The trial of "Uncle Billy" Vest, for the alleged attempted murder of the Rev. Maxwell, came off last week. The jury returned a verdict of assault and battery, and he was fined $100 and costs. By the request of Mr. Maxwell, the prosecuting witness, he escaped a sentence of three months in jail. We learn that there is some dissatisfaction among the citizens, over the result of the trial, and it seems to be the general opinion that the accused should have been "sent up" for a term of years, as it is believed that certain citizens of Red Cloud are in constant danger of losing their lives if Mr. Vest is allowed to run at large. For our part we cannot think that the old man would actually and deliberately commit murder, he is undoubtedly of a very excitable temperament, and might upon any slight provocation rashly commit the deed.

We have seen the time, in Webster county, when there was no law, and no protection for life and property except that vested in the revolver which every man carried at his side, but we had supposed that time had long since passed we regret that circumstances are such, at this advanced day and age, as to render it necessary for any of our citizens to carry arms for self-protection. We had thought that we were governed by laws which could and would be enforced, when necessary for the protection of our citizens, and thus making the carrying of weapons wholly unnecessary. We find no fault with the jury on this case, as they doubtless did their duty to the best of their ability, and we hope "Uncle Billy" will conduct himself in the future, as he has in the past, prior to the unfortunate occurrence spoken of, in a manner worthy a good and upright citizen.

The commissioners of Harlan Co. have raised the fee for license to sell liquors to $500. The Standard speaking of the matter says the following, which meets our views exactly.

The argument is old, but nevertheless true, that if it is wrong to sell whiskey, a community, or a neighborhood has no right to license the wrong and make it legal. If not wrong, no more right exists to take $50 from a saloon keeper for a license than from a dry goods merchant. We think it wrong to give legal and social sanction, which amounts to moral support, to the liquor traffic in the form of a license which pledges the whole community to the policy and enforcement of the rights of the seller under his license.

Last Saturday Mr. Light and family were coming to town in a farm wagon, when another farmer drove up beside them, which scared Mr. Light's team, causing them to run away. Mr. Light's son, a little boy aged about seven years, was thrown from the wagon and seriously injured. He was brought to town and taken to Louis Steiger's restaurant, where, in about three hours, he died. The parents have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad loss.

Fairmont Bulletin

M. K. Lewis returned from a trip to Iowa last week, where he has purchased machinery for his foundry and machine shop. The lumber has arrived and he will commence the erection of his buildings at once. His purchases have been of first class material, and we glad the day is not far distant when we shall have in our young city a manufactory of the importance of that which Lewis & Co. are establishing.
