

THE RED CLOUD CHIEF

LOCAL MATTERS

Notion in this Column 10 Cents a Line

—Read Harvey's new ad.
—Changeable weather this week.
—Sunday school concert next Sunday.
—Just count the new buildings in town.
—Of course they all subscribe for the CHIEF.
—Did you hear the bellringing last Monday evening?
Work has commenced on the new store already.
—The bell ringers did well, as did their pupils.
—Of course we'll have a railroad and that soon.
—Chas. Potter says business is lively and growing.
—See the ad of the New England House, of Hastings.
—Mr. Shedd, of Hastings made a short call the other day.
—Mrs. Howard knows how to superintend a Sunday school.
—Did you see friend Bently riding around town on his little wheel?
—Elder Lemon preached an effective sermon on prejudice last Sunday.
—Mr. Roberts, of Elm Creek mills made pleasant call last Monday.
—A good cow for sale cheap. Enquire at this office for particulars.
—The road to the bridge needs grading badly. Let the towns repair it.
—Butler and Co., the best stages in the business have a new ad this week.
—Smith & Reynard know how to ring bells so that the listeners will be delighted.
—Mr. Winton arrived in town this week with a carload of horses from Wisconsin.
—Grant Ludlow is now learning the printer's trade and makes good "outs" at it too.
18 yds. unbleached muslin for $1. Wolbach Bros. Hastings.
—Some of our people went over to Mead to attend a religious convention this week.
—Who'll buy an organ at a heavy discount for cash or part cash? We have one to sell.
—Did you see those seventeen loads of hogs that passed through town Wednesday?
—We are glad to note that Mr. Pope our county supt. is improving rapidly in health.
—Late again this week. Have patience friends, our change has necessitated much extra work.
—Our militia company, numbering some fifty, five is being well drilled and will no doubt make efficient guards.
—Friend Winton told us "howdy" last Monday and sat in our chair, one of those, telling us how he likes Nebraska.
—Why cannot we have a good side walk from Garber's to the post office? It would be much more pleasant for pedestrians and would be but little expense to the town.
—That nice specimen of genus homo that does n't take the paper has written us an article arguing that the earth is flat and that any one who does not think so is a fool.
—We are looking for the railroad only waiting for the sound of the brakeman's sweet melodious voice as he yells out "Red Cloud! chain her to the Round House John!"
—Our devil took a "soiled" towel up to the house and said: "you can do as you please about it. If you think it's a towel it's all right, and if you don't think so that's all right."
—We wish that those people that come in the office and take type would be pleased to cease their piffing. Already has enough disappeared to start an opposition paper and we are becoming uneasy at the prospect.
16 yds. toweling for.....
WOLBACH BROS. Hastings
—Read the communication from Crooked Creek. We had begun to wonder what was the reason we heard not from "J." more and think that at least we might have received "Pat's" epitaph, written by himself. Write again "Pat".
—Next week our compositor, Mr. Ashken leaves us for Nelson as he is needed in the office of his father Judge Ashken. We are sorry to part with him as his work has been rendered faithfully and cheerfully, and we shall ever remember him as a friend. Our only regret is that he is compelled to leave the work which he has done so thoroughly and efficiently.

COMMUNICATED

Crooked Creek Neb.
Mar. 21 1878.

Messrs. Editors:

As both "Pat" and the "Pop Post" seem to have done with their subjects—especially the latter, who is said to have killed so many pups that he has the pup mania and is narrowly watched by his parents in order that the next puppy he kills will not be a "suicide" (?). —I will dare to take up the broken threads of their discourse and in so doing must cast some severe reflections on "Pat" that he so misrepresents our beautiful little creek in stating that he is an inhabitant, not that I have any dislike to the sons of Erin for whom their generous hearts; and their "children" are always hospitable, but as Crooked Creek is an Irishman neither is any "Patrick" a Crooked Creeker.
Farmers generally are nearly brought with sowing their wheat and some are already sowing oats. We have sown all of our wheat that we intend putting in this year and we expect to see it up soon.
Mr. Hilkey is improving his farm in a thoroughly agricultural manner and a ready is well along with his work.
Mr. Ewing doesn't do as well, having only some ten or twelve acres plowed. But he is to be seen hard at work every day, some days "blackening the character of the surface of his claim".
Mr. Schutt is a good farmer and is cultivating his farm in a thorough manner.
Mr. Tennant also has the best of his spring plowing done and has the prettiest claim up in those parts, to our notion.
Mr. Mauer has put up a nice, neat frame house. Messrs. Tinker and Miller of your town doing the carpenter work. I believe Mr. M. is a CHIEF subscriber.
Mr. Holworth is doing well. He is one of the early settlers here, having located in 72. He has rented Mr. Ralston's farm and will improve it I am sure for he understands farming.
Rev. Kirkwood lives some distance below and near town. He will not do much farming this summer I hear, and offers his claim for sale. His ministerial duties call him away from home much of the time as he supplies six points with preaching, delivering three sermons every Sunday, one point being thirty two miles from his home.
I believe Rev. Yeiser lives just below Rev. Kirkwood's but am not so well acquainted with the country down there. Perhaps Pat will tell you about the people down there as I heard that he lives down that way.
I am always glad to see the CHIEF when it comes out and we read it whenever it comes home. And now that it is enlarged there is enough reading in it to keep us all busy for a long time. And now Messrs. Editors you must come up and pay us a visit and I am certain you might get some of our neighbors to take your paper I feel almost as if I knew you, reading it every week.
Truly Yours,
'Zek' ZL

Troubles of the French Colony lately arrived in the North-Western part of our County, in Nebraska, given in the earlier issue of the Spectator.

We come from Lac Superior vous savez, to make settlements as we do French in Nebraska, but alas! we find so many of us down at St. Jo, Railway one grand totalment racial; big fraud. You see, we anguish so land at one dollar and half so acre, and agree to make paymang in two week. Zen so arang give so deed already on depositions in so office.

But, oh mon Dieu, when we come to receive so deed, he say, so arang vous savez—Parbleu, grand mistake, gentlemen, my poor head, you will please make excusation so land is two dollars so acre. Ten we hold council I make so discourse. Ze speech vous savez, avec much emotion to my friends, and we make resolutions. En consequence, we tear down so frame, fill so cellars, we return so lumber to so yard, through so deep mud; we sacrifice, we lose metecolomang; main mon Dieu, it is so principle of grande nation.

Ze arang he much corree, he implore, promise grand indemang, he exclaim: I love so French, adore grand nation.

No, No, we retain dignite offendu, we say. You monieur, grand fraud. Ten we go to Webster County. Tere we find metecolomang. Kalo, very fine gentlemen, tere honest, no fraud. J'esais avec corree.

FOR MEN

The time has come when a man may know that he will get value for every dollar that he invests. Quacks and humbugs are most abundant and are compelled to take a hard seat, or be crushed by the wheel of progress. An article must possess real merit—must be what it is represented to be. Or, like the swindler, he will die in the ruins of the bubble of his own delusion. The best covering of modern science, O. & C.'s Cough and Diphtheria Remedy, can always be relied on. It cures the irritation or itching of the throat, renders expectoration easy and cures the sore throat. It is guaranteed to do all that it is advertised to do. Money refunded to the purchaser. C. H.
