THE "PIRATES OF PENZANCE."

of the Southeastern railway. Yet, as Journal. their Chief mournfully observed, somehow they never could make piracy pay.

This unfortunate failure was due to the ed exclusively from orphans.

error for which the nurse could hardly J. M. Milligan, in N. Y. Tribune. be blamed, since the words are so much of the act the separation accordingly make perfect digestion. takes place. Not, however, until there have been some stirring scenes. A bevy strumentality of

A doctor of divinity Located in the vicinity.

The discovery that all these girls are of a Major-General" is quickly followed by the appearance of their military papa. This personage has been supplied with a rattling "patter-song" which can hardly fail of a great effect.

Studded thick with a calculate and prevent them from burrowing in the soil and undergoing their calculates. The parasites are found mainly in the back, and should be squeezed out of their cysts by strong compression of the adjacent skin, and of unsuitable dentifices and washes, and especially of all advertised or secret preparations warranted to harden the the soil and undergoing their respectively. tremendous length and difficulty, it re-

PARM AND GARDEN.

LIVE STOCK AS A MEANS OF RESTOR-LIVE STOCK AS A MEANS OF RESTORING LAND.—Such of our readers as are engaged in tilling the rich virgin soil of the West, may not appreciate the following, from the remarks made by Mr.
Way, at a recent meeting of the Western New York Farmers' Club; but the time will come when such questions will force themselves upon the attention of farmers everywhere. In the meeting referred to Mr. Way said that he had referred to, Mr. Way said that he had speed, firing all the way, and a wilder learned by experience that it was necessight I never care to see. It was no use The pirates of Penzance were the most ruthless and accomplished cutthroats who ever scuttled a White Star steamer. Their lair was a rocky place lieved that manure was the secret of what a Winchester rifle was good for: steamer. Their lair was a rocky place on the coast of Cornwall, remote enough for quiet, and yet convenient for business. With equal ease they could swoop from their hiding-place upon the Liverpool and New York mail-packets, or cut out the full freighted argosies which ply between Boulogne and Folkestone in connection with the tidal trains of the Southeastern railway. Yet when they attacked the strong they al-ways got thrashed. It was their rule to allowing the completion of this process. robbers and four horses will not trouble have mercy upon or hans. "Though we are pirates," said the Chief, "we are not insensible to the promptings of and before the mellowing process beble was, it got about that they always spared orphans, and as a consequence every ship they captured was found (if the captives told the truth) to be manned and officered by that interesting and afflicted class. Yet, as one of the varieties when grown at the South, is and afflicted class. Yet, as one of the varieties when grown at the South, is due to the greater length of the South. irates remarked, it is certain that the ern season, which carries the ripening British mercantile marine is not recruit- process too far. The question arises whether by picking the fruit earlier its It is with the picturesque ruffians of Penzance that the new comic opera by Messrs. Sullivan and Gilbert has to do. The hero of the piece is a young man perature artificially, which the climate named Frederic, who was intrusted to a would make necessary. The better nurse in early childhood to be appren- plan would be for our enterprising hor, the bygiene of the mouth, Dr. White ticed to a pilot. The good woman made ticulturists to produce later ripening apa slight mistake, and the boy was firmly ples, suited to a longer season; this is indentured to the band of pirates—an not beyond their skill and intelligence.

