CITY AND COUNTRY.

—Local's scarce this week.

—Ladie's Suits at Mrs. Lutz. 5w42

—C. W. Springer is making a success of his select school.

—Mr. R. L. McCune has our thanks for a bunch of radishes.

—Yes we will have a grand celebration at Red Cloud the 4th.

—Read the new advertisement of the B. & M. Railroad Company, in another column.

—Several farmers and their wives were detained in town by the storm last Saturday evening.

—We have been the recipients of a number of new subscribers the last week, and still we would accept of a few more.

—The Webster County Teachers Association is called in district No. 33 instead of district No. 3 as announced in last week's issue.

—Chas. E. Putnam hangs his "shingle" in the CHIEF this week—the people of the county will see it and an increased trade will be the result.

—A Sabbath School picnic was held last Saturday up on Elm Creek, in John Waller's grove, which is said to have been a very enjoyable affair.

—Recollect that you can get anything in the Job printing line as cheap at the CHIEF Job office as you can get it in Lincoln, with expressage added.

—"Afflatus," afflatus, let's see, what's the meaning of "afflatus"? aff—the deuce, we give it up, and refer our readers to our down town cotemporary, ("wich" wears good clothes).

—Perkins & Mitchell seem to be building right up in the grocery business here. Somehow they seem to keep on hand the best of goods in their line and sell them cheap.

—It was reported that our cotemporary of the south part of town had his brains dashed out by the falling hail stores last Saturday evening, but it was denied at once on the ground that he had no brains to dash out.

—Mr. T. E. Moon, formerly of Graceton, this state, has opened out a stock of dry goods, groceries etc., at Cowles, and is already doing a good business. He is a live energetic business man, and as such, is bound to succeed. Read his advertisement in another column.

—We formed the acquaintance of several of the business men of Cowles, the other day, among whom we might mention T. E. Moon, Merchant; T. Thomas, Merchant; J. W. Hill, Blacksmith; Mr. Crabtree, Carpenter; Mr. Brown, Painter, and others whose names we have forgotten.

—Last Saturday evening great preparations toward a storm was made in this vicinity, the lightning was incessant and uncommon sharp but very little rain followed. Hail stones as large as hens eggs fell, but there was not enough of them to do any damage to crops, several persons was whacked on the head by falling hail, which caused them to ruefully rub their noses and seek shelter in a hurry.

—The good people of Cowles should provide suitable hotel accommodations for the travelers who stop there. We are informed that no longer ago than last week a lady (?) passenger got off there and slept in the depot with the station agent. While we commend the liberal and self sacrificing spirit that prompts the accommodating agent to share his bed with a stranger, we regret that he should be thus imposed upon.

—Our advertising patronage has increased to such an extent that we are compelled to enlarge the CHIEF as soon as new columns and head rules can be obtained. In the mean time our readers will please bear with us if we do not give as much reading matter as we would like, for we will remedy the evil as soon as possible, and then if the advertising increases we will print the entire paper at home and double the circulation in six months. It can be done.

—We are informed that a consummate old ass whose other name is J. B. Potter is busily circulating the report that the circulation of the CHIEF does not exceed 250 copies. We do not know who pays the old idiot for lying about us, or whether he does it out of pure cussedness, but this we do know, if he will come to our office and bring a man with him who has sense enough to know what he is about, we will show by the books that the circulation of the CHIEF is nearly three times as great as Mr. Potter claims it is. We do not know the cause of the animosity that could prompt Mr. Potter to make such gross misrepresentations, and we care less, our subscription books show the circulation of the CHIEF. If we have been misinformed, and Mr. Potter has not tried to injure our business by misrepresentations, as we have been informed, then we will gladly retract all we have said, but we don't intend to be imposed upon if we know it.

—Pure Maple Sugar at Perkins & Mitchell's.

—Just as we were making up to go to press, the big circus ad came in, and we were compelled to issue a supplement in order to publish all of the advertisements.

—Red Cloud Grocery selling out, to make room for new stock.

—Sweet Potato, Cabbage and Tomato plants at Roby's. 2t

—Try Perkins & Mitchell's 50 cent tea, it beats them all.

—Another arrival of new and rare green house plants at Roby's. Call and see them. 2t

—Butter on Ice at Red Cloud Grocery.

—A bold thief attempted to rob Mr. Putnam of his watch in broad daylight last Tuesday, and very nearly succeeded. Mr. P. gave him some good advice and allowed him to depart in peace.

—Mower's pots and hanging baskets at Roby's.

THE CHAMPION GRASSHOPPER BREAKING PLOW

Is now offered to the Public by

HAMPTON & Co.

All wishing to break prairie will do well, and save money, time and horse flesh by purchasing the CHAMPION. They are made on an improved principle, and of good material and guaranteed to give satisfaction or no sale.

All work in our line made of the best material and guaranteed.

We thank the public for past patronage, and solicit a continuance of the same.

HAMPTON & BREWER.

Red Cloud, Nebraska.

In behalf of the undersigned, I hereby certify that Mr. Wright for his kind assistance contributed so largely to the pleasure of the party, and would say that he is a gentleman with whom it is a pleasure to associate, especially on fishing excursions.

To our readers who live in town or upon the high prairie, we would say that for real unalloyed pleasure there is nothing, perhaps, to equal a fishing excursion—to forget the cares of business and spend a day in the woods on the banks of a clear rippling stream, to bathe in its limpid waters is a pleasure indeed, and if you would live long, die happy and go to a better world, take a day and go fishing on Elm Creek.

ED. CHIEF.—I see by a communication in the CHIEF of the 22d signed, "Carlos" that there is complaint made of my assistant. I wish to ask some questions concerning said epistle.

1. If as your correspondent claims, the complaint is general, why get behind that popular bullwork of newspaper correspondence, when they want to back bite or write that which they do not care to become responsible for.

2. Would it not have been more manifest to have come to me with the complaint, stating grounds for same, then if it was not rectified take it to the highest of tribunals, the public. State your case plainly and above all things don't get way back behind an assumed name.

3. With "Carlos" state one instance where my assistant has refused or in any manner failed to do a single act required by the regulations of the department, or the published rules of this office. If he can, it is a duty he owes to me as the principally responsible party, and the public. I always stand ready to answer any and all complaints, if just, to rectify the cause of same.

For the benefit of the public and "Carlos" especially, I will give a few instances, that would seem to be some excuse for what ever of a coarse, surly and unaccommodating disposition that may have marred the refined, sweet, and accommodating disposition of "Carlos" who always desires to please and oblige, and everybody no difference how coarse, rude and surly they may be, who has taken on himself the labor of love Pro Bono Publico behind an assumed name.

For instance, the practice of asking or having some one ask for the same parties mail from 3 to 5 times in as many hours. Or calling repeatedly for mail when you are looking for other parties.

The practice of laying a letter in the delivery window with the exclamation of "here stamp this letter."

Or of abusing the P. M. or As's because they refuse to deliver mail before the office is open for business.

These things have been done daily but Mr. or Miss P. M. you must not get corns or surly, or you will rattle the even and pleasant temper of "Carlos."

As to the "incompetency," I have only to say this; I do not wish to boast of the competency of myself or assistant, but make your charge, and if you can sustain it the department will see that you get some one that is competent.

M. B. McNitt, P. M.
