

LATE NEWS!

The Farmers' and Traders' Bank at Lexington, Ky., has suspended. The loss by a fire on Fulton street, New York, March 13th was $21,000. At Marlboro, Mass., March 12th, the Acton powder mill blew up, killing two men. P. J. S. Trumble, a banker and a large dealer in grain at Mt. G. Road, Ohio, has failed. Charles L. Wilson, proprietor of the Evening Journal, Chicago, died in that city a few days ago. The Fall River manufacturers have voted a fifteen per cent reduction of wages, beginning April 1st. The main building of the county poor house at Rochester, N. H., burned March 12th, and $10,000. No lives lost. Two men were killed at King's Mountain, Ky., March 10th by the explosion of the boiler of a portable engine. Joseph H. Marks, St. Louis, a south commission merchant, has suspended, with liabilities amounting to $110,000. Eliot, Reed & Co., wholesale dealers in hats and straw goods, New York, have suspended. Liabilities, $700,000. A collision of coal trains near Pottsville, Pa., March 12th, resulted in the wrecking of three, and killing John A. Comstock. The American Brush Company's factory at New Haven, Conn., was burned by an incendiary, March 12th. Loss, $25,000. A fire at Jersey City, March 11th, made about 100 persons homeless. The breaking of a ladder fatally injured two persons. Another fire visited Hot Springs, Ark., on the morning of March 15th. Four buildings were destroyed. Loss from $10,000 to $15,000. On the 14th of March, at Yonkers, N. Y., Thomas Morris shot and killed Mrs. Samuel Leggett, and then shot and killed himself. Rev. Brown Coble (colored), was hanged at Winchester, Tenn., March 14th, for the murder of Felix Gardner (colored), June 23, 1876. The new silver dollar appeared in Wall street, N. Y., on the morning of March 16th. Buyers paid a fraction above par in gold for them. Miller, the associate of Richard Green in the murder of Hughes, for which Green was hung at Kansas City, a few days ago, has been found guilty. A. N. Robinson, who was treasurer at the time of the robbery of the Clermont county treasury, at Batavia, Ohio, has been arrested for the crime. George Johnson, the murderer of the negro ferryman, Alfred, was hung at Rome, Ga., March 15th. He confessed having committed four murders. At Harrisburg, Pa., March 11th, two children named Wood were fatally, and two others seriously, burned by the explosion of a boiler, with which the oldest was lighting a fire. The medical department of the University of Pennsylvania, March 15th, graduated 127 students, and conferred the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws on John Welsh, U. S. Minister to England. Miss Mary Hampton, a prominent teacher in the public schools of Memphis, Tennessee, has been charged with forging the names of the superintendent and other prominent persons to notes, on which she obtained from the banks and private parties $3,500. The Mason & Hamlin Organ Co. have received an official appointment as organ makers to King Oscar of Sweden. The King is quite a musician, and having obtained one of these American organs for his own use was so much pleased with it that he conferred this honor on its makers. A bill has been introduced into the Pennsylvania House of Representatives which makes cremation of the human body a misdemeanor, and provides a fine of not less than $500 nor more than $1,000, with imprisonment, and makes it the duty of constables, sheriffs, and other officers, to enforce the act under penalty of prosecution. A run on the Boston Five Cent Savings Bank began March 14th, and developed into a general panic. The commissioners examining the securities, after deducting all depreciation which the assets had suffered, and allowing $167,000 to pay the interest falling due April 1st, reported that the bank would still have a surplus of $423,000. The Pennsylvania Colonization Society has authorized the American Society to send, at its expense, fifteen emigrants to Liberia. They will leave on the first of May, and will locate at the flourishing settlement of Brownsville, ten miles from Monrovia. It was named in honor of the late Charles Brewer, of Pittsburg, by whose generosity many emigrants have been enabled to make their way to Liberia. The Cincinnati Gazette has published dispatches from fifty-seven points in southern Indiana and Ohio, and northern Kentucky, from which it appears that the prospect for a large crop of wheat is exceedingly good. The average here has fallen larger than ever before known. Not one report is unfavorable, though from a few points there are apprehensions of a rank robbery. A heavy robbery was committed in the Lechmere National Bank, Cambridge, Mass., about 5 o'clock, March 10th. A small trunk containing $6,000 was taken, and two other trunks, containing $47,000 in government bonds, the property of different individuals, left in the bank. It is supposed from certain facts ascertained, that the robbery was committed by three men and a woman. A number of the creditors