THE CHIEF. THURSDAY, DEC. 4, 1879.

There seems to be a very open and just and satisfactory settlement of the Indian question other than to admit the Red man to all the rights and privileges enjoyed by the whites.

The Clarendon and Blackwood remains of Allen J. Youm were taken from the burned depot at Hastings, Nebraska.

At an inquisition held at Hastings, Adams county, Neb., on the 25th day of November, A. D. 1879, and continuing from day to day, until the 25th day of Nov., 1879, before me, Wm. H. A. Kelley, Coroner of said county, upon the body of Allen J. Youm, by the names of the persons who were present, subscribed, and which was duly examined and sworn to, in and to the effect that the said Allen J. Youm came to his death, feloniously and violently, by means of a bullet fired from a rifle.

Work on the R. & M. is being pushed with vim. We understand that a large force will be at work in this country in a few days.
