the county officers under the head of precinct election returns, and the error passed unnoticed last week.
Bring in all your items by Wednesday morning, as we intend going to press on Wednesday evening hereafter in order to accommodate our subscribers on the Harvard Line.
By request we publish on the first page a communication from 'Gad' to the Inter-Ocean. Read it, hand the paper to your friends, and call at this office for more papers.
On Tuesday, a son of J. D. Post, falling from a tree across one of his legs, it was broken about midway between the knee and hip. Doctor Lead is in attendance, and the boy is doing as well as might be expected.
We regret to learn that Ed.
Howe was very seriously injured last Saturday at Hastings in consequence of getting jammed between a fanning mill and a car, which he was loading.
He was rolled between them several times before, he was set free by falling from the platform. Fears are entertained of his recovery.

We are pleased to note that three of the pupils, viz: Celia Garber, Gurtie Sherer, and P. D. Yeiser, who have been attending the Select School this term, obtained a grade varying from good to excellent, at the recent examination held by the County Superintendent. Their standing merits a third grade certificate, but as they do not at present think of teaching they did not receive a certificate in full.
LOST.
An Autograph Album containing pictures of beautiful young ladies, and receipts for making taffy. The owner is very desirous of recovering the same inasmuch as it contains so much of a preciousness. This album was lost at the party over at Mr. Holsworth's.
Any one having found such a book will please leave it at this office.

PERSONAL.

Jas. Pryce, son of Rev. Pryce, was a visitor last week.
Mr. Waller of Elm Creek made us a pleasant call yesterday.
On 15th, last day of school, many of the Normal School pupils paid the CHIEF a friendly visit.
On 17th, Messrs Cawley, P. M. of Carlenton, Pearson of Negunda, Borin, of Thomasville, Dr. Sutton, of Red Cloud, and J. D. Leach, all made pleasant calls, and some X (legal) tendered sympathy and encouragement to the new proprietors. Thanks gentle men will always X with greenbacks.
W. N. Tuttle, Publisher of Rock Falls Progress, Fred Babcock, Agent C & Q R R, F. W. Wheeler of Wheeler & Brown, Lumber Dealers, W. H Yeanshaw, Agent C & I R R, and George Hutton, all from Rock Falls, —but Mr. Y, from Waterman—Illinois, called on the CHIEF the other day. They came from Suckerdom to the land where the Bug Eaters dwell, to observe the habits of the "natives", and invest in land. Being lively boys and finding Webster County up and alive, all concluded to buy and bought land within bearing of Red Cloud. Mr Tuttle has an eye to business in selling lots from his productive farm, for he has bought just two miles north of town. Well this is a Progressive age and we hope Red Cloud and vicinity will secure a few more such "windfalls" from Rock Falls.

AROUND TOWN.

What a School-boy Saw about Town a Few Weeks Ago.

I am going to write about the new buildings that have been built this year Mr. Richardson has built a new bank. It looks very nice outside and in.
Mr. Bently has built a new house, in which his wife has a very nice millinery shop.
Mr. Garber is putting up a nice barn east of his house.
Mr. Springer built a new house, and he has not got it all shingled yet; but I guess he will when he gets time.
Mr. Tulley has built a new barn.
Mr. Morhart talks of building a new house this fall; he has got his cellar dug, and some of the stone drawn and he wants to have foundation laid this week. He has some very nice corner stones. He is to build up towards the graveyard.
Mr. Moore is to commence building tomorrow morning.
Mr. Beal is building a new house, north of town, on the other side of the hill.
Messrs. Tinker and Sleeper have built a new addition to their shop.
Mr. Tinker has built a new house this year, and I think it is a very nice one.
The Floral Hall is on the other side of the creek, and some people have been living in it. It is a very good sized building but it is not half large enough for this county fair.

Mr. Warner has built a new addition to his hotel.
Mr. Mitchell has torn out his old front and had Mr. Mix put in a new one.
Mr. Wilcox has been fixing his house this fall.
Charlie Mitchell has built a new house in town this week.
Mr. Z. is to have a hotel in it this winter.
Mr. Rennecker is building a new garage this week; Mr. Miller and Mr.
Rennecker's hired man are building it.
Mr. Richardson has built a new barn southeast of his house, and he has painted it red, all but the roof.
Mr. Mix and his hired man have fixed the house which Will Trowbridge lives in.
Mr. Smith tore the old roof off his barn and put a new one on; and he hailed some brick out southwest of his house, but his new house don't go up very fast.

Mr. Lutz has been building a new and level stable this month.
The school house is being banked up this week. Mr. Hayes has been drawing dirt from Mr. Morhart's cellar.
Mr. Post has built a new addition to his house and he has a brick chimney.
WILLIAM A. MITCHELL.
The above was written some two weeks since, as a composition by one of the scholars in the Select school.
He used his perceptive faculties to a good advantage, and no doubt that he and his classmates will in the future if they continue as they have begun, make rapid progress in this important branch of study.

STILL WATER LOCALS AND JOTTINGS
BY THE WAY-SIDE.

(Special Correspondence of the Chief.)
ON THE ROAD, NEB.
Nov. 19, 1877.
Coming and going in all directions are people. In fact they are scattered pretty much all over the county. Fact is, Friend Kinney of Elm Creek, is first attracted notice. Mr. K. is "Breaking ground," old ground, for an orchard. He intends eating of the fruit of his trees within a few years.
Burton Bros. are threshing to day.
Jeff Ward went over to help them and didn't leave any wood cut at home, so your humble correspondent didn't eat dinner at Jeff's house. Never mind Jeff, we'll all be even with you yet.
Excuse me Mr. Editor for wandering from my subject.

George Francis has a large new building, pressed down and gunning over with broom corn.
O, yes, we were over to see Ad.
Spracher and lady. Ad. wasn't home, but Mrs. S. seemed to be quite at home in her new house. Mr. and Mrs. S. have only enjoyed double blessedness for two months, and Ad. still brings in the wood and water.
Pete Spracher is still pounding away in his blacksmith shop, and has the well deserved reputation of being one of the best blacksmiths in the county.
Abram Wells could't let 'well enough alone.' He has a bran new son.
Wilson Wells is on the build considerably. Has a new corn-crib which he expects to fill with 'farmer's gold', this fall, and is now erecting a brick stable, dimensions 12x40 feet. The brick used is 'Nebraska brick.' Splendid roads for a "tip up" out here, a young chap was driving along on one of them the other day with a team of gay ponies and top buggy, when all of a sudden the top tried to find bottom in a mud hole—the ponies danced and froliced with glee, and the aforesaid young chap crawled out from beneath the wheels. But he was a philosopher and remarked "Time is but a fleeting show, and top buggies are a delusion and a snare." Messrs. Moody helped to set things to rights, and all went on their way rejoicing.

Jas. Allen is still hard at work on his farm. The good people of Still Water have been agitating the Christian Reform question.
When you come out here call on us and we will be social as possible.
