TEACHINGS OF HISTORY.

It is, thus, by means of the senses bringing the mind into conscious contact with or enjoyment of the external world that it is awakened into self-conscious activity.

"To attend," derived from the Latin attitude of leaning forward to look. "To conceive," derived from the Latin word Conceptio, to take hold of.

"To understand," to stand under. "To comprehend," derived from the Latin comprehendo, to embrace round about.

"AGAINST" THE BONDS.

A Communication from a man who "asserts his right," to abuse the editors through their own paper.

"Fools are not all dead yet." Suppose all readers of the CHIEF saw these words in the issue of March 28, found in an article upon R. R. Bonds.

"The man willing to give the ten dollars rather than to have the B. & M. undoubtedly can give excellent reasons for his opposition."

Our county and state tax for the present year will be, according to the treasurer's estimate about 25 mills per dollar.

Now look at the other side. Interest on railroad bonds will be eight mills per dollar. The county pays 3-4 of this or six mills.

At the end of 15 years, or sooner, the bonds amounting to $45,000 become due, and the county is not pay her portion of it.

What is Mr. Ralston but a thrush chirp of the wild flock. And then there is a misfit, and if I mistake not Mr. Gurney has some of the wild blood in him.

A little further down the Crake is Mithur Sleeper, an sure its, well! that is after thinking that his father gave him the wrong name entirely.

Down below Ralston and Hamston big Blacksmith shop, is Mithur Richardson's shire where yis be aither seeing Cattle and pigs in Galore.

Just a little below Mithur Richardson, is the governors wild mansion used to be church, court-house lawyers office and sleeping spartmist.

Vote 10 per cent for the B. & M. and we cannot vote bonds for another until they are paid.
