

THE RED CLOUD CHIEF

LOCAL MATTERS.

Notices in this Column 10 Cents a Line

Cool.

And pleasant.

Got any potato bugs?

How is your garden looking.

H. S. Kaley has gone to Lincoln.

Town full of "bummers" last Saturday.

We have for sale a 50 lb. keg of news ink. Cheap.

Uncle Moore drives a fine span of mules now-a-days.

There never was a better prospect for crops than at the present time.

A street lamp illuminates the front of the Red Cloud Hotel, of nights.

We are just out of wood, only a few knots left, that the "devil" can't split.

Chas. Potter is having his building painted, which will help the looks of it materially.

Severe rain and hail storm last week. We have heard of no damage, however.

Two carloads of hogs passed through town last Monday, on their way to the railroad.

Mr. C. C. Coon presented the CHIEF with some stalks of very nice pie-plant. Thanks.

Richardson's new building on Main Street, will soon be completed. It presents a good appearance.

The premium list takes up considerable room this week, and we cannot give the usual amount of reading matter.

Levi Moore has sold his farm lying one mile north of town, to S. Garber, we are informed. Price sixteen hundred.

"Uncle Sam" does a thriving business. He keeps in stock everything the farmers need, and sells cheap for cash. Go and see.

Immigration to and emigration from the Black Hills are now said to be about equal. Those going have more money than those coming.

We are sorry that the weather continues so cold, as it interferes materially with the wonted enjoyment of the musical and industrious musquitos.

On last Friday night the mercury got down very low. Jack frost put in an appearance, and it is said that ice was formed though it must have been very thin.

Miss Fogel's piano occupies a corner in Mrs. Bentley's millinery establishment, and sweet music is the order of the day, bringing up memories of other days.

Parties passed through town last week in pursuit of a horse thief who had stolen a horse from Mr. Wilkins, residing near Fairfield. They returned last Monday, unsuccessful.

Mr. Levi Moore wintered 300 head of sheep last winter and only lost four. Mr. Sleeper was not so fortunate, as he lost 12 from his flock. They were poisoned by eating wild parsnip.

A drunk man on the streets last Monday made a disgraceful exhibition of himself. One of the worst needs of this town is a "cooler," wherein such degraded specimens of humanity could repose and sober off at leisure.

J. S. Beal, living up in Batin precinct, met with quite a serious accident last week, while on his way home from the railroad, by being precipitated from the wagon, resulting in the breaking of his right arm and dislocating the wrist.

We would call attention to the new ad. of Mrs. M. R. Bentley's new Millinery establishment. Call and see the great variety of new goods that they carry. Ladies' Linen Dress Goods, and everything needed by the ladies, and all sold at reasonable figures.

Pruitt, the man who was found guilty of the murder of Whitaker, in Thayer county, some three years ago, has at last been declared innocent by a jury. Although discharged, he is generally believed to be guilty. The cost of the trial was $10,000.

Mr. Kelley, who is making brick for Ed Smith, brought to this office a sample of Red Cloud brick, that are, to all appearances, as good as any brick. Mr. Kelley thinks that he has demonstrated the fact that the clay in this valley, which heretofore has been considered useless, as brick clay, is as good as there is any need of, and will Maple Sugar only 20 cents per lb., at Mrs. Lutz.

How lovely the prairies, and the belts of timber along the streams look, now since nature has donned her coat of green.

Now is the best time in the year for you to secure a life membership ticket in the Agricultural Society. Do not neglect it.

Three 12 inch Reed Breaking Plows for sale very cheap for cash, or time given if wanted. Inquire at the post office. 44-1f

Mrs. Lutz keeps the largest stock of Millinery, sells the most goods, and sells them cheaper than you can buy elsewhere in Webster county. 44

Red Cloud, Webster county, is rapidly growing this spring. A large number of new stores and residences are being erected.—Omaha Bee. "Kereot."

This week we publish a portion of the premium list of the Webster County Agricultural Society. Next week we will publish the balance, after which we will strike off a sufficient number to place a copy in the hands of every man in the county, and we believe there will be such an interest shown as there never has been before in this matter. Let us make a success of it this fall.