of the Worcester Company, of Worcester and Amherst, have filed a petition asking that it be adjudged bankrupt. The creditors represent $187,000 of indebtedness, and the claim is set up that the debtors made a fraudulent assignment of a large amount of property to Arthur H. Stark. The company has been greatly embarrassed by the recent failure of I. D. Eastor & Co., Chicago, with which firm it had intimate business relations. Commodore John Hodges Graham, United States Navy, died of apoplexy at Newburgh, N. Y., March 15th, aged 84 years. He was one of the twelve officers who took part in the midnight expedition against the British stronghold opposite Black Rock. Nine of the officers were killed or severely wounded, Graham receiving a wound in the ankle, which caused amputation of the limb afterwards. There was a heavy snow storm in the Black Hills from the 7th to the 12th of March. The snow in Deadwood, on the level, was over five feet deep. Considerable damage was done to the mining camps in the gulch by the snow crushing in the roofs of houses. The Caledonia mine, located in Shoemaker Gulch between Lead City and Central City, was purchased, March 12th, by California men for $20,000. On the night of March 7th, a storm of snow and wind swept over the entire country from Green river, Wyoming, to the North Platte, Nebraska, a distance of 500 miles. It proved to be by far the most severe snow storm in that region since the construction of the Union Pacific railroad. It continued without abatement till the 10th, making it almost impossible for persons to go out without fear of certain death. After the storm, the bodies of a number of persons were found, who died from exposure. A great deal of stock perished. On the night of March 13th, at Princeton, N. J., the junior students of the College exploded some fire-crackers on the grounds of the theological seminary, whereupon two seminary students followed them and overtaking them a fight ensued, in which the seminary men were knocked down and beaten. Both parties were reinforced and another collision resulted in breaking a nose and doing other personal injury to the seminary students. The Collegians were put under arrest, one being dismissed and four being bound over to await the action of the grand jury. FOREIGN. ENGLAND. A London dispatch of March 12, says: The Coal Owners' Association of North Yorkshire and South Derbyshire, have determined to reduce wages seven and a half per cent. This determination affects between 35,000 and 30,000 miners. The manufacturers in the North of England from trade were demanding a reduction of wages of from ten to seventeen per cent. It is believed to be the end of the great strike. A London dispatch of March 14th says: In reply to a question the Chancellor said the Government had agreed to take part in the Congress. The Government is now communicating with various Powers regarding the terms upon which we shall enter the Congress. The Chancellor said he could not enter into the details, but he might say that in the Congress each Power would maintain liberty of action. It was not intended that a majority would bind the minority. England will maintain her views in the Congress, and will require, before entering it, that every article of the treaty of peace shall be placed before the Congress in such a manner that the Congress can judge whether the articles are to be accepted or not. In the House of Commons Sir Robert Peel objected to Lord Lyons representing England in the Congress, because his opinions were opposed to those of Layard, and Sir Stafford Northcote replied that the Government and not Lord Lyons, was responsible for England's course at the Congress. A London dispatch of March 14th, says: The officers of the Royal Engineers first on the list for foreign service have been ordered to provide themselves with field equipments and be ready to immediate service. The London Times says: The Prussians are making further advances toward the Bosphorus. Our government must have satisfied themselves that the virtual command of Constantinople gave Russia no insuperable advantage and we may therefore view, with comparative indifference, the movements, which are no way more alarming than those in which we have acquiesced: In the House of Commons, Smith, first Lord of Admiralty, introduced a navy estimate. He stated that the present force was ample to man every ship that could be commissioned. He had come to the conclusion that it was his duty in the time of peace and he hoped, of the continuance of peace, to ask for an increase of the estimates. The House then passed all the estimates except those for the dock yards and stores, the consideration of which was postponed. RUSSIA. The Journal De St. Petersburg declares untenable the reported English demand that all points of the treaty should be submitted to the Congress, and says if the mission of the Congress is to result in peace, subjects not of a European character and which might lead to an excited but