Strange as it may seem, the number of the paper on the "patent side," is right again.
A heavy wind, rain and hail storm whopped it up lively for this town last Sunday evening.
Uncle Billy Vest as he was fondly called by the boys in town, started for the Black Hills last week.
The country is beginning to look lovely, the prairies are beginning to look green and the trees are leafing out.
What beautiful Hats! and how cheap! is what the ladies say after calling at Mrs. Lutz' Millinery Establishment.
Look out for counterfeit $500 bills, they are said to be in circulation. We carefully scrutinize all large bills that come into our possession.
An outfit of five teams from the southeast part of Kansas were in town last Monday. They were going beyond the Black Hills, to the Big Horn, in search of gold.

The Smith county (Kan.) Pioneer is now double its former size, and sports a "patent inside."
The past few days it has been drizzling, raining, chilling, and part of the time hailing. We should judge it is rather tough on the young 'hops.