alike. Frederic was a most excellent person and a useful pirate. In all his from the milk when the cows were fed taining ingredients likely to be depositactions he was governed by the strictest on a peck of buckwheat bran each was ed about the necks of the teeth, and thus sense of duty. Those who have read in light colored and thin. Now, when cause the absorption of the gums and the Bab Ballads the story of "Capt. they are fed four quarts of corn-meal, alveolar processes. There is no agent, Reece, commander of the Mantlepiece," the cream is thicker and more yellow. for instance, more commonly employed are well aware that Mr. Gilbert has a This means more butter. Bran of all for cleansing the teeth, or more deservkeen appreciation of the heroism of sorts is better for young animals, as it ing of atter condemnation, than powduty, and that he excels in analyzing makes muscle; but meal is best for cows, dered charcoal. Again, the large mathe operations of a mind controlled by as it makes fat, and milk is fat; that is, jority of persons err in choosing brushes a sacred sense of obligation. The char- milk which will make good butter con- which are too stiff and too large, and in acter of Frederic, torn by conflicting tains a large per cent. of fat. The bran applying them too vigorously. A very best manure, because pillage, yet doing violence to his natural impulses in stern fidelity to the bond of manure-pile, and this furnishes the supprecipitated chalk, is sufficient for the indenture, is happily and powerfully ply of nitrogen. The farmer, then, who external surfaces of the teeth; it is quite drawn, and the surprising complications feeds plenty of bran will have a rich unnecessary to use the powder oftener which result from his strange situation manure heap, and so it is cheaper to than once a day, the best time for such are treated with the greatest ingenuity. buy bran and feed it liberally than to purpose being just before retiring. The The opera is in two acts. The first stint one's animals and buy commercial morning cleansing may be properly pertakes place in the Pirates' Lair, and fertilizers. Commercial manures do formed with the aid of a little pure, when the action begins Frederic is within a few hours of the end of his apprenticeship. At 12 o'clock he will be 21 years of age. He informs the band that he is about to leave them forever. He growth. The lesson we would teach is spirits of ammenia or lime water. The loves, admires, reveres them as com- to save all of the bran for the growing use of a quill toothpick after meals to rades; he detests them as pirates, and animals, and the meal for the fattening dislodge particles of food from between it is his purpose to devote the remainder ones and the cows. To make them all the teeth is advisable, as is also the use of his existence to their extermination. healthy and to utilize and assimilate of a strand of waxed floss silk, passed Of this resolve, since it is prompted by both bran and meal perfectly roots between them at least once daily. Pera sense of duty, the pirates find it un-reasonable to complain, and at the end portant part of the system, and helps to a wash, in various disordered conditions worms found under the hides of cattle an antacid, an astringent, a sedative, a of charming girls, looking, in their high-waisted and short-skirted gowns, and their broad hats, as pretty as a picture by Gainsborough, some tripping over the rocks, and prepare to amuse themselves by paddling in the water. Where the flies abound they was a process of the gums. Protection of the water autumn. Where the flies abound they wided there are no local, exciting, metally results are the young or larvæ form of the are the young or larvæ form of the ox, which chase and seriously harm cattle, while laying their eggs in summer and subsequent soreness of the gums. Protectly results are the hides of cattle are the young or larvæ form of the ox, which chase and seriously harm cattle, ing after extraction, and relieves the subsequent soreness of the gums. Protectly results are the young or larvæ form of the ox, which chase and seriously harm cattle, ing after extraction, and relieves the subsequent soreness of the gums. a maken, massungens, a season, as are free your somme unauer me more or came easy terrestrial felicity; and this price, and attempting, and addisprice, and desired the proposed which class and seriously harm cattle, it checks, we are told, excessive bleepers, and the proposed of the power is the proposed of the proposed of the power is the proposed of the proposed of the power is the proposed of the power is the proposed of the proposed of the proposed of the power is the proposed of the power is the proposed of the power is the proposed of the proposed of the proposed of the power is the proposed of the power is the proposed of the proposed that the second power is the proposed of the proposed of the power is the proposed of the power is the proposed of the proposed of the power is the proposed of the proposed of the proposed of the power is the proposed of the power is the proposed of the power is the proposed of the proposed of the power is the proposed of the proposed of the power is the proposed of the proposed of the power is the proposed of the proposed of the power is the proposed of the proposed of the power is the proposed of the power is the propo They are caught with one shoe off, and greatly retard growth and fattening, chanical causes, it will be found effective their alarm is piquantly expressed in a hopping chorus, to which the pirates contribute, being determined to get as deterioration of the hide by the larmarried immediately through the in- væ under the skin. But as the fly does used diluted, more or less, according to Studded thick with scientific terms of the soil and undergoing their natural gums and whiten the teeth. counts the accomplishments of the dis-tinguished officer who seems to be thertinguished officer who seems to be thoroughly versed in astronomy, mathematics, natural history, and nearly all branches of science except, indeed, in military affairs. The rapid delivery of this song is occasionally interrupted in a mass of dead matter in the sore to un- formation from the true skin, and is as

but as we turned our attention to the soon drove them back seventy yards or more. They then tried to circle