fruitless discussion, must be set aside. At Russian headquarters it is positively stated that when the British fleet passed the Dardanelles, orders came from St. Petersburg to march into Constantinople, but Grand Duke Nicholas took upon himself to disobey the command and only moved forward in the direction of Constantinople, sending at the same time to St. Petersburg a statement of the reasons for so doing. The Political Correspondence says: A conviction prevails in St. Petersburg that the British armaments reveal England's intention to occupy some point in the Levant, possibly Mitylene. Russia would then have to consider the safety of her Black Sea coast, which is only a few hours sail from Mitylene. Immediately after the arrival of Gen. Ignatieff and Reouf Pasha in St. Petersburg, the conditions of peace will be committed to the Powers. It is announced, semi-officially, from St. Petersburg, that Prince Baltenberg, the Czar's nephew, has been definitely proposed for the throne of Bulgaria. The London Post states in an official dispatch that Russia has neither received nor rejected the proposition for the admission of Greece to the congress. She was disposed to agree to the admission of the Greek delegate with merely a consultative voice. The Agency Russe commenting on the Berlin dispatch intimating that a secret arrangement had been made between Russia and Turkey says: Russia is not so confiding as to conclude secret clauses with Turkey when she knows that the slightest transactions are communicated to Minister Layard. In regard to England's claim of the right to examine the whole treaty at the Congress and withdraw from the meetings in certain contingencies the Agency points out that every power will enter the Congress with full liberty as to the attitude it may assume in relation to the claims brought forward and the decisions arrived at. TURKEY. The visit of the Grand Duke Nicholas to the Sultan has been postponed till after the treaty of peace is ratified. At the request of Layard the Sultan has approved the charter for the Protestants of Turkey, similar to that possessed by the Greek Armies Church. A Berlin dispatch of March 14, says: The Anglo-Anatolian demand that the whole of the Russo-Turkish agreement shall be submitted to the Congress, arises from the belief that special and secret arrangements have been entered into independent of the principal treaty. A special from Constantinople states that the Sultan has summoned Prince Hassan, of Egypt, to Constantinople. It is said the Prince is implicated in the conspiracy of Sultan Pasha. Cherif Pasha is going to Constantinople to intercede for him. It is expected that Sabouita Bey, late Ambassador at Berlin, will be the second Turkish plenipotentiary to Congress. A dispatch from Constantinople reports that the Russians have occupied Wekerkevi, half an hour's march from Budukdere, on the Bosphorus. They also occupy a majority of the villages around Constantinople and continue advancing toward that city. A Constantinople special says: It is asserted that Northern Syria has revolted and proclaimed itself separate from the Sultan. It is reported that the Kurds, in the province of Diarbekir, have revolted. It is untrue that the Porte has given orders to prevent any more British men-of-war from passing the Dardanelles. Layard has recently obtained a firman permitting the passage of the Hotspur and Condor, which vessels are expected in the Gulf of Isond shortly. Layard has also secured permission to send the Rapid to the Albanian coast to embark refugees. A Ragusa dispatch says: The Turks have strengthened the garrison in Herzogovina, and are working day and night in the entrenchments. GERMANY. The German Government will not issue invitations to the peace Congress until all the difficulties about the subjects to be considered are removed. The general prospect is far from encouraging. Germany will claim the Presidency by prescriptive right, whether Bismarck attends or not. ITALY. A Rome correspondent hears from high authority that the Cardinals have declared the Pontiff can, under certain reservations, renounce in the interest of the church material property of the church. This opinion has been asked so as to free the Pope from being perpetually bound by considerations relative to the Temporal power. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20th, says: There has been no serious fighting since last reports. The insurgent Kaffirs have broken into small parties which are endeavoring to force their way through the patrols and reach the settlements for plunder. The work of preventing them from carrying out their objects is extremely tedious. It is officially reported that the number of insurgents who have surrendered from February 25th to March 5, is 1,230 persons with 180 stands of arms. The prominent chiefs, Maximo, Gomba, Benitez and R. derguez, embarked for Jamaica, and Salvador Cisneros, Marquis of Santa Lucia, for Europe. AFRICA. A Cape Town dispatch of Feb. 20