Our Washington Letter.

Washington, Dec. 25, 1879.

Ad in our paper is now in the hands of Congress having settled down to the belief that no action will be taken on the subject this session.

Senator Bayard seems to be confident that his resolution will be adopted in the interest of the hard money party.

We have associated with us in the editorial work of this paper, J. S. Gilham, who is an able and forcible writer, and is known as such to a majority of our readers.

The Red Cloud Organ of Senator Ed Cook endorses the marine Hospital at Nebraska City.

The State has grown too large for such things to be of much political value.

Among Our Neighbors.

Leaving Oak Creek behind us, we started westward again, and after a short ride, brought up at E. M. Peterson's school house in Dist. No. 40.

On Friday, we visited Miss Lily Farnsworth's school. This is Miss Farnsworth's first term, and she is doing good work.

Home again after a week's drive, and we settle down to our own affairs.

PROVERBS.

"The Richest Blood, Sweetest Breath and Purest Skin is Hop Bitters."

"All the Hop Bitters saves big dollars and long sickness."

"That invalid who, after, sleep or child a day, is made the picture of health with Hop Bitters."

"When worn down and ready to take your bed, Hop Bitters is what you need."

"Don't physic and purge, for it weakens and destroys, but take Hop Bitters, and you will be well again."

"Physicians of all schools use and recommend Hop Bitters. Test them."

"Health is beauty and joy—Hop Bitters gives health and beauty."

"There are more cures made with Hop Bitters than all other medicines."

"When the brain is weakened, the nerves strung, the muscles weak, use Hop Bitters."

"Fast low, nervous fever, want of sleep and weakness, calls for Hop Bitters."