In the affray George was shot in the shoulder, but it was only a flesh wound, KEEPING QUALITIES OF FRUIT.—The and we kept on our way with a guard of natural process of ripening fruit on the 11, furnished us at the next city, four tenderness of their hearts. They were tree is intended to benefit the seed miles beyond. There were so many far too ready to spare the weak; and merely; hence the quality of some val bushes we could not tell exactly how

Inside the coach was a Spaniard who threw his revolver from the window, a humanity; we are orphans ourselves, gins, sugar and juice are elaborated Mexican who wrapped his head in a and we know how it feels." The trou- instead of woody fiber. The pear and blanket and put his revolver under him,

Hygiene of the Mouth.

did there from George.

Dr. John A. White, editor of the Dental Cosmos, is the author of a little book recently published entitled "The Mouth and the Teeth." In a chapter on by the use of unsuitable brushes and injudicious scrubbing—by the resort to tooth powders and mouth washes made in ignorance of the purposes to be submoderate application of a soft brush, of the mouth, than phenol sodique, a preparation made from tar. According GRUBS IN CATTLE.—The grubs or to our author it unites the properties of

Some Standards of Muman Mappins

"But softly the voice within me calls: Weep not o'er woe until woe befalls." o refrain from "borrowing trouble In the order of this world we should have cough of that questionable prop-erty by inheritance, without resorting to the burdensome and bankrupting habit of borrowing.

In practical affairs the habitual borrower is always catching at straws, as if he were never out of desperate straits; and "borrowing dulls the edge of hosmaxim that contentment is wealth. At this moment I can not recall a more persistent and patience-killing stilliction than the man who always sees calamity looming up; whose life is divided be-tween furtive deagings of possible mis-ment. siles and gloomy recitals of his appre-

highest happiness?
If another find in travel those keer and panoramic delights for which his soul and sense pant, it is certainly not a

The Sandar-school Brams.

The attempt to combine the Sunday- ordered a wedding breakfast, to cost Weep not o'er woe until woe befalls."

That is merely a poetical reproduction of the ancient and excellent advice can rarely be united so as to produce a self, and a ordering be succeeded in can rarely be united so as to produce a self, and in ordering, he succeeded in satisfactory result. Either there is too much Sunday-school for the amount of theater, in which case the entertainment is unspeakably dreary, or else there is too much theater in proportion to Sunday-school, in which case the perform day-school, in which case the perform
self, and in ordering, he succeeded in borrowing $25 on the strength of his approaching marriage with an heiress. He also ordered many valuable presents for his affianced, but managed to stave off payment. On Friday last the young day-school, in which case the performlady for the first time managed to stave off payment. On Friday last the young lady for the first time managed to stave off payment. On Friday last the young lady for the first time managed to stave off payment. On Friday last the young lady for the first time managed to stave off payment. On Friday last the young lady for the first time managed to stave off payment. On Friday last the young lady for the first time managed to stave off payment. On Friday last the young lady for the first time managed to stave off payment. On Friday last the young lady for the first time managed to stave off payment. On Friday last the young lady for the first time managed to stave off payment. On Friday last the young lady for the first time managed to stave of payment in the first time managed to stave of payment in the first time managed to stave of payment in the first time managed to stave of payment in the first time managed to stave of payment in the first time managed to stave of payment in the first time managed to stave of payment in the first time managed to stave of the town to decise the first time decise the first time the first time first time for the first time f ance becomes objectionably worldly. cerity, but the wedding was not post-Mr. George MacDonald's "Pilgrim's poned. On Saturday morning the Progress" is almost the only instance of Count dreve up to his lodging house in a successful Sunday-school drama, and a carriage, packed his trunks and mysbandry" in these telephonic times no even that really meritorious entertainteriously disappeared. When the fact may be found fault with, on the was tood to the lady, she took it quietly, that sage precept to the chivalrous ground that Faithful's habit of fifting and canceled the invitations and all ment may be found fault with, on the was tood to the lady, she took it quietly, ground that Faithful's habit of fifting and canceled the invitations and all Lagries.

