- Thanksgiving Day. —Monday night was cold. —Road the market reports. —Attend church this morning. —See Dr. McCulloch's new card. —Four boarders wanted at Spring.

Best flour in the market. at MINKER'S. A temperance drama is on the way.

—A velocipede was on the street the other day. —Every kind of business is flourishing. —The ex. Ark at the depot don't like working "on the railway".

—Mr. Mitchell moved into his new house last Friday. —Mr. Hampton is building a new house. —The Valley House is having another addition put up.

—A few boarders wanted at the first house north of the old house. We will work for you yesterday. It went this morning train. —Continuing for everybody is every day at MINKER'S. —McNitt expects nearly a carload of wall paper soon.

—Rev. Pype preaches in the Church this morning at 11 o'clock. —Did you ever see those dress goods at MINKER'S? Best in town. FACT. —Will Belle has been appointed Deputy Sheriff in and for Webster county.

—Subscribe for the best and newest paper in Western Nebraska, viz. the CHIEF. —Mr. Borin will rail on the people of Iowa for their support, track and new school. —TEA! TEA! TEA! MINKER keeps TEA. —Buy your lumber at Blue Hill cheap for cash.

—The man who measured his wheat in a bagket, couldn't agree with a balance on quantity. —W. J. Getty of Omaha representing business the wholesale paper dealer, called yesterday. —Wiggins bought 1400 bushels of wheat last Tuesday. He has bought over 60 carloads since he came here. —Music at the Hall tomorrow evening.

—If you want an Album, McNitt will sell it to you cheaper for cash than anybody in the city. —Some one in Nevada has our thanks for two copies of the Virginia Academy Chronicle, a daily full of news and notes from the mining regions, as well as general news. —Remember the place at Reed's new store room on the corner opposite Barber's, tomorrow night. No charge for admittance.

—"Where does this road go to?" "It's a new last Saturday evening." "Well I have lived here five years and it has not gone anywhere," was the reply. —Some of our young married friends who were married in the CHIEF, wonder why their marriage notice does not appear in the columns. We can only say that it is a wonder to us also, as we published theirs always, but not without authority either from the parties themselves, or the party who signed the marriage.

—Mr. W. H. Reed of Lowell has moved his family to this place, and now lives in his large building on the corner opposite Barber's. He has some valuable furniture, by the upsetting of a wagon on the road from Lowell to this place. He has been in a store for nine years, and he proposes to retire his store soon, and engage in some business that will give him more our labor earnings.

—We find on our table the American Agriculturist for November, and among many other excellent articles is a letter from one of the editors in the west about parts of which we will copy next week, also a letter from Fred Wright of this state, in which he goes on to show that we have no fears from any further ravages by the grass hoppers.

—Some of the Means and Old Fellows are very anxious that their Society should be named in connection with the entertainment tomorrow night. This is right, it is for the benefit of the Baptist church and you can all come in with your half dollars, enjoy yourselves and the funds will be used judiciously for the public good, in the fitting up of the Court room.

—Please call at this office and settle your subscription, also we shall find your art business. We must enlarge the facilities of this office, put on a new press, by Jan. 1st and we want Five Hundred Dollars and more justly due us, we will run things on a cash basis here after.

A. P. McCULLOCH

Physician and Surgeon, Red Cloud, Nebraska. Office over Johnson and Creps store.

Johnson & Creps have the finest line of prints in the city, just received from the east.

A great many new buildings have been erected in Hastings this season, and the town has built up with remarkable rapidity, but at the present time, and since the completion of the new road to Red Cloud, the denizens complain of terrible dull times, and a remarkable falling off in business of all kinds.

Mr. Hart has a fine large horse, it is pointed him.

Mr. S. R. Bierck keeps the post office and a since at this place. He also has a fine farm, well improved.

Mr. Nozler has half a section of land well under cultivation.

The Bush brothers have fine farms. One of them has 110 acres broken, and is making a good start for a pleasant home.

The Blue at this point is dry, but there is quite a good supply of timber there yet.

The school house is well adorned with notions and charts.

Wanted, a correspondent at this place, to whom copies of the paper will be sent free.

Miss Dixon of Red Cloud with Miss Olinstead from the East, have just opened a full line of Millinery and Fancy Goods, first door south of the Argos office. Give them a call.

—Pies for Christmas should be made that excellent lot so west at the City is at market.

A NEW GROCERY. L. E. Snel dealer in groceries and provisions has located at the first door north of Kaley Bros, where he can be found ready to serve all customers in his line.