To Advertisers. Hereafter bills for advertising will be presented promptly at the end of each quarter, the first of July, October, January and April. No one will be sighted. Bills will be presented to all who are indebted without regard to age, sex, race, color or previous condition of servitude.

Remember that all locals and advertisements inserted for an indefinite time, will be regularly charged up until ordered discontinued. Said order to be given personally or in writing to the editor of the paper.

We would mention the fact that no one except ourself, owns a y share or interest in the CHIEF. Neither is it the subsidized organ of any clique or ring, but owned and run, solely by the one whose name appears at the masthead. It is devoted to the interests of the Republican Valley in general, and Webster county in particular. And its ambition is for the advancement of the moral, spiritual and temporal welfare of its patrons, and the improvement of the financial condition of the proprietor, especially the latter. We invite all who are interested in the affairs of the county, and wish to keep posted, to come forward and subscribe.

We learn of a stabbing affray that occurred over in the vicinity of Elm Creek, near Mr. Crouches, last week. It appears that Wm. Arnold, and Oliver Dice and his father, of Stillwater, came over on Elm Creek to a claim belonging to one of the parties, and while there an altercation ensued between Wm. Arnold and young Dice, in regard to the ability of a dog to "pick up" a jack rabbit. The debate waxed warm, and finally came blows, and then our informant says that Mr. Arnold drew a jack-knife from his pocket and stabbed young Dice, inflicting an ugly wound in the left breast, though not dangerous. Mrs. Crouch dressed the wound, and the young man, though weak from the loss of blood was able to ride home. Mr. Arnold and Mr. Dice were brothers-in-law.

Harness Shop. The undersigned having purchased the McBride Harness Shop, those wishing anything in the line of Harness, Collars, Saddles and Whips will do well to call on me. All work warranted and the best of stock constantly kept on hand. J. L. MILLER.

THOMAS HILL, Neb., June 4, '77. ED. CHIEF:—Crops looking well, and consequently everybody feeling well. Wm. Longbotham of this place is doing well in the breaking line. He has four teams running. We understand that Dr. Dalton, of your city is about to help this precinct a little by starting a store here. I believe he has offers from different ones here of land providing he will give a half interest in his business or sell on credit. As the Dr. is well known throughout the whole county, it is needless to speak of his business tact. We have to boast over your misfortune but you will have this consolation, he does not leave the county, and what is your loss is our gain.

Plenty of rain and ground squirrels. Some claim jumping going on. Dugouts worth 60 cts. on the dollar. Our P. M. deposited $17 00 in his well last Saturday, besides some valuable papers, but after while began to think it unsafe to risk so much where LADIES. You will find the best stock of Gaiters, for the least money, in the Valley at J. G. Potter's.

Dress-making & Stamping. Mrs. Bauer wishes to inform the public that she is prepared to make dresses on the shortest notice, and do all kinds of stamping. Please give me a call at Carl Weber's, Red Cloud. 43-3m Mrs. Bauer.

Ladies Take Notice! Go and see the nice stock of Dress Goods at J. G. Potter's.

New Goods, Cheap! I have just received a full stock of Dry Goods, suitable for the summer trade, consisting in part of Buffs, Plaids, Percales, Lawns, Ginghams, &c., all of which I will sell at very low prices. When you are wanting anything in my line of Dress Goods you will find it to your advantage to give me a call, as I will not be undersold. JOHN G. POTTER

THE BOYS HOME, Geo. Zeiss, proprietor, is the most popular hotel in town, and is doing a thriving business under a liberal management. Commercial men and the traveling public generally have found it to their interests to put up at this place, where they are always sure of finding good fare, clean beds and respectful treatment. "The latch-string always hangs out." 43-1f

The Chicago Store still leads in style quality, bottom prices, square dealing, and by doing just what it advertises. They have the largest stock of Clothing, Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes, in Hastings, and are selling cheap, cheap, cheap. D. Weinberg, Prop. 36