It occurs to me that a healthy state of mind is of greater moment than an easy purse, which suggestion (now I remember it) is only another form of the maxim that contentment is wealth.

ground that Faithful's habit of litring and canceled the invitations and all wedding arrangements. A detective was employed to hant up the Count, and found that on Saturday he had taken a train for Montreal. The French Consultant and that a Biblical play can be successfully admits that he had a slight acquaintance acted by Sunday-school children can with the Count, but says that he knows never be wholly eradicated from the enterprising Superintendent's mind, and that he talked to them of going to Cuba, hence the holiday season always without that subsequently he wanted to bornesses repetitions of the familiar experitory from them and they dropped on him .- St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Great things were anticipated, unown experience with them has not been very great, but I have known something of their ways in the line of abstrain. The play was written by shot dead. The fearing rage with which the fighting was carried on is indescribation. The control of their ways in the line of abstrain. The play was written by shot dead. The fearing rage with which the fighting was carried on is indescribation. The control of their ways in the line of abstrain. of their ways in the line of observing literary skill, and the pastor and ble. Two combatants, one of the regular a year.

violent presumption that he may, if he bend all his powers to the furtherance of his projects having that end in view, reach the summit of his desire.

If I extract from work, from books, from books, from companionship with men and women who dare to think, those blessings which seem to me to be all there is of happiness, I shall not have been put to excess of troublesome search to realize my ideal.

It is of the summit of his desire.

If I extract from work, from books, from books, from companionship with men and women who dare to think, those blessings which seem to me to be all there is of happiness, I shall not have been put to excess of troublesome search to realize my ideal.

It is of the suppression of menditude environs; and the ground its first fashionable boules at the same it haits fashionable boules the ground its first may be seized and daministered for their appearance, were children of the extract from their appearance, were children of the extract from work, those blessing quoits, others were playing marbles. All were quarrefing fercely, and from their appearance, were children of the extract from work is favorable to the production of that is favorable to the production of that is favorable to the production of that is hat in his hand, in order to display humoredly at those conventionalities to which the most of us are vassal. Few things give me livelier satisfaction, or play more effectively upon my continuisasm, than a bold defiance of continuity to the bold was refull without internistic to the distance, the known French and Spanish re

could not choose a better standard), why is it not within the easy possibilities that he may assure himself of the highest happiness?

If another find in travel these keeps the standard in the back-ground, up which a face beside and a face which always looks smiling.

If another find in travel these keeps the wants of the back-ground, up which a face beside and a face which always looks smiling. practical and very steep road ran. On The federe, having fallen on the trooperactical and very steep road ran. On each side of the stage was a dense forest of ten or twelve trees and a country him by stabbing him in the head. One violent presumption that he may, if he tavern, with the sign "Railway Hotel," could not help being struck with the black rithon to serve as a necktie, and verted the taste and led parents to rob is favorable to the production of that unique audacity which laughs good-humoredly at those conventionalities humoredly at those conventionalities of hair. He was a large prophet, with a long white beard and a

Then, if every man deliberately choose his own happiness, I presume he counts the cost of it. That he may eventually attain it, I see no sufficient reason to doubt. Being human (that is to say finite), it is not to be supposed that he is going to invade the realm of the infinite for his standard of merely terrestrial felicity; and this aspirations.

Then, if every man deliberately their parents by their conduct, to which they with one accord triumphantly answered that they "hadn't got none," and that they were "orphants." Greatly disgusted by this repartee, the Prophetic or or conditional Assembly, re-enforced by the arrival of the prisoners made by the Prussians at Sedan, grew in strength, and this song, very seldom forgetting his their nature. Less carbonaceous food, their assaults against the forts occupied by the federes and the walls of the city became more successful. Confusion and despair began to reign in the camp of the more successful. Confusion and despair began to reign in the camp of the more successful. Confusion and despair began to reign in the camp of wicked children continued to yell after him, advising him to buy a wig, or to again proves his power to reach his aspirations.

