books, at Chas. Potter's.

Woolbach Bros., can sell you good cheap. When you visit Hastings, give them a trial.

Hampton & Reiston have moved their tools and "things" down into their new blacksmith shop.

Will Wiggins, our former devil, has returned to his "old love," the printing office.

W. N. Richardson started for Chicago, last Monday, with two car loads of cattle and two of hogs.

Hon. J. S. Gilman arrived home from the Capitol last Saturday, and returned Wednesday.

We heard of a wedding on the south side of the river, but we can't find out who it was or when it occurred.

Work is progressing rather slowly, on the railroad survey, over on Elm Creek.

We understand there was a lodge of Odd Fellows organized at the Masonic Hall last Saturday night.

Geo. Zeiss is prepared at all times to feed the hungry and "sleep the sleepy." Call on him when you have occasion to stop in Red Cloud. 26-27

We had the pleasure of meeting Hon. J. E. Smith of Guide Rock on the street Wednesday. He was en route for the Capital.

Good sleighing in Iowa, and as far west as Lincoln, Neb. This is hardly fair, as we haven't heard a bell jingle this winter. We would like to have some fun, too.

Geo. Zeiss has just received a hotel register, which has printed at the head of every page "The Boy's Home," and the many names ascribed therein tells plainly that George is doing a thriving business.

Hurrah for Sleeper, who still lives, and his avil chorus can be heard at Wiggins's old shop. He will show your horses and sharpen your lays, while "Dick" will fix the wagons as long as it pays.

Thawing to day.

P. A. Williams, of Riverton is the happy father of a nine pound boy.

There will be two dances in town on the 22d of February.

The young folks had a jolly time at the surprise party at Weber's last night.

What was the price of those papers on the line of the B. & M. Who sold out what little influence they had, to the Hitchcock faction.

Next week that double column ad. of Kennedy & Co., will come out and of course our pencil and scissors will be obliged to make up the deficiency.

Send in your communications, and tell us "what you know about farming." Our "rooral quill-drivers" "let up on us," this week.

A "sacred few" have caught that disease of "spinning" street yarns," and causing ill-feelings among their neighbors. Black eyes, and ruffled noses, is good medicine, if taken in time.

The Postoffice Department has made a proposition to Mr. Ball the contractor of the mail route between Hastings and Red Cloud, in regard to daily service on this line. It is to be hoped that we will soon enjoy the advantages of a daily mail.

Work has been suspended on the Elm Creek mill for some time, but will be resumed as soon as lumber can be brought from the railroad. They expect to be ready for business early the coming summer.

So far as we have been able to learn there was no stock of any consequence lost during the recent storm in this county, and we have not heard of any one being severely frozen. The people it appears, were pretty well prepared for such an emergency.

Last week we had the pleasure of listening to a lecture on the science of Phrenology, by Prof. W. P. Patton, of Exeter. Though Mr. Patton lacks the easy flow of language and the graceful delivery of the experienced orator, he fully atones for this deficiency by the energy and earnestness with which he applies himself to the work before him. We believe the P. of will succeed in the calling he has chosen.

It is calculated that when a farmer draws a load of grain from this county to Hastings, he thinks that it would be well enough to have a railroad through the county even if it would be necessary to vote bonds to obtain it. By the time he returns from his second trip he is "almost persuaded," and by the time he has successfully accomplished his third trip he is anxious to vote for bonds for the sake of having a road near enough him, so that he need not travel eighty miles through the cold and spend as much money as half his load would bring, paying expenses on the road to and from market.

COOK—ALLEN—At the Juniata House, Juniata, Neb., Jan. 17th, 1877, MR. ALVIN M. COOKS to MISS FLORENCE C. ALLEN, by Samuel J. Shirley, Esq.

The absence of Mr. Tulley's County Judge is productive of considerable annoyance to the young folks who are desirous of entering the blissful state of matrimony. Mr. Cooke and his affianced were obliged to go to Juniata, last week in order to consummate the greatest desire of their hearts, viz: To be joined together in the holy bonds of matrimony. They came back, to all appearance, happy and well pleased with themselves "and all the world besides." The CHIEF acknowledges the receipt of a goodly supply of the wedding cake for which we return the thanks of the entire craft from Editor to Devil, who join in wishing the happy couple all the felicity that is generally supposed to attend the blessed, and may their pathway through life be strewn with flowers.