It follows that one naturally inquires

Then, if every man deliberately their conduct, to which they with one accord triumphantly answered that they with one accord triumphantly answered that they with one accord triumphantly answered that they "hadn't got none," and that they were "orphants." Greatly dispards their assaults against the forts occupied by the federes and the walls of the city became more successful. Confusion and despair began to reign in the camp of the most of the true will not be a rare treat to all lovers of bird music.

A St. Louis quack doctor, who protected to read a fell into the old canary bird, like strain. To hear the little bird imitating the familiar melody, and that they with one accord triumphantly and they with one accord triumphantly and they with one accord triumphantly and they with find then rushed together and fought all over many avoiding to sleep in their own transport. Mr. Gladstone suggested remi to a more, a control of manabeter, a work the internal control of manabeter, and the finite of the control in the control in the control is more and pattern than the control is more and the contro

MOME AND PORTION COOSED.

A MAN who caught malaria while imprisoned in a jail at North Adams, Mass., has sued the town for damages

It consists of two bullets that evidently met in the air over some battle-field. and, happening to strike each other on their conical points were firmly wedged together.

CLARENCE G. HOWARD, said to be an exemplary young man, and the son of a tions article of diet, and if American respectable citizen of Huntingdon, Long Island, entered the recent walking match in New York, but after accoun-plishing seventy-are niles he withdrew, complaining of sickness of the stomach. He was taken home and continued to grow worse, and died from utter exaustion on Saturday morning.

THE London Times of a recent date contains notices of hunting appoint-ments of 120 packs of bounds in Eng-There are a few natures, however sunny, across whose skies these afflictive and afflicted victims of the dismals do not cast a very somber shadow. My own experience with them has not been own experience with them has not been of the Sanday spherical street of the Sanday spherical street of the Sanday spherical street of the Williston Congregational Church, in regard to the representation of the Williston Congregational Church, in regard to the representation of the Seriptural play of "Elisha," last of the Seriptural play of th upon which, being drawn up in line across the stage, they perform, as a reaction across the stage, they perform, as a restrain to a song, a sort of taran-ta-ra, a frain to a song, a sort of taran-ta-ra, a frain to a song it it will have some little influence in instruction. Meanwhile, remove the prestruction in whatever way if you do not exactly get at the kernel of my thought, keep on hammering out to abstain from complicating religious doubt one of the strangest women of her girls, and to be now worth $160,000.

The first step toward relief is to se-toward reli

Blot Projedles.

The prejudice which the French man, forteel at the corn bread and muchbominy and grits, maimis and maisons. and the bistory of the Scotch tell ne that out meal has no superior as an article of buman diet. It feeds both brain and muscle, and gives power of indurance which can not be enjoyed from our average American diet. Out meal and milk forms a moved mutr children were brought up on such food, rather than on nick nacks, candles, pickles, pastry, cake and the thousand abominations of the frying-pan, we would have a nobler race, and the type of American manhood would be improved in all that goes to make up a great and powerful people. We are careful to feed our young horses val-and grass, and not allow them to have corn, as it is too heating, but how land and Wales. This represents, in many farmers and their wives think of

of their ways in the line of observing their influence on more susceptible persons.

I think that what is called selfishness has been very much abused because it little understood. Suppose every one should address himself solely to working out the problem of his own happiness. We have all, probably, some individual standard of happiness, to reach which is not a vicious ambition, as I understand it. My reighbor has his standard; I have mine. If he rejoice most in those ealm joys, which revolve around the domestic hearth (and he could not choose a better standard), the substandard; I have mine and a red drop-curtain, made around the domestic hearth (and he could not choose a better standard), the substandard; I have mine and a red drop-curtain, made around the domestic hearth (and he could not choose a better standard).

matter of diet are not more commendable than the prejudices of the French-

It will be remembered that about the --Hansen's "Coulisses de la Diplomatie," the following account is given of the event. The Emperor William spent the evening of Thursday, the 27th of indicate, natural indicate, and transfer in the story of the story of the story of the commended, as it is everage in the story of the story of the commended in the story of the story of the commended in the story of the story of the commended in the story of the story of the story of the commended in the story of t off the Easter lamb with Prince Ferdi